Yankee Victory in Hockey Most Popular in 8th Winter Olympics

CHRISTIAN SCORES—Bowling over Czech defenseman Jan Kasper, America's Roger Christian (10) drills the puck (arrow) into the cage for a goal during the U.S.-Czechoslovakia hockey match in Olympic Games at Squaw Valley yesterday. Surprised goalie is Vladimar Nadrchal. Christian, of Warroad, Minn., fired home four goals as the U.S. team came from behind to win 9-0, giving America its first gold medal ever in Olympic hockey competition. (UPI Telephoto)

Squaw Valley — (UPI) — The final unofficial point standings in the winter Olympic Games points are awarded on the basis of 10 for a first place, 5 for a second, 4 for a third, 3 for a fourth, 2 for a fifth and 1 for a sixth:

Country	Points
1. Russia	165½
2. Sweden	71½
3. United States	71
4. Germany	70½
5. Finland	59½
6. Normay	53
7. Austria	35½
8. Canada	32
9. France	27
10. Switzerland	26½
11. Poland	16
12. Italy	15½
13. (Tie) Czechoslovakia	11
Holland	11
15. Japan	6½
16. Great Britain	2

Squaw Valley — (UPI) — The final medal standings in the winter Olympic Games gold medals for first place, silver for second and bronze for third:

Country	G	S	B
Russia	7	5	9
Germany	4	3	1
United States	3	4	3
Norway	3	3	0
Sweden	3	2	2
Finland	2	3	3
Canada	2	1	1
Switzerland	2	0	0
Austria	1	2	2
France	1	0	2
Holland	0	1	1
Poland	0	1	1
Czechoslovakia	0	1	0
Italy	0	0	1

Note: There was a tie for first place in the 1,500 meters men's figure skating, with both being awarded gold medals. So there are two more gold medals than silver ones.

U.S. Stuns Czechs in Sunday Tilt

By JAMES C. ANDERSON

Squaw Valley – (UPI) – The United States hockey team had to eat its own words in order to win an Olympics gold medal.

Before the start of the six-nation round-robin tournament, U.S. officials predicted no team would be able to survive the five-game schedule without a defeat.

But when the last puck whistled into the net Sunday, there stood the red-white-and-blue with a perfect record – five straight championship round wins over such hard-nosed competition as defending champion Russia and the rough-and-rugged Canadians.

The U.S. was rated a distinct underdog contender when the competition began. It was a team in name only – its passing was erratic, its defense spasmodic (except for goalie Jack McCartan of St. Paul, Minn.) and most of all, it lacked teamwork.

Most of the Russians were veterans of Cortina, Italy, four years ago where they won the coveted Olympics title. And the Canadians worked together as if they all had been born and raised in the same family. The Yanks, on the other hand, had played as a team only since December – and showed it in the early rounds of the tournament.

But coach Jack Riley of West Point bore down in practice sessions and by the time the crucial matches came up – against Canada and Russia – the U.S. looked and played like pros.

Their key victories were 2-1 over Canada in a fingernail-biting battle plus a 3-2 triumph over the Russians–who won the medal for sportsmanship, hands down.

But the Yanks' biggest triumph had to be the final-round 9-4 shellacking of Czechoslovakia which nailed down a gold medal.

They were behind 4-3 going into the final 20 minutes of the Czech match. Then, thanks to an assist from Russian Capt. Nikolai Sologubov who suggested at the intermission that the U.S. players needed a shot of oxygen, the Yanks came out like tigers.

Bang, bang, bang, the U.S. knocked in goals – first Roger Christian of Warroad, Minn., with help from brother Bill; then two quickies by sharp-shooting Bob Cleary of Westwood, Mass.; then Roger Christian again, and a solo effort by Bill Cleary of Westwood, Mass., and to top it all off, a smasher once more by R. Christian.

Six goals by the U.S. to none by the stunned Czechs.

Canada won the silver medal by beating Russia 8-5 in Sunday's finale and finishing 4-1; the Russians had to settle for third with a record of 2-2 plus a tie with Sweden; Czechoslovakia dragged down fourth with a 2-3 mark; Sweden, playing most of the tournament without its fine captain, Lars Bjorn, came in fifth at 1-3-1 and luckless Germany a tyro at hockey, was last with a 0-5 mark – but considered it a "victory" to make the championship round.

Ducks Eye NCAA Spot

Eugene – (UPI) – Only Oregon State stands in the way of the Oregon Ducks now before they complete their most successful basketball season in recent years and a possible spot in the NCAA playoffs.

Oregon added win number 16 Saturday night – twice as many wins as defeats – by defeating Idaho 68-46. Oregon has the second best season's record on the coast – second only to mighty California's 23-1.

Oregon will host Oregon State here Saturday night after playing the Beavers at Corvallis Friday night.

Glenn Moore and Charlie Warren paced the Duck win Saturday night by scoring 15 and 14 points respectively. Moore got 13 of his points in the first half when an Idaho zone defense was giving the Ducks some trouble.

Oregon had a 31-24 halftime bulge and extended it to 45-29 in the second half. Idaho managed to cut the margin to 51-40 but never could catch up.

Bears Clip OSC 62-47

Corvallis –(UPI)–Oregon State can't be accused of not going along with form. The Beavers took on the team to beat in the nation Saturday night – California – and lost.

The final score was 62-47. But the Beavers gave it their all for 33 minutes.

They kept within six points of the Bears right up until there was seven minutes to play. The score at that time was 44-38. But then California reeled off eight straight points and it was all over.

California took only 50 shots all night but hit on 22 of them for a .440 shooting mark. Guard Earl Schultz took five of these and hit on all five. He wound up as the game's high scorer with 11 points.

Ron Critchfield, a late starter for Paul Valenti's Beavers, topped their scoring with 9 points. Steve Flynn and Karl Anderson each scored seven in OSC's balanced scoring attack.

Tornado Thunders 78-37 Over Ashland

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Medford	15	0	1.000
Klamath Falls	10	4	.714
Crater	6	9	.400
Grants Pass	5	9	.357
Ashland	0	15	.000

Only one game now stands between the rip-roaring Medford High school basketball team and a perfect season in the Southern Oregon conference.

Medford, straining little, rampaged over Ashland 78 to 37 on Saturday night in its 15th conflict without loss in the circuit. League skirmishing for 1960 ends for the Black Tornado next Friday evening at Grants Pass. Then will follow Oregon Class A-1 tournament contention for the conference and District 6 A-1 title winning Big Wind.

Torrid firing from both the field and free line was a Tornado feature Saturday night as Coach Frank Roelandt used his full 13-man squad in the triumph. Medford netted 29 field goals on 59 shots for .492 average and flipped in 20 of 22 free shot tries. While pouring the markers, the Tornadoes held the Grizzlies to just 10 field goals, half of them by Phil Tucker.

Durkee Gets 16

Ken Durkee topped the Medford point production with seven field counters and a total of 16 tallies. Bob Quinney had 12 points, all on field shots and collected 13 rebounds. Tucker had 14 points for Ashland.

Quinney zipped in a turning jumper for Medford when the game was less than a minute old and the Tornado stayed in front throughout. Medford had quarter advantages of 21 to 8, 40 to 13 and 68 to 24. Widest difference in the scores was 47 points at 73 to 26. And it could have been more.

Biggest Medford quarter was the third session when 28 points swished the hemp. Ashland managed just one field bucket in the first quarter and only two in the second.

19 Straight

Officially, the Tornadoes tossed through 19 straight free shots. After 14 in a row, Dick Ragsdale did miss a try but an Ashlander was called for crossing the line into the keyhole too soon. The Medford guard got another chance and plunked in two in a row.

Medford field goals came on a variety of shots. The Tornado hoopmen tallied in close on fast breaks and driver and feed in shots but fired well from long and mid-range, too.

Seeing his first duty on the varsity was sophomore Scott Eaton.

Medford took the junior varsity game from the Grizzlies 46 to 17 and won the sophomore tussle also 49 to 27. The Tornado jayvees had a 27 to 9 halftime margin and Stan Dowson contributed 13 points for Medford. Craig Laurance and Dick Griffin each had 10 points for the Medford sophs who led 23 to 17. Dan Lewis put in 14 for Ashland.

PSC Beats EOC To Tie For Crown

United Press International

Portland State as a team and Linfield's Jackie Riley as an individual highlighted week end action on Oregon's small college basketball front and both will take part in the District 2 NAIA tournament starting Tuesday night at Salem.

Portland State defeated Eastern Oregon at La Grande for the second straight night, 66-54, to finish in a tie with Southern Oregon for the Oregon Collegiate conference title. Don Powell hit 19 and Don Bridges 16 for PSC, which wound up, like SOC, with a 10-6 league record.

Oregon Tech finished third in the league, downing Oregon College 77-58 Saturday night. An OCE upset win Friday night cost OTI a title tie.

Riley became the first Northwest conference basketball player to score more than 2,000 points as he put 36 through the hoop in Linfield's 103-74 victory over Lewis and Clark. Riley, in four years as a player, has scored 2,023 points.

Willamette, the Northwest conference champ, Linfield, Southern Oregon and Portland State compete in the two-night NAIA tourney in Salem. Opening night action matches Southern Oregon against Linfield at 7 and Portland State against Willamette at 9.

McLoughlin Defeats KF

McLoughlin Junior High's ninth grade basketball team ended its season brilliantly Saturday with a sharp 60 to 39 triumph over Klamath Falls.

The Bulldogs clicked well as a unit, kept control of the ball well and shot from the field at a hot .438 rate. The Medford team had period spreads of 11 to 7, 31 to 19 and 46 to 31.

Mike Neathamer put in 20 points for McLoughlin and Jack Lowery 14. Lowery grabbed of 12 rebounds. Church netted 14 markers for Klamath.

McLoughlin finished the slate with a 9-8 win-loss record.

Klamath's Pelicans Bounce Crater High

Klamath Falls – Klamath Union High fattened its second place hold in Southern Oregon conference basketball Saturday night by clipping Crater here 79 to 52.

The Pelicans took advantage of cold Comet shooting in the first half to gain the decision. Klamath headed 18 to 11, 34 to 19 and 53 to 34 at the quarters.

Dave Sharp of Crater was the high point man with 19. He had eight field goals. Bob Lewis and Steve Binney each had 12 points for Klamath and Gary Patzke 11.

Crater managed just a .184 field gunning mark in the first half but gave tall Klamath a good battle under the backboards. KF collected 42 rebounds to Crater's 40.

The Pelican junior varsity won the preliminary 83 to 66 but Mike Glines, who moved up from the Comet freshman team which completed its season, scored 25 points for Crater for top individual honors. He had 12 field goals. Wally Palmberg put in 22 for Klamath. The Pels had 19 to 12, 46 to 27 and 67 to 45 margins at the period breaks. Crater, which shot .464 from the field for the mix cut the gap to 74 to 64 in the final quarter.

Arnold Palmer Texas Titlist

San Antonio, Tex. – (UPI) – Arnold Palmer, newly-crowned Texas Open champion, is stroking his way towards a possible pro golf financial record at nearly a $1,000-a-day pace.

When the 30-year-old Ligonier, Pa., pro posted a closing round 36-39–75 for a 72-hole total of 276 to beat out Frank Stranahan and Doug Ford for the $2,800 Texas Open prize Sunday, it boosted his income in the last four tournaments to $16,417.86.

California, Ohio State, West Virginia Added to NCAA Tournament Roster

United Press International

The NCAA completed a third of its basketball tournament roster with the addition of California, Ohio State, West Virginia and Navy and hoped to secure a more definite picture tonight in the Missouri Valley, Southwestern and Big Eight conferences.

The newcomers joined NYU, Miami (Fla.), Notre Dame, Ohio university and Georgia Tech in the regional post-season competition, leaving 17 teams to fill berths for the largest field in NCAA history.

Cincinnati, leading Bradley by a game, can clinch a tie for the Missouri Valley title by trouncing Tulsa tonight. Bradley hopes to keep a flame alive against Wichita.

Texas Eye Title

Texas, bidding for its first individual Southwestern conference crown since 1947, can be assured of at least a tie by beating Rice. The Longhorns lead Southern Methodist by one game. An SMU loss to Texas Tech would then wrap up the title for Texas.

The Big Eight's three-way tie for the lead will narrow to one or two teams, depending upon the outcome of Kansas State's game with Oklahoma State. If the Wildcats win, they take over undisputed possession of first place. A Kansas State loss would leave Kansas and Oklahoma deadlocked for the lead.

Top-ranked California, the defending NCAA champion, backed into the West Coast's Big Five title Saturday night as UCLA's last hope dimmed with an 84-73 loss to Washington.

Ohio State Wins

Ohio State, led by Jerry Lucas' 20 points, gained their first Big Ten title since 1950 with a 93-68 victory over Wisconsin.

West Virginia won the right to meet Navy in the opening round of the Eastern regionals as it topped Virginia Tech, 82-72, for the Mountaineers' sixth straight Southern conference flag.

An opportunity for a fifth NCAA appearance by Navy was immediately accepted by the Middies after they torpedoed Army in the traditional service game, 69-57.
