By MIKE HUDSON
United Press International
Eight Pacific Coast basketball teams today begin the lengthy climb toward the top of the cage ladder when first-round action starts in the World Series of college basketball - the NCAA tournament.

It's a long way to the national championship - which was won last year by the California Golden Bears. The four winners of this week's first-round action will gather at Seattle this week end for the Western Regional NCAA tourney.

The team that emerges the West's best at Seattle will represent the area in the national tournament in the San Francisco Cow Palace March 18-19.

Tonight, Loyola (19-7) and Santa Clara (20-8) square off in the USF gym in a play-off game between the West Coast Athletic conference co-champions.

The loop actually gets an automatic spot at Seattle, but tonight's play-off was occasioned when both teams ended the year with 9-3 marks. The game rates as a tossup.

Bears Meet Idaho St.
Tuesday, on the same floor, mighty California (24-1) battles the perennial Rocky Mountain king, Idaho State (21-4). The winners of these two games are expected to hook up in one bracket of the Seattle competition.

Southern California (16-10), named as one of two at large teams Sunday, takes on rugged Utah, (24-2) champion of the Skyline conference. That game will take place tonight in Provo, Utah.

Oregon (17-9), another at large pick, faces the winner of the Border conference, New Mexico State (20-6) Wednesday night in Corvallis. The victors of these battles will also meet in Seattle.

In the college NCAA division, Chapman beat Fresno State, 70-62, Saturday at Fresno in the finals of the District eight division. Chapman now heads for Evansville, Ind., and the national college competition.

Phoenix High Matmen Place

Phoenix - Joe Colfax took third in the 168-pound class and Jim Martin fourth in the 178 bracket in the District 6 A-2 wrestling tournament at Glendale Saturday.

It was the first formal competitive wrestling activity for Phoenix.

Henley won the team title with 146 points. Illinois Valley scored 125 and had six champions. Glendale had 112 points and Phoenix 5.

Colfax won his first two matches and lost his second two. Martin won his first match, lost his second, won his third and lost his fourth.

Other Phoenix entrants were Jack Hoffbuh, Gary Neel and Les Baker.

National Pistol Mark Bettered In Sectional NRA Shoot Here

Maurice C. Baum, Seattle, bettered his own national record in the timed fire event during the National Rifle association sectional championship pistol matches at Medford Rifle and Pistol club's indoor range here Saturday and Sunday.

He posted a perfect 200 score then fired nine additional perfect shots to beat his former mark of 200 plus eight set at Seattle last year. It is believed that the accomplishment stands as "the" new national record.

Baum was also winner of the slow match with 190 out of 200. He came out sectional champ with an 870 score out of a possible 900.

The master team of Baum, Philip H. Fisher, Edward C. Heuss and Richard C. Amundsen of the United States Army Reserve special marksmanship unit from Seattle was first with a total score of 1152 out of a possible 1200. Medford team of Jim Bolton, Frank Graham, Ed McGinty and Rafe Anders was second with 1086. Rogue River had 1045 and Ashland 883.

Thirty-six shooters took part.

GP, KF, Crater Grab Four Titles Apiece In 6 A-1 Wrestling Meet

Grants Pass, Klamath Falls and Crater each won three individual titles and Medford high claimed one in the District 6 A-1 wrestling tournament held Friday and Saturday at Hedrick gymnasium here.

Klamath and Grants Pass, as the result of the tourney, will have nine state meet entrants each and Crater and Medford four apiece. First and second place men in each of 13 weight classes will enter the state conflict at Corvallis March 11 and 12.

The Cavemen of GP and the Pelicans tied for the team championship in the district go with 153 points apiece. Medford scored 126, Crater 79 and Ashland 4.

Medford's lone individual titlist is Chuck Shaw. He decided to team mate Monte Jones, 5-3, in the 191-pound bracket. Jones took second place in the weight with a 3-2 verdict over John Morris, Grants Pass after losing to Shaw.

Comet Champions
Crater's champs are Gary Meade, 106 pounds; Charles Warren, 130; Dean Lamp, 148, and Al Lamp, 157. Meade beat Bill Amburge, Grants Pass, 4-1 in his finale and Warren won his titular match from Trenton Douglas, Klamath Falls, on a pin in the second round. Dean Lamp pinned Steve Shults, Klamath Falls, in the second round, also, of his decider and Al Lamp decimated Bill O'Neil, Klamath Falls, 5-2 to get his mantle.

Klamath's winners and the results of their finals were Mike Crumrine, 98 by 4-1 verdict over Gary Head, Klamath; Dan Ross, 136, by 3-2 over Dale Crumrine, Klamath; Dave Gonzales, 141, by 4-1 over Larry Wishart, Klamath, and Art Mills, 169, by first round pin over Ewing, Klamath.

Grants Pass champs and the outcomes of their deciding brushes were Bob LaCombe, 115, by 4-2 over Lee Roy, Grants Pass; Kirk McIntyre, 123, by 4-3 over Sherd Duncan, Klamath; Richard Shorb, 178, by 6-0, over Terry O'Sullivan, Medford, 4-3, and Bill Cole, unlimited, 3-1 over Bob Shores, Grants Pass.

Cole is a repeat champ and Warren and LaCombe were winners in other weight classes last year.

Medford Seconds
Grabbing second places for Medford along with Jones and qualifying for the state meet along with Shaw and Jones were Dan Eddy, 123, and Wayne Fields, 136. They won

Western Takes Bowling Lead

Toledo, Ohio - (UPI) - Two Cincinnati teams, Western Bowl and Mergard Trophy Co., lead the open teams today in the first full week of play in the American Bowling congress (A B C) tournament here.

Western hauled into the lead with games of 897, 1022 and 1014 Sunday for a 2933 total, with the second game the high for the tournament so far.

Mergard had 2908, including a 642 by Bill Berding, high individual series in the team events.

More than 30,000 bowlers are competing for $409,311 in the 79-day tourney, which opened Saturday on 36 specially installed alleys at the Sports Arena.

FIRE TOLL
Chicago - The disastrous fire in this city in 1871 destroyed 17,000 buildings with a property loss of $160 million.

Saturday consolation bouts and that night met the losers of championship bracket finals in their weights. Eddy won a referee's decision from Duncan of Klamath and Fields pinned Dale Crumrine, Klamath, in the third round.

Crater High Beats Ashland Grizzlies

Steve Harris cut the gap to 38 to 36 on two gifters as the fourth panel began. Dennis Edwards put in a free point for Crater count at 39 apiece. Free points by Edwards and Dick Woods of Crater were matched by a brace by Hardy for a knot at 41. Dave Sharp then hit twice from the foul line for the Comets but a Phil Tucker goal knotted the game at 43 with 4 1/2 minutes left.

That was all the Ashland scoring. Tom White sank a jump shot for Crater. Chuck Turner tallied off his own rebound and Edwards goaled off a jump ball. It was 49 to 43 with less than three minutes remaining.

A field goal and four free tosses by Sharp, a gifter by Turner and a driver bucket by Earl Cooper rounded out the Comet scoring. Turner Has 16

Turner topped the Comets with 16 points and 12 rebounds. He had 10 free markers on 14 trips to the foul stripe. Sharp and Loyal Highsmith each put in seven free throws on eight attempts. Hardy had 13 points for Ashland.

A number of non-regulars saw a good share of the duty for Crater in the opening quarter.

Crater won the junior varsity opener 48 to 31 and after 9 to 5 and 20 to 16 quarter and halftime Ashland gaps. The Comets went in front 33 to 26 in the third quarter. Louis Alvarez and Mike Glines, a pair of freshmen, had 17 and 11 points, respectively, for the Comets.

Points in the tourney were given for first, second, third and fourth places and for match wins and falls. Klamath took five thirds, Medford four, Grants Pass three and Crater one. Medford's Black Tornado Grapplers gained eight fourths, Crater and Klamath each two and Grants Pass one.

Second place takers from Klamath gaining the state meet were Head, 98; Douglas, 130; Wishart, 151; O'Neil, 157, and J. Cox, 178. Those with seconds for Grants Pass were Pat Nicholson, 106; Roley, 115; Gary Stevens, 148; Jerry Coleman, 168, and Shores, unlimited.

Championship finals losers and consolation flight winners met for second and thirds places in each weight. Losers in the early Saturday evening consolation matches took fourths.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

STAY EXTENDED-Archie Moore, out from behind the eight-ball with the National Boxing association decision to reinstate his world light heavyweight boxing title, watches as his two-year-old daughter, Renna Marie, play with trouble symbol. Moore says the NBA decision, ordering fights with Eric Schoepner and Harold Johnson has extended his stay in professional boxing by some two years.-(UPI Telephoto)

May Bout About Set For Archie

New York - (UPI) - Archie Moore, the re-crowned light heavyweight champion, practically accepted a May 27 tune-up fight for Indianapolis today, but rejected another on June 10th for New York.

Manager Jack (Doc) Kearns, elated at Moore's reinstatement as 175-pound champion by the National Boxing association's executive committee on Saturday, told of the tune-up negotiations.

Archie, 45, must defend his title against Erich Schoepner of Germany in late July or early August, the NBA stipulated Saturday when it voted to reinstate him. Meanwhile, he wants a non-title bout to put him in shape.

Before Races
Kearns disclosed today: "We've practically closed for Archie to have a tune-up with some good heavyweight at Indianapolis on the Friday before the Decoration Day 500-mile auto race there..."

The NBA's action Saturday, in restoring Archie's crown, was unprecedented. Never before had it returned the royal garb after stripping a champion.

Archie's title was vacated on Feb. 15 for his failure to defend within the required six months. He hadn't defended since his third-round knock-out over Canadian Yvon Durelle last Aug. 12.

BRIDGE OPENED
New York - The George Washington bridge from New York to New Jersey was opened for public use October 24, 1931.

Moyer Tiff On Friday

New York - (UPI) - Welterweights command the most attention on this week's boxing schedule.

Deny Moyer of Portland, Ore., and Emile Griffith of New York, two young contenders for the 147-pound title, meet in a 10-round at Madison Square Garden, Friday night. Betting is at "even money."

Their 10-rounder will be the only professional TV fight of the week. It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC. The western Golden Gloves finals will be televised from Chicago stadium by ABC, Wednesday night.

Meanwhile, at London Tuesday night, Virgil Akins of St. Louis, former world welterweight champion, meets Wally Swift, British champion, in Wembley Arena. On the same card, ex-welterweight contender Del Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., engages middleweight Phil Edwards of Wales.

At Glasgow, Scotland, Wednesday night, light heavyweight Don Fleeman of Tyler, Tex., tries to snap Scottish Chic Calderwood's victory string at 21 straight. Calderwood is a ranking contender.
