Police Search Ends At Neighbor's House

Portland - (UP) - Police searched from 7 p.m. Friday until 5 a.m. Saturday along the banks of the Willamette and in a brushy area for a six-year-old girl before she was discovered at a neighbor's house.

Joyce Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Curtis, was the object of the hunt of about a dozen policemen through the night.

A house-to-house inquiry of neighbors was made Friday night by the parents and officers but a misunderstanding was blamed for not finding the child.

Collectors Display Antique Guns at SOC

Rare antique guns were displayed at a recent meeting of the Jefferson State Arms collectors at the Britt Student Union building at Southern Oregon college.

The display included a collection by H. A. McCallum, Monroe, Ore., who is recognized as a leading Winchester collector.

The next meeting will be March 5 in the student union building at SOC, and "antique pistols" will be the theme. Persons interested in antiques are invited.
