Medford High took charge with a 14-point spurt in the second quarter Friday night and rambled to a 74 to 60 decision over a spirited scrapping Crater Comet quintet in a Southern Oregon conference basketball engagement at Central Point.

It was the 14th win in the circuit for the Black Tornado which is unbeaten in 15 conflicts since last December. Friday's loss to the loop champs gave third place Crater a 6-8 conference standing and spoiled the Central Pointers' slim hopes of an Oregon Class A-1 tournament trip. Klamath (9-4), although idle Friday night, grabbed the second tourney spot from District 6.

McGregor Libel Suit Names AAU

New York - (UPI) - The U.S. Amateur Athletic union and two of its officers were charged with libel in a $750,000 damage suit filed by James McGregor, a basketball coach, Friday in federal court.

McGregor, of Oregon, said that he has coached national teams of many foreign countries including Italy, Greece, and Sweden. He said he was damaged as a result of a letter by James F. Sims, secretary-treasurer of the AAU and Daniel J. Ferris, honorary secretary, in November 1959 to the Swedish National Basketball team.

The suit stated that the Swedish team had made arrangements to play collegiate basketball in this country in December 1959 and advised the AAU of its schedule. The defendants, the suit charged, wrote a letter to the Swedish team's president, L. Ake Nilsson, allegedly stating that a "professional promoter" is arranging for your games here . . . the individual referred to is in dispute here and we will not sanction any basketball games that he is connected with.

McGregor charged that later correspondence between the AAU and the Swedish team and in statements to the press the name of McGregor was specifically used as the "professional promoter" in dispute.

These statements were "libellous, untrue and defamatory . . . actuated by malice" designed to bring him and his reputation into "public scandal," McGregor alleged.

The papers claimed that McGregor "was not the promoter of the Swedish team's U.S. tour and the defendants could have learned this fact by use of due diligence."

right in the thick of the tussle with 5 1/2 minutes left in the first half. At that stage, they had closed a 15 to 7 Tornado first quarter advantage down to 20 to 16 on the strength of five free tosses and two field goals. Then, Medford, with Booth Deakins and Lowell and Cal Dean each getting four markers, zipped to 34 to 16 in about 3 1/2 minutes time. Six free shots and four field buckets were included in the surge.

Sharp Shoots
Dave Sharp, individual star of the fracas, and Chuck Turner plunked in field goals to end a Comet drought and half-time score was 34 to 20.

Cochman Frank Roelandt's Tornado a bit more than held its own in the third quarter and was 18 points ahead at 54 to 36 at the end of the period. Its margin increased to 24 points at 62 to 38 in the final stanza but Crater, with 14 of its points at the free line, out-shot Medford 24 points to 20 in the canto.

Sharp had almost half Crater's scoring total. He put in eight field baskets and made 13 of his 14 free heave tries for 29 points. He also contributed some fine floor play for the hustling Comets. Bob Quinney, who had 10 points on 11 free attempts, led Medford tallying with a 16 total. Jerry Anderson, with five field goals, had 12 points for Medford. Chuck Turner had 10 rebound retrieves and Dennis Edwards nine as the Comets bettered the Tornado on the backboards 35 to 28. Quinney for the Tornado equaled Turner's retrieving effort.

Comets Get Jump
Mentor Lloyd Hoffine's Comets got the starting jump on Medford, 4 to 0 on a jumper and driver by Sharp. Medford tied up the mix on two free tosses by Anderson and one each by Quinney and Jerry Shults. Dick Ragsdale's jumper gave the Tornado its first lead at 6 to 4. Gifters by Sharp and Cooper tied up the game. Then a pusher by Quinney midway through the opening panel made it 8 to 6 and Medford was ahead to stay.

Both clubs did their share of busting up the other teams attack, although Medford had the edge in that department. And there were frequent lost balls on each side. The Tornado was better able to capitalize on steals and interceptions with its speed. Scoring difference in the game was Medford's 23 field goals to Crater's 16. Each team put in 28 free markers.

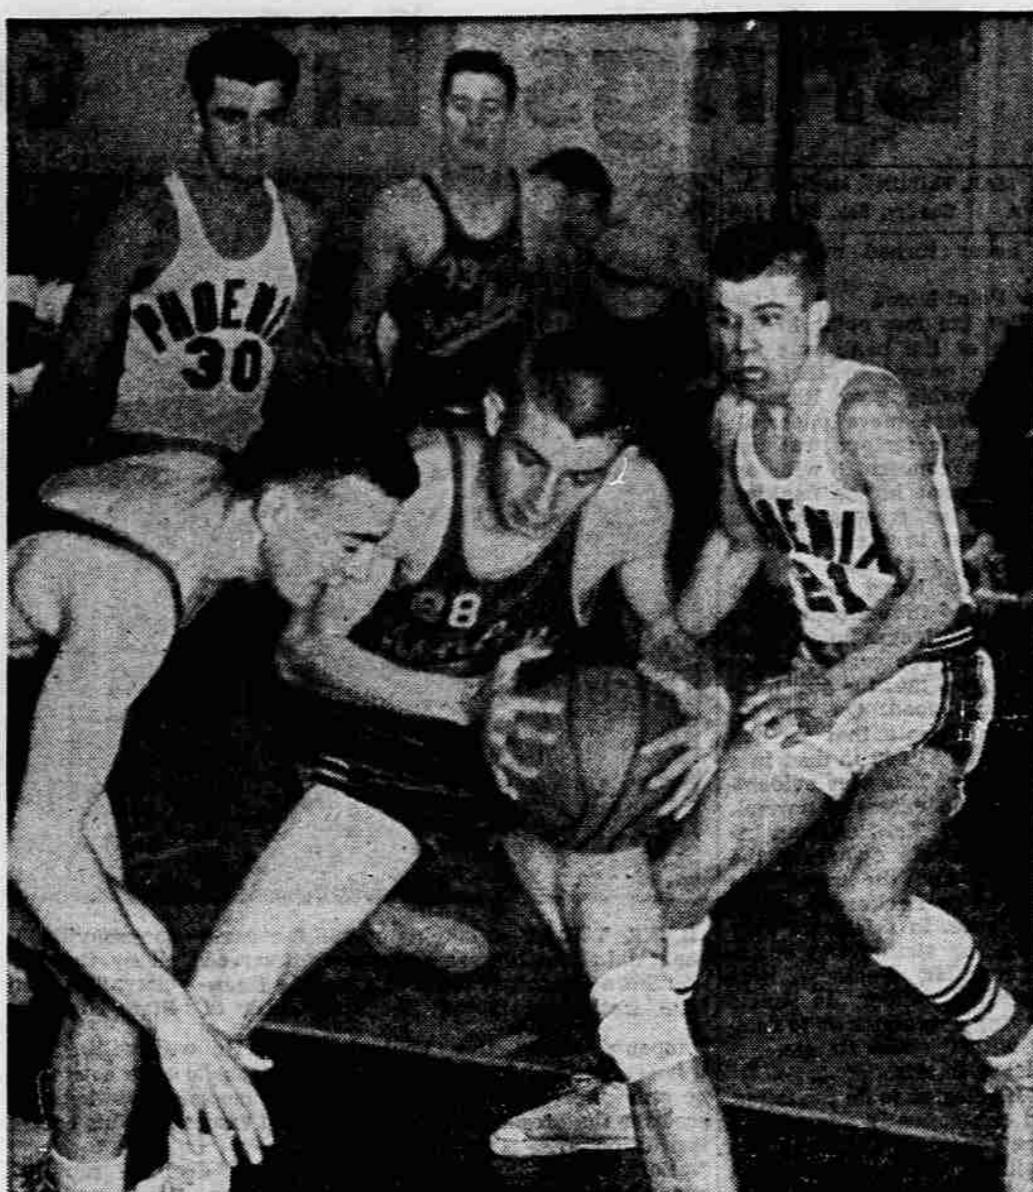

Medford had a 338 field shooting average and Crater 320.

Roelandt made good use of Tornado reserves, particularly in the closing session. Stan Dowson, a jayvee mainstay this season, made his varsity debut.

Tornado junior varsity men won the preliminary 72 to 56 with 14 to 6, 35 to 19 and 56 to 31 quarter scores. Scott Eaton of Medford and Jim Allen of Crater each had 12 points.

Ed Machen Victor Over Bill Hunter

New York - (UPI) - Heavyweight contender Eddie Machen, who made a tigerish Madison Square Garden debut while stopping Billy Hunter in the ninth round, may get another TV fight in the punch emporium on March 18.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner said today, "I'll try to get some good opponent for Eddie on the 18th. He was great last night."

Machen of Portland, Ore., who has been accused of lethargy in some of his bouts, displayed aggressive ferocity Friday night as he battered lanky Hunter of Detroit with solid left hooks and smashing rights.

Machen, weighing 196 pounds to Hunter's 191 1/2, floored Billy in the fourth round, closed his right eye in the eighth and won on a technical knockout at 2:11 of the ninth.

Referee Al Berl stopped the fight because Hunter, bleeding from the mouth, was on rubber legs and taking a severe beating.

YMCA To Have Exercise Room

Young Men's Christian association recently obtained much of the exercise equipment once used by the Medford Health club.

Some of these items that the YMCA has are a vibrating roller, a leg press, 14 barbells, 10 dumbbells and exercise tables.

The YMCA is putting the equipment into a separate exercise room. There will be an extra fee charged for use of the room to help pay for its future development.

Long range plan for the Y health club and exercise room is to have massage equipment and steam room facilities.

The room will be ready for use by members on March 1.

Spring Training Pioneer Dies

St. Petersburg, Fla. - (UPI) - Al Lang, who pioneered major league spring training in Florida, died here Saturday just hours before the 1960 spring drills began in his hometown.

Lang, 89, died at a local hospital at 3:15 a.m. He had been admitted four days ago suffering from pneumonia.

Palmer Tops Open Field

San Antonio, Tex. - (UPI) - Arnold Palmer's putter made up for the lackness of his short iron game Saturday when the 30-year-old Pennsylvanian moved four strokes in front of the field in the $20,000 Texas Open Golf tournament.

He shot a five-under par 33-34-67 in yesterday's third round, to give him a 54-hole total of 201.

Frank Stranahan of Crystal River, Fla., clung to second place despite losing another stroke to the Ligonier Pa., pro. He shot a 34-34-68 for a 205.

Phoenix Crew Gains District Meet Spot

Phoenix - Phoenix High school used a tight man-to-man defense to defeat Henley 34 to 22 Friday night in basketball playoff action on the Pirate's home floor.

The Pirates earned the opportunity to meet Glide in the first round of the District 6 A-2 championship tournament at Roseburg on March 4 and 5.

Bert Albritton dropped in a foul shot in the early seconds of the game and this was the only time the Hornets led.

Gerald Sloper put in a pair of gifters to put Phoenix in the lead for good.

Quarter scores were 11 to 3, 15 to 10, and 27 to 17 for the Pirates.

Tom Atchison put in five points to head the Pirates in the first period and Larry Lugo added two for the Hornets.

Two Pirates each tallied two points in the low scoring second frame and the Hornets cut the Phoenix lead to five points at half time.

Floyd Kendall hit a long set shot from the head of the key to make the difference just three points in the third quarter. Then the Pirates used a full court press and some smooth floor play to move in to 10-point control at the end of the stanza.

Sloper topped the Pirate scoring with four points while Kendall tallied three for the Hornets.

Jump shots by Mike Reese and Mike Consruback at the first of the final chukker gave the Pirates one of their biggest leads of the night at 31 to 19.

Consruback played an outstanding defensive game in holding Hornet scoring ace Ray Jackson to two points.

The Hornets hit seven field goals on 40 attempts for a lean .175 average. They made 14 of 25 from the foul line and pulled down 25 rebounds.

The Pirates sank 10 of 39 from the field for .251 and 17 of 25 gift shots. Phoenix nabbed 32 rebounds.

Red Raider Quint Eyes NAIA Frays

Ashland - Assured of no less than a share of the Oregon Collegiate conference title, the Southern Oregon college basketball squad is down to serious thinking about the NAIA playoffs March 1 and 2 in Salem.

SOC's fighting Red Raiders put on a last minute spurt in the OCC and won their last five games in a row for a 10-6 league record.

Leading the scoring for the Raiders who finished the regular season with a 13-12 record was Gordy Carrigan with 401 points for slightly better than a 16 point game average.

Coach Ted Schopf has said not to let the 13-12 record fool anybody. He feels the team has finally "come of age." Early in the season the Raiders were bothered by inexperience and new players.

Tuesday Game
Southern Oregon will play one member of the Northwest conference in the opening round of the District 2 playoffs at South Salem High school Tuesday night.

Second night will find the Tuesday winners playing for the championship. The two losers will vie for the consolation place.

Coach Jim McAbee finished out his season with the junior varsity Raiders last Tuesday with a win over Prospect High school. McAbee, a graduate student, saw his team gain a 20-4 record.

Registered Trapshoot Scheduled

Ninth annual early spring trapshoot of Medford Gun club is scheduled for next Sunday, March 6.

It will be a Pacific International Trapshooting-registered event.

The competition included 250 registered targets and will also have a 20-target backer-up shoot.

There will be class trophies awarded to those now participating in the league shoot who desire to get started in registered target competition next Sunday. This is to encourage new shooters to take part and more fully enjoy tournament rivalry and at the same time establish averages to be published in the PITA yearbook.

It is planned to have three classes, based on targets broken in the league shoot. All shooters not having a card are eligible. The 100-target 16-day event is intended for new or unclassified shooters.
