

District 5B Playoff Opens on Thursday

St. Mary's high of Medford has stressed conditioning and has been working to speed up its attack in preparation for the District 5B championship.

The Crusaders open a two-of-three series with the Malin Mustangs on Thursday at Southern Oregon college gym in Ashland. Second game will be Friday and the third, if necessary, on Saturday. Winner will qualify for the state Class B tournament.

Thursday's game will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday times will be 8 p.m.

Reason for speeding up the St. Mary's offense, Coach Bill McKibbin explained, is that Malin has better height. The Crusaders don't figure to stand much chance of controlling the backboards. Malin does not have extreme size but possesses a good all-around combination of altitude. Nine of 10 players are six feet or better.

Malin is said to move the ball well and to have a good zone defense as well as to rebound well.

Scrap and hustle have compensated for St. Mary's lack of height this season and the Crusaders hope to carry these qualities into the playoff. They've been good enough to gain the Medford parochial team an 18-2 record.

St. Mary's was 9-0 for the regular Jackson County B league season then won two more games against loop foes in the county playoff. In non-league play the Crusaders won twice from Eagle Point and from Riddle and once each from Phoenix, Illinois Valley and Sacred Heart of Klamath Falls. SM losses were to Sacred Heart and to Yreka, Calif.

Ron Daley, St. Mary's guard, has been troubled by blistered feet this week but McKibbin said he thought Daley would be ready to play. Forward Dick Evans missed several drills last week because of a severe sore throat.

It is planned to have junior varsity preliminaries for the playoffs. SM and Malin jayvees will vie on Friday. If no opposition is found for SM for Thursday evening, Crusader jayvee and freshmen crews will be divided for a game.

Earlier varsity starting time on Thursday is to enable earlier return home for Malin school officials, students and other fans. The basketball squad will remain overnight in the Rogue valley.

221 Bouts In District Mat Meet

Hedrick Junior High school gymnasium will have a hubbub of activity Friday and Saturday when the District 6 A-1 high school wrestling tournament is staged here.

With double elimination contention slated and with 10 men entered in each of 13 weight classes, there will be 221 matches during the two days. Matches will be conducted simultaneously on three mats, assuring plenty of action for fans.

Quarter-finals are set for 1 p.m. Friday. Semi-finals will begin at 12:15 p.m. Saturday with consolation finals at 6 p.m. and championship finals at 7 p.m.

Team trophies will be awarded for first and second places. Points are awarded for each individual winning a match plus one point for pinning a man, 10 points for each first place, seven for each second, four for third and two for fourth.

To Award Medals

First and second place winners in each weight division will receive medals and will qualify for the state tournament at Oregon State college on March 11 and 12.

Among Medford entrants in the tourney Dan Eddy was second at 123 pounds and Al Funston second at 168 pounds last year. Also among Medford participants, Clay Varney is tops in pins for the season with six while Chuck Shaw and Stan Hobbs have recorded five each.

Medford's dual meet record is five wins, five losses and one tie. The Black Tornado has scored 287 points to opponents 229.

The Tornado's tourney entry list includes:

98—Clay Varney (10-5) and Jim Spitz (10-3); 106—Gary Fields (1-2) and Jerry Stratton or Sam Crawford (freshman); 115—Dennis Pugmire (1-3) and David Baker (2-2); 123—Dan Eddy (4-1) and Jim Berg (0-2-1); 130—Sunny Lettier (7-3) and Doug Robertson (0-2); 136—Wayne Fields (10-4) and Ray Smith (10-3-2); 141—John dePlace (3-3); 148—Larry Gunn (4-6) and Tim White (0-2); 157—Bill Charley (6-1) and Lee Cook (1-7-1); 168—Al Funston (2-2) and Bob Rix (4-5); 178—Terry O'Sullivan (3-4) and Chuck Holt (2-5); 191—Chuck Shaw (10-3) and Monte Jones (1-0); unlimited—Stan Hobbs (7-5) and Ron Gandee (1-2).

Linfield Trounces Raiders in Tourney

Salem—UPJ—Willamette and Linfield clash tonight for tickets to Kansas City and the District 2 NAIA basketball championship.

Southern Oregon meets Portland State in a consolation game.

Linfield clobbered Southern Oregon 95-52 and Willamette handed a tough Portland State team a 58-51 defeat Tuesday night.

Linfield, last year's state NAIA king and runner-up to Willamette in the Northwest conference this season, had no trouble with Southern Oregon. It was 40-25 at the half and the Wildcats pulled away easily after that.

Jackie Riley had 26 points for Linfield while Brad Flannery led SOC with 12.

Pull Out In Second

Willamette, led by Ed Grossbacher's 20 points, managed to pull out in the second half against Portland State after a 16-all deadlock at intermission.

Ray Torgerson hit 17 for SOC.

Southern Oregon and Portland State tied for the Oregon Collegiate conference title so tonight's consolation game might be billed as a "playoff."

Sizzling accuracy from the field and control of the boards took Linfield to its triumph. Linfield fired at a .514 average from the field while Southern Oregon had a cold, .229, night. The Wildcats had a 56 to 39 backboard edge.

Three Qualify For Tournament

Portland—UPJ—Three more teams qualified Tuesday night for the state class A-1 high school basketball tournament in Eugene starting March 15.

Albany, St. Helens and Lake Oswego won games to assure themselves of berths in the tournament. Four berths remained to be filled.

Cleveland clinched a tie for the Portland title with a 67-46 win over Washington. Three teams are tied for second place.

Two of the remaining four berths to be filled are in Portland. South Eugene plays Springfield Friday night for another and Jesuit or Parkrose will fill the final spot.

First round pairings March 15 include:

Marshfield vs. David Douglas.

Albany vs. Portland champ. La Grande vs. Oswego. Klamath Falls vs. Sandy. Beaverton vs. Springfield or South Eugene.

South Salem vs. Portland runner-up.

St. Helens vs. Hermiston. Medford vs. Jesuit or Parkrose.

Lions, Broncs In WCAC Chase

United Press International

It's a two-team race in the West Coast Athletic conference with Loyola and Santa Clara fighting for the crown and the coveted bid to the NCAA tournament.

The Lions knocked Pepperdine out of the race Tuesday night as they closed their season with a 76-60 win over the Waves.

Loyola thus ended the year with a 9-3 mark, while Pepperdine had to settle for 8-4. The Lions thus earned at least the co-championship of the WCAC.

Meanwhile, Santa Clara stuck in the race by dumping USF 84-67. The win gave the Broncs an 8-3 record, but they still face one giant hurdle, for they meet St. Mary's at the Gaels' court Friday night. The Gaels are 7-4.

Vote May Kill Rose Bowl Pact

Columbus, Ohio—UPJ—Big Ten representatives meet here Thursday and Friday to formally kill the 14-year-old Rose Bowl pact and possibly to consider charges that faculties are losing control of Big Ten athletic policy.

The Rose Bowl vote should be a 5-5 deadlock, preventing renewal of the contract under which the conference picked a team to play each year in the bowl. Unless special action is taken, however, a rule will remain in effect allowing a Big Ten team to accept independently an invitation to Pasadena. The team would keep the gate proceeds for its own school instead of splitting evenly with the rest of the conference as under the expired pact.

Northwestern became the fifth school to go on record against the Rose Bowl pact Tuesday at the two-day winter meeting here. Northwestern will be joined by Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Ohio State. Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Indiana and Purdue will cast ballots in favor of the contract.

First Methodist Church took over lone hold on second place in the Senior Church league basketball standings Monday night by defeating YMCA 36 to 30.

St. Mark's Episcopal downed St. Luke's Methodist 55 to 24 in another tangle.

First Methodist overcame a 12 to 11 YMCA first half lead. Jack Joyce had 15 points for Methodist and Steve Ray eight for Y. St. Mark's led 26 to 13 at the half of its game and Bob Hamilton collected 17 points. Jerry Jordan and Dick Dahl each had six for St. Luke's.

Sanner, Stewart Victors In Holiday Handicap Golf

Galen Sanner and Ray Stewart annexed the holiday handicap golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

They concluded play with 38 points, two more than the duos of Max Millhollin and Ned Schuler and Warren Bayliss and Bob Elliott who tied for second place. Ranny Smith and Tom Teutsch were a distant fourth with 18 markers.

The Sanner and Stewart title possibilities seemed a bit shaky last Saturday when the two were playing Joe Moore and Curt Butterfield.

Moore and Butterfield were too much for them on the front nine holes, winning No. 1, 4, 5, 6 and 8. Sanner and Stewart won only No. 9 leaving them four down at the turn. But the tourney leaders came back strong. They won 10, 11, 12, 14 and 18 while dropping 13 and 17 to lose the tussle by just one point. It was one of their few setbacks in the tourney.

Rally Again

On Sunday Sanner and Stewart were 3 down to Jerry Cottingham and Jack Cregar after 11 holes but came back to break even in the match.

Millhollin and Schuler went into the last week of the tourney with 33 points. They won two points from Clyde Knight and Bud Parsons, played even with Dutch Nulton and Virgil Swanson and took a point from Cottingham and Cregar.

Bayliss and Elliott picked up four points in the final week to get their second spot tie. They won by two from Dave Brown and Reese Alexander and two from Dutch Meyer and Tom Van Etten.

The tourney ended with Phil Mongrain and Jim Quincy sharing with Millhollin and Schuler the low net best ball honors. Each had an 11-under-par 61.

Qualifying for the spring golf handicap has started and will continue through March 13. The tourney, match play with full handicap will run through May 8.

McGuire Shines For Piston Club

United Press International

Dick McGuire looked like the Dick McGuire of old as the Detroit Pistons' player-coach sparked his team's clinching of second place in the National Basketball association's Western division.

The former New York Knickerbocker and St. John's ace tallied 22 points in Detroit's 108-102 victory over Cincinnati Tuesday night.

In the second game of a twin-bills at St. Louis, the Hawks readily scoring duo of Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan paced St. Louis to a 109-101 triumph over Minneapolis.

Some 2,976 faithful turned out in Madison Square Garden as the Syracuse Nationals rallied to beat the New York Knickerbockers, 124-121.

Carol Gains Big Skating Lead

Vancouver, B.C.—UPI—Pert Carol Heiss, the defending women's champion, held a commanding lead today in the 1960 world figure skating championships.

The 20-year-old Olympic gold medalist from Ozone Park, N.Y., gained the lead Tuesday after the first two of six compulsory figures. Competition in the remaining figures started this morning.

Miss Heiss led in unofficial scoring in both figures, posting scores of 131.7 and 134.4. Both figures had a factor of three.

Her total was 266.1 points, bettering by 13.1 the performance of Olympic silver medalist Sjoukje Dijkstra of the Netherlands, who was in second place after her scores of 126 and 129.

Barbara Ann Roles of Temple City, Calif.—an Olympic Games bronze medalist—was third with 242.7.
