It was "lucky 13" Saturday night for the Medford High school basketball aggregation with the swirling Black Tornado manufacturing its own good fortune.

Medford, erupting with a ruthless fourth quarter gale, swept over the Klamath Union Pelicans 75 to 43 at Klamath Falls. Victory, the 13th against no losses in 1960 District 6 A-1 capering on the mapleboards, earned the Tornado the Southern Oregon conference mantle, its first in the sport in four campaigns.

The Pear city powerhouse also assured itself a bottom bracket berth in Class A-1 state tournament pairings against the No. 2 representative of the Wilco league. And it flashed its fine degree of depth.

The only hoop quintet to dump the Pelicans this season, Medford on Saturday chalked up its fourth win against no defeats over Klamath Falls. It was the last conference meeting of the schools. With only three frays left for each in the loop this season and Medford holding a four game margin, Klamath riding in second spot, has no chance to pass, or even tie, Medford in the circuit. The Tornado has ended a three-year conference reign by Klamath.

Storming Stride

Two and one-half quarters went by Saturday before the Pels began to crumple. Then in the final stanza Medford caught a storming stride that Klamath couldn't match.

Klamath's tall contingent had jumped into a starting lead and kept it but for a fleeting moment through the first quarter. Then after eight ties and seven lead switches Medford went ahead to stay. The Pear capital crewmen built up an eight-point spread by the close of the third chukker. They settled the District 6 title issue in the fourth canto beyond all doubt with 11 field buckets and eight free shots for 30 markers while holding the Pels to just six tallies.

The Tornado swished the hemp from the field at a torrid .524 average in the concluding panel.

That Medford has a strong bench could not be denied after the scorching triumph. The Tornado went to Klamath without Lowell Dean, who has an ankle sprain. Part-time starter Bob Quinney took his center slot. In the second quarter forward Jerry Shults turned his ankle and non-starting regular Booth Deakins went in. Reserve Cal Dean replaced Ken Durkee when the guard acquired his fourth foul in the third stanza. And, Quinney, Deakins and Cal Dean were all cogs in the victory. Shults, who had seven first quarter points, and Durkee did not return to action.

18 by Anderson

All-stater Jerry Anderson was Medford high scorer with 18 points and top rebounder with 14. Quinney produced 16 points and collected nine rebounds for Coach Frank Roelandt's cage ensemble. Deakins flicked the net for 12 Tornado counters. Bruce Brickner with 10 was the only Pelican in double scoring figures. He led his club also with nine retrieves from the backboards.

Medford got off to an uncertain start and Klamath had 10 to 3 advantage after 4¼ minutes of playing time. The Tornado caught up at 12-all, aided by three Shults baskets, two on fast breaks. A Fred Biehn free shot made it 13 to 12 for Klamath at the quarter.

The Tornado was now in the game and six ties and all seven lead changes came in the second quarter. At halftime the teams were knotted at 29-each.

Medford took a 33 to 29 jump as the second half started but KF tied it at 33 apiece. Deakins sank a driver for 35 to 33 for Medford. Brickner and Quinney swapped free tosses and Brickner hit from the corner for a 36-all count. Durkee sank a long shot off a fast break, giving Medford permanent lead before he retired from the scene.

Defense Good

Deakins and Quinney added field baskets, Dean two free shots and Anderson one while Gary Patzke got a lone gifter for the Pels. Score at intermission time was 45 to 37.

Klamath managed only two field buckets in the fourth quarter. These came after Medford had romped for 26 points while the Pels were putting just two free throws through the hoop.

Good defense went along with Medford's scorching offensive pace. The Tornadoes in the final period often stole the ball or otherwise broke up the Pelican attack. Medford outdid the taller Pelicans under the backboards and particularly showed strength under its offensive hoop from the mid-third quarter on. Ragsdale, Durkee and Cal Dean came through with some fine floor play and ballhawking and Ragsdale and Durkee got a good share of rebounds for little men.

Klamath Falls won the jayvee game by a slim 47 to 45 and the sophomore fracas by 50 to 42. The Pel JV overcame a 25 to 20 Medford halfway spread. KF sophs led 32 to 17 at halftime.

Crater High Nicks Cavemen 3rd Time

Central Point–Crater High's Comets came out in front after a hectic up and down fourth quarter Saturday night to nudge the Grants Pass Cavemen 60 to 58 in basketball contention at Grants Pass.

It was the fourth and final ruckus of the Southern Oregon conference slate between the two schools this season and marked the third hoop triumph for the Comets in their GP conflicts. Crater also widened its grip on third place in the loop to two full games over the Climate city gang.

And, hey, back up a bit. Crater is still in the race for second place in the conference and a berth in the state A-1 tournament. The Comets are three games behind Klamath Falls with three tiffs to play. They must win all three and the Pels lose all three for a second place deadlock to occur.

Lead changed hands six times in the closing minutes of the skirmish. Crater had a 44 to 32 command in the third quarter but saw its gap diminish to 47 to 42 by the end of the canto.

See-Saw Action

With something like three minutes left, the Comets had a bare 51 to 50 edge. A Jim Purkett bucket made it 52 to 51 for GP but Ernie Cooper's left hand hook gave Crater 53 to 52 lead. Two free heaves by Larry Janssen put Grants Pass ahead once more at 54 to 53. Cooper came back with a jumper from the corner for 55 to 54 Crater. However, Janssen tallied on a steal for 56 to 55 Grants Pass.

Loyal Higinbotham drove through the key for Crater 57 to 56 and Cooper added a pair of gift throws for 59 to 56. Rex Benner's two free throws narrowed the difference. Higinbotham missed a free shot try but a technical foul was called on the crowd for its verbal efforts to hamper the Comet. He got another try and made it.

A Grants Pass field try missed and Crater got the ball. Dave Sharp was fouled with five seconds left. He missed the shot but Dennis Edwards tipped the ball up twice and time ran out on the Cavemen.

Rebound Shot Sparks

GP was on top at the quarter 18 to 16 but Crater had a 36 to 29 halfway margin. Crater was trailing by four points right at end of the first stanza. A long shot by Higinbotham hit the back board and Edwards rebounded it for two points at the horn. This effort seemed to spark the Central Point club.

Benner and Purkett had 19 and 18 points, respectively, for Grants Pass and Higinbotham 12 and Edwards and Sharp each 11 for the Comets. In rebounding Edwards cleared the boards 11 times. Cooper 10 and Sharp nine. Benner had 10 retrieves for GP.

Crater lost Chuck Turner on fouls midway through the last quarter and Clyde Murray, Purkett and Dan McIntire of Grants Pass all were banished in the final stanza.

Grants Pass won the junior varsity game 80 to 31 after a 42 to 14 halftime lead.

Hound Trial Firsts Won By Oscar

Oscar, hound owned by Bill Lasley, Hillsboro, won first line and first tree Sunday to take top senior and junior combined division honors in the Rogue Valley Field Trailers' meet along Old Stage rd. north of Jacksonville.

Butch, owned by Carl Bergman, Eagle Point, took senior second line and Champ, entered by John Simmons, Roseburg, won second tree.

In the green dog competition Sparkplug, entry of Kurt Tessman, Medford, was first line and Bummer, owned by Floyd Patterson, Eagle Point, first tree.

Second line and second tree were taken, respectively, by Jazabel, owned by Fred Mitchell and Budy Ryan, Coos Bay, and Stubbie, owned by Ernie Peyton, Gold Hill.

The event, first held by the Trailers, had a large spectator attendance plus ideal weather for running hounds.

Shasta Takes Semi

In senior semi - final first line was Shasta, entered by Tim Horn, Jacksonville and second line was Mitchell and Ryan's Gold Tone. Cocoa, entered by Ed Dorris, Sutherlin, and Cecil Shaw, Coos Bay, gained first tree and Champ was second tree.

Oscar was first line and first tree in junior semi-finals, Butch second line and Fireball, owned by John Arnold, Coos Bay, second tree.

In the first green dog semi Bummer had first line and first tree, Sparkplug second line and Stubbie second tree. Jazebel was first line in the second semi-final and Tramp, owned by Les Howe, Roseburg first tree. Buckaroo, entered by Bob Morgan, Jacksonville, and Don Wallace, Medford, had second line, and Sankie, entered by Bill Garrett, Vancouver, Wash., second tree.

Hawkinson's Takes AAU District Court Diadem

Hawkinson Tire Tread of Medford won the Southern Oregon district AAU basketball championship Sunday.

The Tiremen downed Superior Troy Laundry 91 to 57 in the finals of a three-team playoff at Klamath Falls. Superior Troy was the Klamath entry in the meet.

Medford's club had a 15-point 42 to 27 lead at the half but Klamath cut the distance to 10 points by midway in the second half. Good defense and strong running offense then enabled the Southern Oregon Independent league champs to pull away.

Dave Hughes had 22 points for Hawkinson's, Vern Steward 13 and Mike Preseau 12. Dick Young scored 13 for Superior.

On Saturday the Tire team won 74 to 71 from Roseburg.

The state tournament will be March 5 and 6 at Hermiston.

Six Teams Cinch Spots In Tourney

United Press International

This will be a telling week as far as state tournament berths are concerned for prep basketball teams.

Six teams have already cinched berths in the state A-1 tournament which starts March 15 at McArthur court in Eugene.

Five made the tournament over the weekend. Sandy will be the number one team from district 2; Marshfield clinched the number one spot in district 5; Hermiston and La Grande are the one and two teams from district 7, and South Salem will represent district 8 as the number one team.

Medford was the first team to clinch a state berth. The Black Tornado did so last week and will be the number one team from district 6.

Klamath Falls needs only one more victory to clinch the second team berth from district 6.

Still to be decided—perhaps this week—is district 1 where Cleveland is running in front for the first spot with Grant and Jefferson battling for second.

Here is a rundown on other districts:

District 2—Sandy in; Jesuit, Parkrose and Reynolds battling for the second spot.

District 3—David Douglas in front for the number one spot; Beaverton, Astoria, Clackamas and Central Catholic in contention for number two.

District 4—Lake Oswego favored for the first team berth; Tillamook, Forest Grove and St. Helens battling for second.

District 5—Marshfield in; Springfield, Roseburg, South Eugene and North Bend in contention for the second spot.

District 6 — Medford in; Klamath Falls almost assured of the second spot.

District 7—Hermiston and La Grande in.

District 8—South Salem in; Albany and Lebanon battling for second.
