

Water Will Be In Spotlight of Wildlife Week

Portland - Water, key to man's survival, will receive the spotlight this year during national wildlife week scheduled for March 20-26, according to the National Wildlife Federation and its affiliate the Oregon Wildlife Federation.

The theme was chosen to focus public attention on the pressing water problems and their threat to wildlife as well as our entire economy.

Pointing out conflicting interests with respect to water resources, Phil Schneider, state game director, mentioned the ever-increasing demands for the preservation of wildlife, preservation of scenic values, more reclamation of arid wastelands, hydroelectric power, storage for floods, and many other.

"The forthcoming observance of the 22nd annual wildlife week will serve an important cause," Schneider declared, "if it dispels some of the public indifference, lack of understanding, confusion, and conflict that surrounds this vital issue."

National wildlife week was first proclaimed by President Roosevelt in 1938. It has been sponsored annually since by the National Wildlife Federation, its state affiliates, and conservation agencies to draw public attention to the importance of our natural resources and the broad problems of conservation.

Martin Clogston won Class A 16-yard runnerup with a 98 bird count. In Class B Art Liebscher, Central Point, took

Willamette Eliminated

Kansas City - (UPI) - For Willamette university it was hardly worth the trip.

The Bearcats, carrying District 2 honors in the NAIA's basketball tournament, were eliminated in the first round here Monday afternoon losing to Savannah State, Ga., 85-71.

The Bearcats put up a battle for a while against the Georgians. They trailed at halftime 40-38 but never could catch up.

Willamette cut the margin to three points in the second half, 53-50, but then Savannah reeled off 11 straight points to set it up.

The win was the 10th straight for Savannah and 29th in 32 starts.

Redell Walton of the winners and Eddie Grossbacher of Willamette tied for scoring honors with 26 points each.

Another Northwest entry also lost Monday. College of Idaho lost to Villa Madonna 94-70.

Bowling Match Picks Up Speed

Toledo, Ohio - (UPI) - Illinois and New Jersey bowlers rolled into today's American Bowling Congress ABC games with a challenge to front-running Ohioans and New Yorkers.

Two Jersey teams broke into the open teams top ten Monday night. Earlier in the day a pair of Chicagoans moved into second place in doubles and Louis Melcher of Forest Park, Ill., captured half of fourth place in all-events standings.

Utility Laundry of Chatham, N.J., led by Gil Cosgren's 586, bumped Morris and Reimann Wreckers of Buffalo, N.Y., out of fifth place among open teams by rolling a 2850 series. The Wreckers had 2847. The Jersey Lanies of Linden, N.J., rolled 1846 to reach seventh place, with Ed Weber carrying a 606.

In doubles play at the 79-day keglers' spectacular, Joseph Ferrara of Metuchen, N.J., collected the highest individual doubles game of the three-day old tournament, a 268. Ferrara and his partner, Thomas Paris, moved into 10th place in doubles with 1172.

Walter Smola and Dave Moffat of Chicago pushed into second place with 1224. Moffat, captain of 1957's ABC champion Reserve Beer team, hit 616. Smola shot 608.

Tennessee Top Seeded

Kansas City, Mo. - (UPI) - Defending champion Tennessee A&I is the top-seeded team in the 22nd annual National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) basketball tournament which opened here today.

Tennessee A&I carries a 23-4 season record into the tournament and faces Midwestern (Tex.) Tuesday in its first-round game. The defending champs qualified for the tourney with an 81-74 victory over Winston-Salem Saturday night to round out the 32-team field.

Midwestern, Tennessee A&I's first round foe, has a 17-15 mark for the 1959-60 campaign.

Southwest Texas State (23-3) is seeded second.

Other seeded teams: 3. Southern Illinois 20-8; 4. Westminster (Pa.) 20-2; 5. Hamline 21-3; 6. Grambling (La.) 24-4; 7. Stetson (Fla.) 16-12; 8. Wofford (S.C.) 16-11; 9. Pittsburgh (Kan.) State 21-4; 10. Christian Bros. (Tenn.) 21-6; 11. Villa Madonna (Ky.) 18-12; 12. Western Washington 19-13; 13. Whittier (Calif.) 22-8; 14. Nebraska Wesleyan 21-6; 15. Willamette (Ore.) 22-5; and 16. West Virginia Wesleyan (22-5).

Willamette met Savannah State this morning.

Bears Get Nod Over Idaho State

United Press International California and West Virginia, who finished only a point apart in last year's final, will be separated by 3,000 miles tonight when they start off on that long journey toward a possible rematch in the NCAA basketball tournament.

The defending champion Bears are heavy favorites to crush Idaho State in the Far West regionals at San Francisco and West Virginia is an equally-strong choice to sink Navy in the East regionals at New York.

California nipped the Mountaineers, 71-70, in the 1959 championship game and both coaches-Pete Newell of the Bears and West Virginia's Fred Schaus-are confident their paths will cross again in this year's final at San Francisco, March 19.

Rough Road Ahead

Ahead of them, though, lay other strong teams with the same dreams, plus a good deal of traveling that frequently drains the stamina of these college kids in short pants.

The West Virginia-Navy meeting is one of three games scheduled in the East regionals at Madison Square Garden. New York university is a 10 1/2 point choice over Connecticut and Duke is a six-point favorite over Princeton in other openers.

In the Midwest regionals at Lexington, Ky., Notre Dame is favored to eliminate Ohio University and Western Kentucky is expected to turn back Miami (Fla.).

If California, named the regular-season national champions by the United Press International Board of Coaches, gets by Idaho State as expected it must face Santa Clara in the second round at Seattle, Wash., Friday night.

Santa Clara earned an automatic berth in the NCAA jamboree Monday night by defeating Loyola (Calif.) 59-53, in a playoff for the West Coast Conference title.

De Paul vs. Cincinnati

De Paul and Utah also bounced into the second round of their respective regional eliminations. De Paul earned the unenviable honor of meeting powerful Cincinnati in the second round of the Midwest regionals by downing the Air Force Academy, 69-63, at Chicago and Utah eliminated Southern California, 80-73, at Provo, Utah, in the Far West playoffs.

Kansas finished in a tie with Kansas State for the Big Eight Conference title by turning back Nebraska, 79-74, and will meet the Wildcats in a playoff game Wednesday night at Manhattan, Kan. The winner will gain a berth opposite Texas in the second round of the NCAA Midwest regionals.

Cincinnati completed its regular season by whipping Xavier university, 86-68, for its 25th victory in 26 games.

St. Louis rolled to a 66-60 triumph over Louisville in its final warmup for the National Invitation Tournament and Missouri beat Iowa State, 59-57.

Portland - (UPI) - Jefferson met Benson this afternoon for the final Class A-1 basketball tournament berth.

Golden Bears New Champions For 1959-60 Basketball Year

New York - (UPI) - California's Golden Bears, who employed "old-fashioned" methods like ball-control and defense to win 24 of 25 games, today were acclaimed national college basketball champions for the 1959-60 regular season by the United Press International Board of Coaches.

Coach-of-the-year Peter Newell's men beat out Cincinnati for the honor by a margin of 10 points in the final ratings by the 35 outstanding coaches who comprise the UPI rating board.

This was a fitting tribute to 44-year-old Newell, who retires as coach after this season and steps up to athletic director at California. Before that, however, the Bears made a defense of their NCAA championship, starting tonight against Idaho State.

To Receive Trophy

In their final ratings, 20 coaches made California their No. 1 choice and 13 voted for Oscar Robertson-led Cincinnati. Third-ranked Ohio State and fifth-ranked Utah each received one first-place vote.

In points distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first to 10th places, California received a total of 334 to 324 for Cincinnati. Both teams compiled 24-1 regular-season records.

California will receive the United Press International trophy, emblematic of the national championship.

Ohio State Third

Following Cincinnati in order came Ohio State's Big Ten champions 21-3, Bradley 24-2, Utah, the Skyline Conference champ 24-3, West Virginia, Southern Conference champion 24-4, Utah State 22-4, Georgia Tech, Southeastern Conference winner 21-5, Villanova, an independent with a 19-5 record, and Indiana 20-4.

St. Bonaventure led the second 10 group, followed in order by New York University, Texas, North Carolina, Duke, Kansas State, Auburn, Providence, St. Louis and Dayton. Other teams which received votes in the final ratings were: Kansas, Holy Cross, Wake Forest, Texas A&M, St. John's, Notre Dame, Miami Fla., St. Joseph's Pa., Kentucky and Navy.

New York - (UPI) - The final 1959-60 major college basketball ratings by the United Press International Board of Coaches first place votes and win-loss records through March 5 in parentheses:

Sport Parade

New York - (UPI) - A rose by another name might smell as sweet but you can't smell Fearless Fraley that jazz when it comes to everybody's horse race.

That would be, of course, the Kentucky Derby. And what brings it to mind as usual is announcement of the hayburners who will possibly parade to the post on May 7.

The theory here is that only a horse with a great name can win this one.

In rapid substantiation, let it be said that old Fearless never knew a heavyweight champion, named Oscar. It works out the same in the derby, where the winners have been such classy handled ventures as Assault, Bold Venture, Count Fleet, Jet Pilot, War Admiral, Whirlaway and so on into the night.

For any interested members of the nomenclature brigade, let it be known that there is only a handful of steeds in this one which "sound" as if they can win the mile and a quarter gallop. Start with a colt Warfare and after him you have such as Command Pilot, Great Manassa, Never Give In and True American.

So, following is the Fraley form chart on this year's hopefuls:

Another Alibi - enough said.

August Sun - under which he'll finish.

Beyond Desire - and ability.

Big Bird - a dodo.

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press International

Big Biz - last name should start with "D."

Bourbon Prince - staggers in late.

Brunette Downs - big red must be spinning.

Bullet Hole - between the eyes.

Chinese Bandit - would need a gun.

Clown Prince - Al Schacht has a better chance.

Cuvier Relic - bag of bones.

El Zag - should've zigged.

Fango - bango.

Loach - a real mooch.

Mr. Folly - if he shows up.

Mr. Wag - good name for a dog.

Oil Wick - out of kerosene.

Road House - too many stops.

Run For Nurse - bring your own doctor.

Sonny's Sin - cleaned out.

Te Amo Weep - you sure will.

Third Strike - great big out.

Too Much Brass - a bet requires real nerve.

Two o Saints - at a race track?

Vox Pop - wait 'till you hear the voice of those who bet on him.

What's Behind - absolutely nothing, doc, but you ought to see how many are up front.

Not all of them will get to the post, naturally, but it sure looks like a tough field in which to decide which one will finish last.
