

Hoffa Accused of 'Complete Dishonesty' in Rackets Report

Washington—(UPI)—The Senate Rackets Committee, closing its books on three years of investigation, accused Teamster President James R. Hoffa today of "complete dishonesty" and contempt for law and order.

But the committee also charged that "lack of moral courage and sense of public responsibility on the part of employers" was one of the biggest contributing factors in labor-management corruption.

The committee made its charges in the first part of a four-volume final report on its 1957-59 hearings. Hoffa will have an entire volume devoted to him.

Today's volume encompassed charges of: "Underworld infiltration of wholesale newspaper and magazine distribution in New York which the committee described as a 'shocking... potential threat to freedom of the press.'"

"Labor peace" payments to teamster and longshoremen officials by the New York Times, New York Mirror, American Weekly, and the Neo-Gravure Printing Co., Weehawken, N. J., which printed their Sunday supplements.

Secondary boycotts in which unions, particularly the teamsters, have "capricious use" of power against business firms which were not directly involved in disputes with them.

"Tribute" payments to sheet metal workers union officials in Chicago by contractors and participation by union leaders in "rigging of bids on city contracting projects."

The eight-member special committee said political spending by both unions and management "should be thoroughly investigated."

Today's volume was approved by all four Democrats and all four Republicans on the committee. There will be a separate Republican report later on the United Auto Workers.

The remaining two volumes will deal with Hoffa, the Chicago Taxicab Union, criminal syndicate cases, and coin machine and jukebox rackets.

BUS WRECKED—A Greyhound bus lies broken in half against the trunk of a large tree after plunging off Highway 199 35 miles east of Crescent City Thursday. Eleven persons were injured, none of them critically.

Dixie Bloc To Continue Against Civil Rights Bill

Washington—(UPI)—Southern senators vowed today to continue their talkathon against civil rights "for a lot of weeks" despite the threat of 24-hour Senate sessions.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.) told United Press International the Dixie bloc expected to get some unintentional help from civil rights backers in the South's effort to avoid a showdown.

"You can't silence a senator," Ervin commented. "They might not debate this civil rights issue but they will want to talk on other subjects."

Can Keep Going
Ervin pointed out that some of the longest speeches in a 12-hour and 18 minute session that ended at 10:18 p.m. Thursday were made by supporters of rights legislation who spoke on other matters.

"As many people as are opposed to this legislation," Ervin added, "we can keep going for a lot of weeks."

Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) who holds the Senate's filibuster record of 24 hours and 18 minutes, pledged that Southerners would "fight to the finish."

BURIED AT SEA
Portsmouth, Eng.—(UPI)—Lady Edwina Mountbatten was buried at sea Thursday in a simple 15-minute ceremony conducted by Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury. The countess died Sunday at Jesselton, North Borneo.

Passengers Escape Serious Injury as Bus Leaves Highway

Crescent City, Calif.—(UPI)—Twelve persons escaped with only minor injuries Thursday when a Greyhound bus plunged down a 50-foot embankment and landed upside down against a pine tree a few feet above a stream.

The bus was on a local shuttle run between Crescent City and Grants Pass, Ore., when an apparent failure in the steering mechanism occurred on a winding section of Highway 199.

Driver Delray Marquez, 33, Clackamas, Ore., and Jack Schefer, 27, an Air Force medic, carried the injured passengers up the steep incline to the highway.

Three of the passengers—James Cleary of Fort Bragg, Nancy Collings of Eureka, and Amy Burton of Seattle—remained at Seaside Hospital for observation. Treated and released, in addition to Marquez and Schaefer, were: Hazel Hall, Fresno; Mable Downing, Lyons, Ore.; Mrs. Elva Smith, Dallas, Ore., and her three young grandchildren, Carmen, Debbie and Kathy Smith; and Mrs. A. Scheulenbaum, Grants Pass.

Egg Classification Authority Lacking

Salem—(UPI)—The Oregon Department of Agriculture does not have the authority to classify incubated eggs as inferior or adulterated, according to Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton.

The opinion was requested by the Department. Thornton said that the Legislature decreed that incubated eggs were suitable for eating though the eggs must be branded or stamped with the word "incubated."

Petitions for Nixon Being Circulated Here

Petitions to put Vice President Richard Nixon on the Oregon ballot are being distributed in the Medford area by O. M. Anderson, Mrs. James Ragland, Republican Central Committee chairman, has announced.

Party members who are interested in circulating a petition should call Anderson at SPRing 2-4598. A deadline of March 7 has been set for completion of the petitions which aim at a total of 2,000 signatures in the Medford area in support of Nixon, Mrs. Ragland said.

Bargaining Rights May Be on Ballot

Portland—(UPI)—The Committee for Promoting Civil Employees Rights Thursday filed an initiative petition to place a charter amendment on the November ballot which would give city employees collective bargaining.

The petitioners will have to get 21,841 valid signatures by Aug. 19 to get the measure on the ballot.
