Program Slated By Three Units On Synthetics

Three home extension units have scheduled meetings Tuesday, February 23, at 10:30 a.m.

The two Applegate Valley units will meet in joint session at the grange hall. A study of synthetic fabrics will be given by Mrs. Francis Krouse and Mrs. George Brown.

There will also be a discussion of next year's program by Mrs. Glenn Bailey and Mrs. Glen Travis. During this period members may express their wishes on work to be undertaken.

Child care will be provided and a potluck dinner will be served.

The Willow Springs group will also hear a program on synthetic fibers and fabrics. Mrs. Fred M. Brown and Mrs. Russell Thompson will give the lessons.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Vogel, Tolo road, Central Point.

Gold Hill Group To Join Council

Gold Hill—At a recent meeting of the Woman's Society of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, held at the home of Mrs. Earl Moore, the group voted to become a member of the Medford Council of Church Women. Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, president of the society conducted the business session. Mrs. George Dorman was co-hostess.

"This is the day" was the theme of the program topic by Mrs. Blanche Merriman. Mrs. Roy Eskew presented the devotion lesson in place of Mrs. Roy Hornoman as previously announced.

It was announced that nearly $700 towards the furnace fund had been raised by the Woman's Society through various activities.

Plans were made for a committee to meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith to outline plans for the smorgasbord dinner which is planned for the near future.

The hostesses used the valentine theme for decorations. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Carter, with Mrs. Wilbur Martin as co-hostess.

Dental Assistants To Hear Speaker

Dr. Leonard Mayfield will speak on "A Visit Behind the Iron Curtain" at a meeting of Southern Oregon Dental Assistants' society. It is set for Wednesday, February 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Red Cross building.

Dr. Mayfield, superintendent of Medford public schools, spent a month in Russia last fall.

It is stated that members may take guests to the meeting to hear Dr. Mayfield.

Attend Party

Hilts - Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson and children, Bobby and Susan, were in Medford February 13 to attend a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook. The event celebrated the birthday anniversaries of Susan Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson's mother, Mrs. E. E. Gibson, Ashland. Other guests included Mr. Ferguson and their children, Pat and Jimmy.

Darrell Miller and Miss Sue Brennan were crowned King and Queen of Hearts at valentine dance Saturday, February 13, by the Future Nurses of America chapter at Medford High school. Funds earned by the dance will go towards a nursing scholarship given by the chapter. Mrs. Juanita (Clark) Anderson is advisor for the group. (Knackstedt photo)

Club's Annual Report Shows Financial Gains

The board of directors of the Girls Community club entertained the board of trustees at a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the club house on North Bartlett street.

Annual reports given for 1959 showed that 63 girls, most of them teen agers, lived upstairs in the girls' quarters during this period and that 571 meetings were held in the downstairs rooms. This proved to be a substantial growth in the use of the building since it was opened in 1957.

The financial statement prepared by O. P. Taylor, certified public accountant, was presented by the treasurer, Mrs. M. M. Morris. The report indicated that the increased usage of the club facilities has provided a steady growth in revenues for the operation and maintenance of the club.

Group to Attend Temple Ceremony

A large delegation of members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, will go to Eugene February 27 to attend a ceremonial. It will be held in the Masonic temple, corner of Ninth and Olive streets at 1 o'clock.

Among those attending will be Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Mrs. Charles W. Cook, Mrs. Ralph McKay, Mrs. Murray S. Gardiner, Mrs. William Schei, Mrs. F. L. Somers and Mrs. W. J. Moreland.

Members of the patrol who will take part in the ceremonial are Mesdames Frank Fawcett, Knout Wermark, Rollin Miller, Ray Martin, Frank Ross, Ernest Pearson, Earl Knight, Verl Walker, Paul Schontal, Mae Rehart and Miriam Ward.

As the organization is a non-profit corporation, the contributions from meetings and individuals, make possible a wide program of community service.

Upstairs Committee
Mrs. Martin Luther gave the report for the upstairs committee in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Hugh Coleman. Furnishings and supplies for the girls' rooms purchased during the year include a new washer-dryer combination machine, a small refrigerator to supplement space needed to care for the many milk cartons used daily, and replacement of linens for the 22 beds provided for the resident girls.

The report of the matron, Mrs. Mabel Houck, included the former home addresses of the 63 girls that lived in the house last year.

The girls were from 34 different cities in Oregon, Washington, California and New Mexico. They were employed as secretaries and office workers, 14; clerks and waitresses, 8 each; attending business and beauty schools, 16; and dental assistants, telephone company, California Oregon Power company and Bear Creek, 9; and one each, baby sitter, nurses aid, X-ray technician, schools, laundry, doctor's assistant, and practical nurse.

Wedding Reception
Many weddings and wedding reception for former resident girls were held. Several weddings among the group in the house also took place last year, in this group were nine brides.

Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, chairman for the downstairs committee, told of furnishings purchased and additions made to the building during the past year.

The major project was the enclosing of the back porch which has kept out much of the dirt from the alley and parkway. Other improvements included a ventilator window in the back stairwell, plaques and a shelf stand for the entrance hall, and the installation of more lockers for the use of organizations who want to keep their supplies at the club house.

The report of the financial secretary, Mrs. John D. Shortridge, noted that the majority of the 571 meetings held in the club rooms were regularly scheduled groups. There are approximately 30 organizations who meet either once a month, twice a month or weekly.

From 6 to 8 special events by nonscheduled clubs or private parties are included in the monthly reports.

Gatherings Held
Some of the gatherings last year were Salvation Army bazaar and luncheon, Girl Scout tea and fashion show,

St. Anne's Altar Society bazaar and luncheon, Southern Oregon Society of Artists' picture sale, Parent-Teacher Association luncheon and all day meeting, Shasta-Cascade Association banquet, Zion Lutheran Church Men's club banquet for mothers and daughters, Pilgrim Holiness church farewell dinner for their minister, Sweetheart banquet by the First Southern Baptist church, Grandmother Clubs of America, Rogue chapter, Thanksgiving dinner; United Nations tea; and Medford Duplicate Bridge two-day session for the Southern Oregon Tournament and charity benefit for Roseburg Disaster Relief. Also held were numerous weddings, receptions, card parties, teas, luncheons, and fashion shows. The report concluded that the building is used for more than 50 meetings of community interest each month and more than 2,000 persons attend.

Mrs. R. G. Owens, who is in charge of the "remembrance book," reported on the memorial gifts made during the year and listed the names added to those of previous years. Forms for contributions in the name of friends or relatives may be obtained from the office or from her.

The trustees approved all committee accounts of the year's work as well as the financial statement.

Board of Directors
Officers and members of the board of directors for the ensuing year include Mrs. Dolph Phipps, president; Mrs. Martin Luther, vice president; Mrs. M. M. Morris, treasurer; Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, secretary; Mrs. Mammie Sleeter, Mrs. R. G. Owens, Mrs. Hugh Coleman, and Mrs. T. K. Oliver.

Trustees of the Girls Community club include Eugene Thornndike, Dr. R. B. Elliott, H. H. Pringle, J. C. Boyle, John P. Moffat, T. K. Oliver and Harry S. Skyrman.
