QUIPS AND QUOTES

IT ALL ADDS UP

My joy after a shopping spree,
Alas, is all too fleeting
When I must face the grueling quiz
Of Darling's sum-it meeting.
—Dorothy R. McWood

MAN WITH A NEED

He hears the news on radio,
Views it via video.
Morale is down, blood pressure up,
He paces floor, picks on the pup.
The reason for his upset state?
The paperboy's five minutes late!

—Ann Bryant

The middle-aged man was shuffling along, bent over at the waist, as his wife helped him into the doctor's waiting room. A woman in the office viewed the scene in sympathy. "Arthritis with complications?" she asked.

The wife shook her head. "Do-it-yourself," she explained, "with concrete blocks."

Thank-You Notes I've Written ... Which Mom Never Let Me Finish

Dear Grandmother:

I want you to know how much I enjoyed that album of classical records which brought the top 20 rock-'n'-roll tunes by Big-Head Jones at the Swap Shoppe.

Dear Aunt Helen:

How did you ever guess that an orange and purple afghan was just what I needed

if temperatures in Georgia ever drop below zero?

Dear Uncle Bob:

I could hardly believe my eyes when I opened the box and found a St. Bernard puppy since the landlord won't allow pets in our building.

Dear Cousin Rachel:

Wherever did you get the recipe for that delicious rocky-road fudge that broke my braces and cost Daddy a $50 dentist bill?

—Pat Smith

When a woman says she's dressed on time, she really means she bought the clothes on the installment plan.
