

Soloist Announced

Miss Linda Hess, saxophonist and junior student at Medford High school, will be soloist with the Medford Senior Symphony band at an all-Medford High School Band festival Thursday, March 10. The concert will feature six bands, two each from McLoughlin Junior High and Hedrick Junior High schools, plus the high school concert and senior symphony bands. Doors will open at 7 p.m. for the concert, to be held at Hedrick Junior High school. Miss Hess has consistently won superior ratings at music contests while in junior and senior high school and is considered to be one of the finest young saxophone artists Medford schools have had. About 420 students will take part in the program, and proceeds will help defray spring contest expenses.

Miss Linda Hess, junior in Medford High school, will be featured in a saxophone solo during the Medford High School Band festival to be held Thursday, March 10, at Hedrick Junior High school.

Hughes and Mrs. Mary Trout, third, 115½; and Mrs. Berg Marten, Roy Pruitt, Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, tied for fourth, 108½. East-west high scores were won by Mrs. John Dougherty and Mrs. Sam Van Dyke, first, 135½; Mrs. R. T. Jones and Mrs. J. S. Winslow, second, 130½; Mrs. Walter Winner and Mrs. Fred Hedorfer, third, 117; and Mrs. F. T. Burch and Al Gilhausen, fourth, 116. Mrs. Audrey M. Donohue, a life master player, Vallejo, Calif., was a guest. Santha Officers Schedule Meeting Officers of Idella Rogue santha, Nomads of Avrudaka, will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward Bostwick, rani, 3273 Biddle road, Wednesday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m. Plans for the coming year will be discussed.

Lodge Planning District Session

District executive officers of the Royal Neighbors of America met recently in Ashland to make plans for the annual district session of the lodge. The meeting will be held April 29 and Mrs. Virginia E. Duvall, Vancouver, Wash., state supervisor of the lodge, will make an official visit at that time. Mistletoe camp, RNA, will meet March 17 and members will practice for the convention. Mistletoe club will meet at the Girls Community club Wednesday, March 9, at 10 a.m. Members will work on material for their bazaar and a covered-dish luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock. On the committee, which provides meat dishes, are Mrs. David Fraysher, Mrs. George Culy, Mrs. Alvin Lehman and Mrs. Clayton Walker. A business meeting will follow. Auxiliary Plans Monday Dance The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Oregon, will sponsor a dance at the Camp White Domiciliary Monday, March 7, 8 p.m. in the Camp White theater. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Camp White orchestra. Those wishing transportation may get the bus at the Trailways depot at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Suzanne Rogers (at right) and Miss Judy Taylor were honored at the annual formal dinner and dance of Bethel 56, International Order of Job's Daughters, held February 26 at Rogue Valley Country Club. Miss Rogers is queen of the Bethel, and Miss Taylor is junior past queen. The young women are shown with their escorts, Denis Walker (at left) and Joe Jones. Both Miss Rogers and Mr. Jones are from Prospect; Miss Taylor and Mr. Walker both live in Medford. Theme of the event was "Fantasy in Blue." (Knackstedt photo)

Twin Sisters Celebrate Leap Year Anniversaries

Leap year birthdays were the occasion for a family reunion held February 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Buseman, 221 Vancouver ave. The event celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. Buseman's mother, Mrs. Alex Hayes, Shedd, Ore., and Mrs. Hayes' twin sister, Mrs. A. B. Wolber, Ashland. The two women celebrated their "14th" birthday. A buffet dinner was served the guests and a large heart-shaped decorated cake was used as a centerpiece. Both women were presented many gifts. Those attending in addition to the honored guests were: Alex Hayes, Shedd; their son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayes, Dianna and Ray of Arcata, Calif.; their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed, Tommy and Gary of Arcata; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clark and children, Connie, Danny and Kelly of Halsey; Miss Lee Hayes, Shedd, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Buseman and daughters, Elaine and Claudia. Another son, Wendall Hayes and family of Medford were unable to attend because of illness. Accompanying Mrs. Wolber was her husband, Mr. Wolber, Ashland, and Mr. Wolber's sons, Jerry Doran, Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doran and son Jerry, Medford. A sister of the two women, Mrs. Eleanor McGew, Applegate, was present, also her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Budd Carr and son Gary, Medford. Coming from Arcata for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lumpkin and son Kevin, granddaughter of Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Lumpkin, a daughter of Mrs. Reed, made four generations of the Hayes family present.

Guardian Is Guest of Bethel 14

Mrs. Joe Rogers, Independence, Ore., grand guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters in Oregon, visited Bethel 14 here at a meeting March 2 in the Mason temple. Queen Marion Parsons presided over the session. Junior past honored queen of the Bethel, Miss Mieke Noble, was presented a proficiency certificate following perfect completion of the test. The Bethel decided to award a trophy to a junior or senior girl who has served faithfully and had good attendance at meetings but has not progressed through the line of offices. The regular session of March 16 was postponed and will be held March 30 when members will be back from spring vacation. During the session "Happy Birthday" was sung in celebration of the Bethel's 26th birthday. It was announced that the next guardian council meeting will be March 23. Final plans were made for the rummage sale which will be held Saturday, March 26, in the Fehlbildung. A meeting March 2 was in observance of friendship night and a record number of guests attended. Among the guests were queens from five Bethels: Miss Susan Rogers, Bethel 56, Shady Cove; Miss Sandra Piper, Bethel 36, Kerby; Miss Lynn Johnson, Bethel 13, Grants Pass; Miss Marcia Barrell, Bethel 55, Medford; and Miss Christine McGee, Bethel 22, Ashland. Andrew E. Stevens, past associate grand guardian, Mrs. W. K. Sult, grand guide, and L. R. Manning, vice associate grand guardian, all of Medford, were escorted. Several guardians were introduced. Mrs. Audrey Roberts, matron of Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star, presented the Bethel gift in honor of the 26th birthday. An interesting event of the evening was a style show of hats created by members of the Bethels. Two first prizes were awarded: one to Bethel 13 of Grants Pass for a hat "From Cave Daughter to Job's Daughter" with decorations symbolizing work of Job's Daughters. Bethel 55, Medford, was awarded a prize for a large white hat symbolizing the Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley. Choir practice for girls 15 years and older will be held in the home of Clarence Smith, music director, 826 Grant street, Monday, March 7, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

To Meet Medford Sojourners club will meet Thursday, March 10, at 12:30 p.m. at the Girls Community club. After a short business meeting, bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played. All women who have lived in Medford and vicinity not longer than two years are invited to attend and become members.
