Officers Elected By AAUW

Mrs. Gordon S. Mackenzie is the new president-elect of Medford branch, American Association of University Women. Other officers elected at the meeting last Wednesday are: Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard, re-elected first vice president; Mrs. Calvin L. Smith, second vice president; Miss Josephine Koppes, secretary; Mrs. Alan S. Markee, treasurer.

Names of seven local women have been added to the state roster of qualified women, according to Mrs. Thomas McCamant, status of women committee chairman. This roster is placed in the governor's office for reference in appointing boards and committees.

Mrs. Robert F. Wilcox, chairman of the recent graduates group, told of the monthly meetings which are open to AAUW members who have graduated within the last ten years.

A survey of employment of the senior age group is now in progress locally to determine employers' practices in hiring older people and to provide information for the 1961 White House conference on aging. Mrs. Nick A. Gerritsen, chairman of AAUW social and economic issues committee, is in charge of the project.

Mrs. Gerritsen introduced a panel discussion of "The Nonconformist Child Acquires Knowledge," explaining that the term "nonconformist" was used to describe the trouble-causing child with no specific handicap.

Bruce Metzger, Jackson school principal, Bruce Nelson, dean of boys at Hedrick Junior High school, and Dr. Betty Lou Dunlop, field supervisor of teaching at Southern Oregon college, told how non-conformity is dealt with at each age level.
