Officers of the Boys and Girls League announced Thursday that the annual Girls and Boys League Week would be March 7-11. In past years, this event has occurred somewhat later than this year.

The reason for the early date, it was learned, was that during spring vacation, nine weeks exams, and the production of a school musical will all interfere later.

A schedule of events published Friday showed that the week will include: Monday, sport and bicycle day and nominations for officers for Boys and Girls Leagues; Tuesday, sack lunch day; Wednesday, an all-school assembly; Thursday, a senior father-daughter banquet; and Friday, grubby day, election of officers, and cotton-and-cord dance.

Seniors interested in automotive mechanics but who are not planning to attend college may take an evening auto trades program geared to a complete education in mechanics. The courses take two years for completion.

Classes in welding, mathematics, and practical physics will start some time during the first half of May. The three courses will continue for six weeks.

The regular two-year course in auto trades is broken into three terms, of 12 weeks each, per year.

Beginning next fall, a similar series of courses in electronics will be offered. Anyone interested should contact Lindsay Vinsel, either in his office, room 202, at Medford High school, or telephone him at SPRing 3-5341 or SPRing 2-8648.

Spring vacation will last a full week this year, from March 14-18.

The state basketball tournament will be held March 15-19 in Eugene. The Eugene Active club has been urging everyone to make housing arrangements as soon as possible. Requests for housing can be sent to: Housing, Eugene Active club, box 365, Eugene.

A roller skating and bowling party has been scheduled March 12 for members of the Future Business Leaders of America club. Students will be provided with transportation to Grants Pass where the party will be held.

Also to take place in Grants Pass is a business conference for members. The conference will be held in the Grants Pass High school, and talks in various fields have been planned. A display of office equipment will be shown students at the conference.

Members of the Future Nurses of America club at a meeting Tuesday ordered FNA pins signifying their membership. The senior members applied for the $100 FNA nursing scholarship awarded each spring to a qualified girl interested in the nursing profession.

Health Careers Day, sponsored by the Oregon Health Careers Council, will be held in Portland April 9, on the Oregon medical school campus. Students who wish to attend are required to fill out an application signifying which group they wish to attend, their means of transportation, their parent's permission, and whether or not their parents will attend the event with the student.

The International Relations League has planned a full schedule of activities for the next few months. A clothing campaign to help underprivileged people and a book drive to send texts to Asia are two upcoming projects.

The club is also going to aid the American Field Service student and give an award to the outstanding IRL club member.

A regional conference of several IRL clubs has been planned for sometime in April. It was decided to invite several students from schools that don't have IRL organizations in order to interest them in starting their own clubs.

Senior week end will be held at Southern Oregon college April 16.

Chester Squires, teacher of "School in American Life," and his class, will visit Medford High school March 9.

The object of the visit is to give the students a better view of high school teaching. Miss Josephine Kirtley, vice principal, will speak to the group and conduct them in a visit of the school.

All registrations and signed registration blanks that were distributed to sophomores and juniors for next year, are to be completed and returned by March 11.

Saturday basketball was cancelled for one week as many of the players were performing in the district wrestling meet at Hedrick Junior High school.

Play will resume next week when the top teams from the morning and afternoon league meet in a post-season tournament to determine the overall winner of the two leagues.

All junior girls interested in participating in Girls' State this year were urged by the office to attend a meeting Tuesday.

Girls' State is a week-long activity in which girls are instructed in American history and government.

McLoughlin Junior High By Roda Work, Sue Williams
 Dr. Francis Nickerson of the Oregon system of higher education spoke to the students Friday in class assemblies giving them ideas and facts concerning their years after high school.

"Going to college will be better for those who are suited for college," Nickerson said, "and those who are not interested in college should begin preparing themselves now for kind of skilled work." He said that statistics showed that 15 per cent of the jobs that these students would be doing as adults had not yet been created. The percentage of unskilled labor reduces each year so it is important to train for some occupation.

An all-school variety show will be presented to students Thursday morning in a general assembly. Auditions have been going on for the past several weeks.

These students will take part: Dickie Freeman, Reed Harris and Jim Snodgrass, Catherine Watson, Sue Gifford, Nicki Ober, Liz Darneille dancing group, Mike McDonald, Marthanne Goodwin singing group, Hedy Rippl, Margaret Doolen, Roland Gangster, Pam Jones group, Mike Barnes group, Lani Jennings, Brent Hassell group, Cindy Anderson, Nancy Housel trio, and Carole Lennon combo.

Audiometric tests were given this week to all students under the direction of Miss Schenk from the state board of health.

Thursday, March 10, is the date of the Medford Spring Band Festival in the Hedrick Junior High school auditorium. The concert will begin at 8 p.m. with the Medford High band, the Senior Symphony band, the Hedrick "A" and "B" bands, and the McLoughlin "A" and "B" bands participating.

The annual faculty-ninth grade varsity basketball game was held Friday afternoon after school. Ralph Perkins, Charles Jones, Glenn Allison, Marion Jack, Jack Burg, Howard Gang, Edward Doran, and Bob Radcliff made up the faculty team.

Plans for an annual were up for discussion at the student council meeting last week. No decisions have been made as yet. The council has also been working on revisions for the constitution.

Jackson School

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Gordon from the National School Assemblies demonstrated techniques of archery at the last assembly. Many tricks were performed. Gordon stressed the need for safety in using bows and arrows. More than a dozen different bows were shown. An explanation was given for each type of bow and how the collection was made.

The basketball season has ended. The varsity team won second place and the junior varsity also did well. We are all pleased with the sportsmanship shown by the Jackson school teams. We will play baseball.

Cheryl Erickson, a fourth grade student, was presented two checks at an assembly recently. Cheryl won first place in Jackson County Dental association poster contest and second place in the state contest. The Jackson county check was for $15 and the state award was $25.

Roy Shipp, a fourth grade student, won second place in Jackson County Dental association contest, and was presented a $10 check.

Miss Phyllis Hockstetter, school library consultant from the state department of education, visited the library Feb. 24-25. Miss Hockstetter liked the library.

Try and Stop Me
 By BENNETT CERF

THERE'S A BARTENDER in Miami Beach who likes to think he knows the recipe for every drink ever concocted, but a customer finally stopped him cold. This was a man who had been splattered by mud as he stepped out of an automobile, and enraged when he saw the havoc wreaked on his cream-colored doeskin pants. He was angry still when he strode into the bar and demanded, "A double scotch, dammit, a whisk broom, and a hot wet towel."

"You'll have to mix it yourself," said the bartender regretfully. "That's a new one on me."

Jack Benny, under the weather briefly at a Miami Beach hotel, summoned a local medic. "That stuff about my being 39 is just to make my TV audience laugh," confided Benny. "I'm really 49."

"Funny," commented the doctor. "Your corpuscles are 64." Benny noted that the servants at the hotel are particularly polite. "It's no wonder, though," added Jack. "They were guests last season!"

Year of Progress Noted by PT&T in Annual Report

Portland—The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company described 1959 as "A Year of Progress" in its annual report released Friday.

A gain of 509,000 telephones made during the past year was topped only by the 513,000 recorded in 1956. The company reported a gain of 173,000 extension telephones and 550,000 color sets. Total telephones in service at year's end approached 7.5 million.

Long distance calls ran more than 12 per cent above 1958. The expansion of direct distance dialing now makes it possible for about 50 per cent of Pacific Telephone customers to dial their own long distance calls, according to the report.

Construction increases—new buildings and equipment to take care of growth, and replacements to keep service and facilities up-to-date—cost the company $341 million. The 1958 figure was $333 million.

Gross plant on the company's books averaged $3.1 billion last year against $2.8 billion the year before. Average capital for the two years—stock, debentures, short-term borrowings and surplus—totalled $2.5 billion and $2.3 billion respectively.

Earnings per share of common stock were $1.47 compared to $1.28 in 1958. Dividends in 1959 amounted to $1.07 per share compared to $1 in 1958. Figures reported are adjusted to reflect a 7-for-1 split of common stock made last August. The per cent return on gross plant was 5.75 per cent compared to 5.06 per cent in 1958.

Revenues in 1959 totaled $1,040,706,377 compared to $935,843,557 in 1958. But operating expenses, taxes and interest also were higher in 1959—$896 million compared to $825 million the previous year. Taxes showed the largest increase—up 25 per cent over 1958.

The company's tax bill of $240 million, not counting the 10 per cent excise tax collected over to the federal government, amounted to $2.54 per common share.
