

QUIPS AND QUOTES

DEAR FASHION WORLD

O Balenciaga,
Molyneux,
Gabrielle Chanel!
O Mainbocher,
Ann Fogarty,
And Traina and Norell!
O Molly Parnis,
Maggie Rouff,
Schnurer or Patou!

I'll transfer all
My business to
Whichever one of you
Courageously
Will face the world
That listens as you speak,
And say that now,
For once and all,
"Runs in hose are chic!"
—Alma Denny

All that keeps some couples from having a car of their own is a son with a driver's license. —Hal Chadwick

An American tourist visiting Moscow was discussing the pros and cons of the Communist state. "In America, we're happy: that's what counts," maintained the American.

"What do you mean by happiness?" questioned the Russian.

"A nice home, a good job, and security for my family,"

the American replied.

The Russian brightened. "See," he beamed, "you don't know what happiness really is. At 3 a.m., when there's a knock on the door and a voice says, 'Ivan Ivanovich, this is the Secret Police; come with us'; and when you're able to answer, 'Ivan Ivanovich lives on the next floor'—that's happiness."

—Robert Driscoll

SWITCH HITTERS

The winter trades in baseball
Just couldn't leave me numb-er:
I'll have to cheer, it would appear,
The guys I booed last summer.

—Dick Emmons

The owner of a new back-yard swimming pool sternly told the neighborhood kids that they could use it only if accompanied by their mothers.

One youngster looked crestfallen. "My mother works all day," he said sadly. Then he brightened. "But I could ask her for a note saying it's okay for me to drown."

Another time when the ability to stop on a dime comes in handy is when you're playing slot machines.
