Representatives to Receive Training

Twelve representatives of federal agencies in the Medford area will receive training in the new federal employees health benefits programs March 18 at the Veterans Administration domiciliary at Camp White.

The new program was authorized by the Federal Employees Health Benefits Act of 1959, which becomes effective July 1, and closes a major gap between fringe benefits in federal employment and those offered by private industry.

James R. Beck Jr., who heads the health benefits program for the 11th civil service region, will conduct the training session.
