

Ashland Church Scene of Rites

Mrs. Joan May Hackert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Calhoun, 2124 Camp Baker road, became the bride of Gerald Wesley Fitzpatrick, son of Mrs. Doris M. Fitzpatrick, Canyonville, in a ceremony held Saturday, February 13, in First Presbyterian church, Ashland.

The Rev. B. J. Holland officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride wore a blue dress. Mrs. Carol Adams attended her sister.

Best man was Ray Smith. Following the ceremony a reception was held for members of the couple's families at the Calhoun home.

The bride attended Phoenix high school and is employed at Rogue Valley hospital. Mr. Fitzpatrick attended Canyonville schools and is a truck driver in the area.

The couple is now at home at 2135 Camp Baker road.

Meeting Announced For Women's Club

A business and social meeting is planned by Scottish Rite Women's club for 8 p.m. Monday, February 22, in the Masonic temple.

On the committee in charge are Mrs. H. L. Alfred, Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, Mrs. George Carleton and Mrs. Earl Henry.

Wedding Planned For March 20

Miss Janet Jamison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Jamison, 110 Portland avenue, is spending the week end with her parents and planning for her coming marriage to John Stadler Corson, son of Kenneth P. Corson, Seattle, and the late Mrs. Anne Corson, Grants Pass.

The wedding is planned for March 20 in the First Presbyterian church here.

Both young people will be graduated from the University of Oregon in the spring. Miss Jamison plans to teach in the Portland schools and Mr. Corson will enter Portland Medical school in the fall.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

The wedding of Mrs. Ellen Lavern Stewart, 632 Pennsylvania avenue, to Dennis Paul Suther, 1948 Myers lane, took place February 12 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Wood, also of 1948 Myers lane.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mattie M. Perrett and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Suther.

The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the double-ring ceremony. Over 35 guests attended.

For the wedding the bride wore a light blue silk brocaded linen suit with white accessories and a small pearl-trimmed white hat. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Helen Kay Suther, Chowchilla, Calif., a niece of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a suit of medium blue with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Larry Suther, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Miss Connie Lee Shelton, Eagle Point, was flower girl. Harold Dale Wood had charge of the bride's book.

Mrs. Cecil Wood served the wedding cake and Miss Suther assisted at a reception which followed.

The bride came to Medford five years ago from Modesto, Calif., and is employed in the office of Davis Transfer company. The bridegroom formerly resided in Chowchilla, where he and his father operated a trucking company. He is employed at the Gordon Kershaw nursery.

They are making their home in Medford following a wedding trip to the Oregon and California coast.

Authority On Bible To Speak

Dr. Donald Grey Barnhouse, pastor of the Tenth Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, will speak to the Westminster Women's association and their guests at a luncheon meeting Tuesday, February 23, at 12:30 p.m. in the Fellowship hall of Westminster Presbyterian church.

"The Psalms" will be the topic of Dr. Barnhouse's talk. The women of Westminster Presbyterian church have been studying this book of Biblical poetry and will continue this theme, "The Book of Psalms," as their Bible study during the monthly circle meetings throughout the year.

Westminster Women's association cordially invites anyone interested in hearing Dr. Barnhouse to attend this luncheon meeting.

Dr. Barnhouse, an internationally known Bible teacher, is now in his 32nd year of teaching a Monday night Bible class in midtown New York, drawing more than 400 persons each week. He is also teacher of The Bible Study hour on the National Broadcasting company's network, and has written numerous books.

Elden-Hillyer Ceremony Held in Chapel

Decorations in the valentine motif provided a setting for the wedding February 13 of Miss Carolyn Hillyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Hillyer, 13 Modoc avenue, to Robert H. Elden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Elden, North Pacific highway, Central Point.

The bride and bridegroom are students at Oregon State college.

Their wedding was performed by the Rev. George G. Roseberry, in Meeker chapel of First Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the evening. The double-ring rites were read by candlelight.

Red rosebuds and white carnations were on the altar. Candelabra holding tapers and baskets of chrysanthemums and stock decorated the area.

Mr. Hillyer gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk organza over white peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline having an overlay of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The closely gathered full-length skirt with matching lace overlay ended in a chapel-length train.

Her illusion veil was caught with a crown of pearlized orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Sally Elden, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her dress of white silk organza embroidered with pink and red rosebuds, was designed with a moss green satin empire waistline and back bow with sash falling to the hemline.

Her cascade bouquet was of pink carnations and tiny red roses.

Mrs. Jack T. Walker II lighted the altar candles. She wore a sheath dress of moss green. Mr. Walker was best man.

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception in their home following the wedding.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a green sheath dress with a brown orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige sheath dress with a green orchid corsage.

The bride chose a moss green costume with matching accessories for traveling following the wedding.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority at OSC. The bridegroom, who attended Crater High school, is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

The young couple will make their home in Corvallis.

A luncheon and shower honoring the bride was given by Mrs. Jack Walker, 2415 Lyman avenue, Wednesday preceding the wedding. Flowers and decorations were of the valentine theme.
