Khrushchev Arrives In Bandung; Talks Against Colonialism

Bandung, Indonesia - (UPI) - Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev arrived at this west Javan city Saturday and continued his assault on "colonialism."

Since his arrival in Jakarta last Thursday, his speeches have been prepared with anti-colonial sentiments.

The Soviet leader told a crowd of 50,000 persons in front of the governor's mansion here that colonialists have rejected Indonesia's economic growth. He said the nation's main wealth is in natural resources.

"Colonialists naturally are reluctant to abandon this wealth which they have stolen," he said.

Khrushchev said Russia sympathizes with the Indonesians. "Not only do we offer our moral support, but we are prepared to offer material support to those countries which have achieved freedom from colonialism."

Officials in his party said Khrushchev declined an appearance at the All-Indonesian Youth Conference Saturday because he "weary" after the 65-mile drive from Bogor.

Security precautions were extreme along the route of the trip with President Sukarno. Thousands of steel-helmeted troops with fixed bayonets were stationed at strategic points along the winding mountain route. Houses along the road were ordered to close all windows and doors.

Deep loads of crack troops rode with the 75-car motorcade and helicopters cruised ahead of the party to watch for any sign of snipers.

Khrushchev and Sukarno planned a private dinner last night. They stayed overnight, then left by plane for Jogjakarta this morning. Khrushchev is scheduled to lecture at the state university there today.

Cameroon Reports Terrorist Attacks

Yaoumie, Cameroon - (UPI) - Armed terrorists launched mass attacks against government supporters in the Bamileke region of Cameroon Friday, according to reports reaching here.

The reports said the terrorists killed at least 62 persons, wounded 60 and burned 200 huts.

French troops and police struck back. They were reported to have killed 15 of the raiders and injured "many more."

Cameroon is Africa's newest independent state. It gained its freedom Jan. 1 after being a French territory for 42 years. Before that it was a German colony.

The Bamileke region is a mountainous area in the western part of the state, densely settled with a population of about half a million.

The raiders were believed to be members of the illegal Union of Cameroon Populations (PUC) party which has been waging a terrorist campaign for several years.

Friday's attacks occurred as the nation prepared for a referendum on a new constitution. They were directed against supporters of Premier Ahmadou Babatoura Ahidjo.

The Communist-tinted PUC has denounced the draft constitution as "undemocratic" and has vowed to overthrow the government even at the risk of heavy bloodshed.

Radio Development Reviewed at Friday SOCTFA Meeting

Robert Olin, director of planning for the Forest Industries Radio Communications association, traced the development of radio and radio regulation for members of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association Friday night.

"Radio is a definite type of tool," Olin pointed out. "Give a logger a good tool and he will use it. He quickly recognizes its value. This also applies to mobile two-way radio as developed during World War II," he added.

The planning director described how the power of a transmitter was the only limit to the range of radio in the early days before the Federal Communications Commission. Then the U.S. Department of Commerce took over radio and the Federal Radio Commission was established under the department of commerce.

In 1934, a seven-man group called the Federal Communications commission was appointed by the president. This group enforced regulations pointed toward operating radio channels in terms of public interest. Soon police, aircraft, marine traffic and amateurs were all crowding the airwaves and channels.

Since the hobbyists or radio hams were being squeezed channel-wise they became ingenious operating their sets so as to avoid overlapping or

Three Candidates File for Nomination

Assessments of members soon became necessary to establish a regular service for advising members of all legislation and rule making affecting mobile radio communications. FIRC helps applicants to select channels among its many services, Olin concluded.

New Law Explained - Curt Nesheim, warden of the southwest district of the state department of forestry, explained the new log brand law. Those desiring brands must apply by letter to the state forester giving their name or that of their company, address and inclose a drawing of their proposed brand. Since the state now has 8,000 registered log brands the drawing is required to avoid duplication.

Nesheim pointed up the importance of the brand law for protection of the logging operator by telling how a log truck driver left his truck after a breakdown, returning in three hours and discovered every log gone although the truck was parked on a main highway. The logs were unbranded, he added, and have yet to be found.

Glenn Duysen, Kogap Lumber Industries, assumed his new office as SOCTFA president. Ray Offord, Offord Logging, Medford, was presented an Elks Lodge key and a plaque as outgoing president.

Finch Testimony To Be Summed Up

Los Angeles - (UPI) - A summing up of testimony given during the two-month murder trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his 23-year-old mistress this week could tip the scales held by a jury weighing freedom or conviction for the defendants.

At a preliminary hearing for the death in the little green room that serves as the execution chamber at San Quentin Prison, the recent referee of convict-author Cary Chessman may have a bearing on the case.

The state legislature has been asked by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to consider scrapping the death penalty and any prisoner under sentence of death immediately would be spared.

Attractive Socialite Barbara Jean Finch, 33, was found slain July 18 outside her West Covina, Calif., home. She had been shot in the back.

Her handsome surgeon husband was arrested the next morning in the Las Vegas, Nev., apartment of his mistress, Carole Tregoff. He had fled in panic, he later testified, his wife was slain accidentally after they had wrestled for possession of the weapon.

At a preliminary hearing for the tennis-playing surgeon, Miss Tregoff was arrested when she stepped from the stand after telling a story of carrying the so-called "murder kit" to the Finch home. This testimony was ruled inadmissible at the murder trial when the defense contended she had not been informed of her constitutional rights.

$326 Million Could Be Spent in State

Eugene - (UPI) - The head of the Oregon Department of Finance and Administration estimated Saturday that state spending in the 1961-63 biennium could amount to more than $326 million, not including building or any new programs.

Freeman Holmer, finance department chief, presented the estimate to the legislative interim tax committee in Eugene.

The current state budget is $14 million less than Holmer's figure, and includes a building program.

The $326-million-plus figure, he emphasized, is not the budget that will be recommended to the next legislature by Governor Mark Hatfield. Holmer said it may be revised up or down.
