IN THE HISTORY OF Pharmacy
by Jim Foster

The Italian drug trade was helped very early by the development of a chemical industry, the first on European soil. In 1294 in Venice they manufactured corrosive sublimate and cinabar, also sugar of lead, borax, soap and many others.

In Italy we see for the first time industrial pharmaceutical activities by the monasteries. The monastery in Florence became famous for the distilled water and cosmetics it sold.

Norblad To Seek Another Term

Washington—(UPI)—Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) has announced his candidacy for reelection to Congress from the state's first district.

Norblad, 51, is serving his eighth term in Congress. He said "while I am still two years younger than the average member of the House, I have all important seniority over three-fourths of the membership. Although I do not approve of the congressional seniority system, nevertheless, it exists and does give our district a very decided advantage."

He is the third-ranking Republican on the Armed Services Committee and is a combat veteran of World War II. He formerly lived in Astoria and now is a resident of Stayton.

Heppner Teacher Wins Assault Suit

Salem—(UPI)—A Heppner school teacher, John R. Cope, has been awarded $3,000 by a Marion County Circuit Court jury in a suit charging former Silverton Police Chief R. R. Main with assault. Dismissed were similar suits against two other Silverton policemen. The action followed an accident in Silverton in July of 1957.

Shah of Iran's Wife Expecting

Tehran—(UPI)—Farah Diba, the 21-year-old beauty who became the Shah of Iran's third wife last December, will have a child in late autumn. A member of the royal family said Friday night the former Parisian art student's pregnancy became known before she and the 40-year-old Shah began their current tour of Pakistan.

The Shah divorced his first two wives because they failed to bear him a male heir to the peacock throne of Persia. On the eve of his marriage to Farah, he said "this will be my last."

The Shah and the Queen have been scheduled to begin a tour of Europe and Sweden in May, but a member of the royal family told UPI the trip may be cancelled if the court doctors think it best.

The 40-year-old Shah has a daughter, Princess Shahnaz, by his first wife. His second marriage to Princess Soraya was dissolved two years ago.

Appling's Savings Of No Surprise
Bend—(UPI)—Peter M. Gunnar, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, said today that "The voters of Oregon should not be surprised that Secretary of State Howell Appling has instituted programs which will save about $250,000 in the biennium."

Gunnar, here for a GOP leadership training school, said Appling was appointed "principally because of his administrative experience and his business background."

"These two qualifications ideally suit him to institute and follow through on programs which will mean that the taxpayers of Oregon receive the greatest possible value for every tax dollar," Gunnar said.

Street Trees May Be Planted Soon, Committee Notes

Members of Medford's street tree planning committee have reminded residents that trees should be planted soon if citizens along streets plan to plant them this spring.

Several trees have been planted along parking strips already this spring, committee members noted, but the time in which they can be planted is becoming limited.

The street tree planting program was started about four years ago, and many streets in the city have been planted.

Members pointed out that residents may plant what they wish on their own property, and the committee will give advice as to the type of tree desirable if contacted. However, if residents wish to plant trees in the parking strip—that is the area between the sidewalk or its location and the street—they must first find out from the city which tree is designated for that particular street.

Residents wishing to plant trees in the parking strip may contact the city hall to obtain the name of the tree selected for the street on which they live.

India's railroads cover 47,350 miles, world's fourth largest.

Tuberculosis Hospital Subject of Program

Ashland Woman Injured in Mishap

Ashland—A 26-year-old Ashland woman suffered minor injuries and her 2-year-old daughter escaped unhurt when the car in which they were riding skidded and rolled over while attempting to pass another car on Highway 66 east of here Friday evening.

Mrs. Bettie Clark, of 4450 Highway 66, was taken to Ashland General hospital. X-rays were taken and she was released later in the evening, police said.

Riding with Mrs. Clark, state police reported, was her daughter, Jennifer.

Police said the car was east-bound on the highway when it skidded and struck the road's shoulder, causing it to turn over.

Australia's population was 9.7 million in 1958.
