

Sum Due Heirs of Mussolini's Friend

Rome — (UPI) — Italy has been ordered to pay $36,000 to the family of Benito Mussolini's late mistress for damage to the dictator's love nest.

A Rome civil court Thursday ruled in favor of the family of Claretta Petacci which sued for damages to a luxurious villa near Rome where the dictator held secret rendezvous with the "faithful-unto-death" Claretta who was executed with him by Communist partisans in 1945.

The Petacci family said the villa was badly damaged when it was used by Allied military authorities from 1943 to 1947 and afterwards when it was occupied by an order of nuns.

The Medical Roundup

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic

HOW TO MARRY WELL

I was just looking through the new edition of Sylvanus M. Duvall's book, "Before you Marry." It contains much good advice for any two people who are thinking of marrying. As he says, so many marriages fail today. I understand that about one in three ends in the divorce court and another one in three ends in unhappiness; for years the couple continue to live in a house together, more or less as brother and sister. As Duvall says, choosing a marriage partner is in some ways like buying a used car. If you make your choice only on the basis of pretty lines and a good paint job, your chances of attaining satisfaction will be poor. If you know how to look "under the hood" for qualities of character, good sense and capacity for affection, then your chances will be much better. As we all know, one of the dangers about marrying is that, during the courting period and the engagement time, people will put their best foot forward, they will hide their bad habits, and they will try to make out that they like what the other one likes.

I remember a woman who, every Saturday for a year before she was married, used to go with her beau to a baseball, or a football, or basketball game. So far as he could see, she adored sports just as he did. Imagine his shock when, a few days after the wedding, she said, "Look; get this into your head; I hate sports and I am never again going to a ball game."

Valley Man Being Held on Charges

Arden Daryl Thurston, 27, of Gregory rd., was arrested Thursday night by sheriff's officers on charges of burglary not in a dwelling.

He is being held in the Jackson county jail charged with burglarizing a service station Jan. 3.

Thurston is charged with taking saddles and other horse gear valued at $650. Sheriff's deputies recovered two saddles, but the other gear was thrown in the Rogue river, Thurston told officers. One of the missing saddles is valued at $185.

Deputies said Thurston surrendered himself when he heard deputies were looking for him.

Richard Edgar Herndon, 31, of route 1, box 345, Eagle Point, is charged with possessing one of the saddles and is being held in the county jail on charges of possessing and concealing stolen property, deputies said.

Many elderly people want to know if their "liver spots" are dangerous in any way, or if they could be removed. I am sure they are not dangerous and I doubt if efforts at

Sheriff's Office is Seeking Man in Area

A man identified only as Hutchings, who is believed to be a resident of Jackson county, is asked to contact Saint Joseph's hospital at Tacoma, Wash., sheriff's officers have reported.

The sheriff's department received a letter from hospital authorities saying that Hutchings' mother, Katharyne Bernius, is ill at the hospital. She is unable to give further information due to her illness. R. H. Faber, hospital credit manager, wrote.
