Collegiate Gridiron TV Plan Told

Reno—UPI—A new package plan for telecasting collegiate football has been devised by the 12-member television committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association, which ended a two-day meet here Tuesday.

Although fewer games will be offered, the plan will still bring more college football to the viewing public, according to Rick Yard of Dennison university, committee chairman.

He explained that the 12 regional telecast games will now be offered with the nine nationally telecast games in a package deal to a sponsor or a network.

Networks Suggest

In the past, NCAA games have been offered on the same basis nationally, but negotiations for regional telecasts were left up to the various universities and colleges—often resulting in no games at all some weeks in certain sections.

Yard said the plan was suggested by networks, stations and sponsors and would allow more television continuity for the football season.

The 21 games will be broadcast over 12 Saturdays and Thanksgiving with nine national games and four weeks of regional contests in which a separate game will be shown in the three regions of the country.

Member universities must now approve the plan by a two-thirds majority for it to become operative, according to Yard.

Sarpola Quits The Dalles Job

The Dalles—UPI—Ted Sarpola, basketball coach at The Dalles high school for the past 13 seasons and a member of Oregon's 1939 national college basketball champions, has resigned effective at the end of the current school year.

Sarpola, 42, was a three-time all star in his high school days at Astoria. His teams here went to the state tournament in 1952-53-54 and finished third in 1953.

Carpola indicated he hoped to secure another coaching assignment.

Revenge Sought By Armstrong

Chicago—UPI—Ace Armstrong will be aiming for revenge and a boost in the world middleweight ratings tonight when he fights the British champion, Dick Tiger, in the only battle ever to beat him, in a television rematch.

Armstrong, who has won 18 of his 19 pro fights, was a slim 7 to 5 favorite, although he has far less experience than his Nigerian foe, winner of 36 out of 47 fights with nine losses and two draws. Tiger decided Armstrong last Sept. 2 in their previous meeting.

SM Gaels, Broncos Cop WVCAC Tilts

United Press International

St. Mary's and Santa Clara won West Coast Athletic conference battles Tuesday night but it did little to unsear the four-team battle for the league lead.

The Gaels downed San Jose State, 69-54 in a contest which Gael Coach Jim Weaver later said "would start to tell the story."

Santa Clara moved into undisputed possession of second place by dumping hapless College of Pacific 81-52. Joe Sheaff and Jim Russel tallied 19 and 16 respectively for the victors while Ken Stanley had 16 for the Tigers.

St. Mary's now leads with 7-2; Santa Clara is 7-3, and Loyola and Pepperdine—who both host St. Mary's this week end—are tied at 6-3.

In other action, Chico State scored a 60-47 win over Cal Aggies in a Far West conference battle. Ron Tibulsky tallied 17 to lead the winners.

Dynamite Blast Said Cause of Airliner Crash

Washington—UPI—Investigators have found the answer to one mystery in the Julian A. Frank airliner crash—the here was a dynamite explosion in the plane which carried all 34 aboard to their deaths.

A second, bigger mystery remains unanswered—did Frank, heavily insured Westport, Conn., lawyer, carry the dynamite aboard the National Airlines plane and, if so, why?

The DC6B, on a New York-to-Miami flight, went down Jan. 6 near Bolivia, N.C., killing Frank and the 28 other passengers and the crew of five. Frank's mangled body was washed ashore on a beach about 20 miles from the wreckage.

Battery-Triggered Explosion

Chairman James R. Durfee of the Civil Aeronautics Board told the Senate aviation subcommittee Tuesday that a painstaking investigation by his agency uncovered evidence of a dynamite explosion triggered by a dry-cell battery in the vicinity of Frank's seat.

Durfee also said Frank, 32, carried more than a million dollars in life and accident insurance, "almost all of which was obtained during the preceding year." This was an increase from an earlier CAB estimate that Frank carried almost $900,000 in insurance. Was Under Investigation

At the time of his death Frank was under investigation for several financial deals.

Subcommittee Chairman A. S. (Mike) Monroney (D-Okla.) said after the hearing that Durfee's testimony reaffirmed his belief that evidence pointed to Frank as a bomber with "suicidal intent."

Durfee said the FBI was investigating the possibility of criminal action. Monroney said that charges of complicity could be brought against anyone who helped Frank make a bomb.

OPPOSE YANKEES

New York—UPI—New opposition popped up today against the New York Yankees' attempt to turn a park near Yankee stadium into a parking area.

George Eastman of Manhattan College, one of the nation's top track and field coaches, said the New York Coaches Association would fight the Yankee effort to convert Macombs Dam park with its track and playing fields into a parking lot.

PISTONS ADD GUARD

Detroit—UPI—The Detroit Pistons have added rookie guard Tony Windis to their roster to take the place of the injured Chuck Noble. Windis ranked ninth in the NCAA scoring ranks last season with a 24.4 average while playing at the University of Wyoming.

Cincinnati, Ohio—UPI—Donald Clay Heck, 62, assistant Sunday editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, died Monday night.

Wall Street Chatter

New York—UPI—The seeds of a spring rally have been sown as a more cheerful attitude finds support in the current market recovery, says Hornblower & Weeks.

The firm points out that the market's technical behavior suggest that the rebound could endure for two months or more, retracing from a half to two-thirds of the ground lost since the Industrial Stock Average hit an all-time high on Jan. 5.

"In a promising business climate, encouraging hopes of earnings gains, the overvaluation psychology that sparked the six-week-long plunge in stocks readily may lose its depressing influence on investment sentiment," the investment advisory firm adds.

One swallow does not make a summer, the Fitch survey says in commenting on the stock market's recent upsurge. It suggests continued watchfulness "to make sure a definite reversal of trend has taken place."

United Business Service notes several reasons why rail stocks have withstood selling so far this year. "Prices were not unduly inflated and yields were generally above those afforded by good grade bonds . . . the outlook for earnings is encouraging . . . the industry may make real progress in achieving the relief needed and acknowledged by Congress in the transportation act of 1958."

Graham Points To 'Beat Generation'

Salisbury, Rhodesia—UPI—American evangelist Billy Graham told a meeting of local clergymen and missionaries Tuesday that the so-called "beat generation" sprang up because many young people have lost their ideals.

Despite this, however, interest in the Gospel in America was greater among college-age groups than any others, Graham said.

"Many of the ideals a varsity student had a few years ago have crumbled," Graham said. "That's why we have the beatnik generation which says the world is nothing."

About his mass meetings, Graham said he knew "the pitfalls and criticism of them," but there was something about a mass meeting that brings his listeners spiritually and psychologically closer to God.

The North Carolina Baptist minister later in the day preached before 30,000 persons while a thunderstorm raged all around.

NORTH POLE PASSENGERS

Stockholm, Sweden—UPI—Scandinavian Airlines System said today it has carried 115,000 passengers in 3,600 flights across the North Pole during the three years it has operated a cross-pole service to Tokyo and Los Angeles.

TROUBLESOME RAZOR

Karlstad, Sweden—UPI—A television station ran a newspaper ad Tuesday promising listeners it would install anti-interference devices to eliminate the static caused by a man who lives next to the station's transmitter and uses an electric razor.
