Bard-White Ceremony First Held in Church

The first wedding held in Philadelphia church, Medford, took place February 21 when Miss Ruth Elizabeth White became the bride of Garreth Elder Bard.

The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas White, Route 1, Box 344, Central Point. Mr. Bard's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Forrest Bard, Bonanza, Ore. Mr. White, pastor of Philadelphia church, and Mr. Bard, pastor of the Assembly of God church, officiated at the three o'clock afternoon ceremony.

Baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony attended by 130 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white Chantilly lace dress styled on princess lines. The Sabrina neckline was trimmed with pearls and sequins and iridescent sequins were scattered on the flared skirt. A pearl and sequin tiara held her veil of French illusion and she carried a white orchid and hyacinths on a white Bible.

Miss Virginia Munday, Grants Pass, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sheila Havemann, Rogue River, cousin of the bride, and Miss Patricia Bard, Bonanza, sister of the bridegroom. Flower girl was Rebecca Coker.

They wore nylon frocks with full gathered skirts with white accessories. Their flowers were white carnations. Miss Munday and the flower girl had dresses in orchid and the bridesmaid's dresses were yellow.

James Bard, Bonanza, served as best man for his brother, Thomas A. White, Raymond White and David White, all Central Point, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Girls Community club. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Paul Spaling, Miss Joan Smith, Miss Eileen Czenkusch, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Esther Jacobs.

The couple traveled to Redding, Calif., on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a black and white checked linen suit with red accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are making their

Women's Golf Association To Open Season Thursday

Members of Women's Golf Association of Rogue Valley Country club will open their 1960 golfing season with a "Tee-Off" breakfast Thursday, March 3. A social hour at 9 a.m. will precede breakfast.

District Convention Announced

Plans for the annual convention of the First district, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, were made by Travel Study club, affiliated group, at a meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Reid. The convention will be held Thursday, March 24, in First Methodist church.

Medford Junior Women's club, another federation affiliate, and Travel Study club, will be hostess groups for the convention.

Mrs. Clay M. Lee, president, presided and introduced Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, Ashland, First district president, Mrs. Fred Gross, and Mrs. Forbie Pitzer, New Castle, Pa., guests. Mrs. Gross became a member of the club.

Letters from Mrs. Marguerite Kelly, Northwest CARE director, and Mrs. Helen Livingston Smith, national director for CARE, commending Travel Study club for outstanding work for the organization, were read.

Mrs. Jason Ottinger, Talent, First district parliamentarian, gave a short talk on parliamentary procedure.

Mrs. Lee spoke concerning the convalescent home which club members visit one afternoon a week.

Plans were completed for a rummage sale to be held March 3, in the Fehling building.

Mrs. Ottinger and Mrs. Willis T. Fasel are chairman and co-chairman. Anyone having rummage to be picked up may call Mrs. Edward C. Root, Spring 3-2623.

Mrs. Peterson thanked the club for making her an honorary member and praised the club for "outstanding work."

In keeping with the World Day of Prayer, March 4, Mrs. Lee read a thought for the day on Love.

The club will meet at the Girls' Community club beginning March 29.

A program on Florida will be given at a later date by Mrs. Fasel.

Mrs. Reid conducted an evening auction.

Coffee and refreshments were served from a table centered with ivy, pussy-willows and artificial flowers which Mrs. Reid had made.

Games were arranged by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Perl, chairman, Mrs. Laura Aldredge, Mrs. Erma Freshwater, Mrs. William Holloway, Mrs. Maude Lovell and Mrs. J. P. Graham.

Mrs. Perl had decorated the tables and room with red, white and blue hatched in keeping with the Washington's birthday theme.

During the business meeting which followed the club used an old fashioned wishing well in which to drop coins and make wishes. The proceeds were donated to the March of Dimes, and a like sum was given to the Heart Fund.

Braun-Jarman Wedding Held in Medford Church

The wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Jarman to Theodore C. Braun was an event of February 14 in the First Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Jarman, 4712 Table Rock road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Kenneth O. Baker, Oakland, Calif., and A. J. Braun, 1004 Queen Anne avenue.

The Rev. George Roseberry performed the double-ring ceremony at 3 o'clock in the afternoon before approximately 100 guests. Red carnations, white stock and candles decorated the church.

The bride's gown was of white crystalline with a scoop neckline. Her short veil was held by a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of red carnations with white streamers. Mr. Jarman gave his daughter in marriage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marvin Proehl, who wore a street-length gown of red velvet with a scoop neckline. Her headdress was of red flowers and net and her bouquet was of red carnations.

Clifford Pederson, Grants Pass, was best man. Carol Sue Baker, Oakland, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Bobby Huffman, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Ushers were Kenneth Morris and Phillip Cross.

Mrs. Gregory McDougall, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Leslie C. Boardman.

About 75 guests attended the reception which followed. Mrs. D. E. Hale, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake and Miss Glenda Swanson poured. Miss Wanda Huffman, aunt of the bride, was at the guest book.

Sojourners Celebrate Twentieth Anniversary

One hundred and five women were in attendance Thursday at the Girls Community club when the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Medford Sojourners club was celebrated with a luncheon and card party.

Daffodils and winter greenery decorated a long table where the past presidents were seated. Other bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums were used throughout the room.

Mrs. Wesley Forler, a member of the club, had decorated the large "happy birthday" cake. The cake centered the serving table which was spread with a lace cloth.

The luncheon was prepared by the Roxy Ann Grange with the board members serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Dee Wood, president, introduced the following past presidents: Mesdames Howard Boyd, F. E. Cantrill, Gene Chamberlain, Esther Coleman, Charles Cravy, E. Francis Cronin, Dwight Crozier, Eugene Ingram, Clay Lee, George Lovenberg, John Mansfield, Walter Marquess, M. H. Parsons, C. A. Renken and James Winslow. Each was presented a daffodil corsage.

Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, who became a member soon after Sojourners organized, was a special guest.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Mrs. Ruth Tobin, a member of the club who will celebrate her 85th birthday February 28. Mrs. Tobin was also presented a daffodil corsage.

Three new members introduced were Mrs. Fred Gross, Mrs. Fenton L. Hall and Mrs. Leo Radke.

Prospective members attending were Mrs. Frank DeCosta, Mrs. Jerald Schwiler, Mrs. Don L. Larsen and Mr. George Ettles.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Russel L. Vorce, Ludington, Mich.; Mrs. H. L. Swenson, River Falls, Wisc., and Mrs. Russell Spence, Plainview, Tex.

Card prizes went to Mrs. John Mansfield and Mrs. Ralph C. Jones for canasta; Mrs. Berril Morey and Mrs. Forler, pinochle and bridge; Mrs. R. T. Jones and Mrs. Marie Rehling. A special award was given to Mrs. Charlotte McCullough.

Sojourners club is an organization devoted to the interests of newcomers to Medford and vicinity. The next meeting will be held March 10 at 12:30 at the Girls Community club.
