Minors in Custody—Medford city police Wednesday night took into protective custody four Ashland youths on a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating beverages. The youths, William Richard Snyder, 20, Michael John Carman, 18, and two 17-year-old juveniles, were stopped by a city policeman who observed one of the youths driving his car on the wrong side of the street on Ninth st., between Bartlett st. and Riverside ave. They were taken into custody after the officer found a six-pack container of beer in the car. After interrogation, police released the two juveniles to their parents and Snyder and Carman on $35 bail each.

Funeral Services For E. McIntyre Set for Monday

Funeral services for Ernest Delbert McIntyre, 58, of Jacksonville, who died Thursday, will be held at Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Monday at 10 a.m. The Rev. King K. Jones of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church will officiate. Committal will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

Mr. McIntyre was born Oct. 11, 1901, on Forest Creek, and had lived in southern Oregon all his life. He attended Jacksonville schools, served in the Navy in World War I, and in 1925 he was married to Helen I. Culy, who survives.

He owned and operated McIntyre Mercantile company, the Jacksonville Variety Store, and Nugget Confectionery, and at the time of his death was an associate of Jacksonville Market.

He was a past member of IOOF lodge, Jacksonville; of Warren lodge, AF&M, Jacksonville; was charter member and past president of Jacksonville Lions club, served on the Jacksonville school board, and Jacksonville city council, and was active in civic affairs.

Survivors, besides his wife, include two sons, Russell McIntyre, Jacksonville; Ronald Warren lodge, AF&M, Jacksonville, Empire, Ore.; a daughter, Mrs. Donald R. Swanson, Cleveland, Ohio; his mother, Mrs. Lola McIntyre, Jacksonville; a brother, Joe McIntyre, and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Sawyer, both Jacksonville; and nine grandchildren.

Honorary casket bearers will include Ray Coleman, Ray Wilson, James Noble, Oscar Lewis, and O. W. (Stub) Matheny. Active bearers will include John Keaveny, Charles Young, Bruce Blew, M. L. (Doc) Tweedy, Arthur Davies, and Robert Minear.

L. G. JOLLEY Dies in Portland

Ex-Supervisor of Forest Here Dies

L. G. (Larry) Jolley, supervisor of the Rogue River National forest for two years in 1951 and 1952, died in a Portland hospital last night, friends here have been informed.

Jolley was assistant regional forester in the Portland office of the U.S. forest service, an assignment he took after leaving Medford. He was in charge of informational services for the region.

He and his family lived on Westlind dr., in Medford. In addition to activities concerning forestry management, he also was a member of the Medford Rotary club.

His death followed an extended illness, but was not expected. Survivors include his widow, Isabelle, and two married daughters. Funeral services in Portland are pending.
