Josephine County Candidates List Their Intentions

Grants Pass-Six Josephine county men this week announced their candidacies for office. Five of the six filed for positions in the Democratic primary.

The only Republican to file is Max L. McMillin, district attorney for Josephine county, who is seeking the Republican nomination for reelection.

He was appointed by the late Gov. Douglas McKay, elected district attorney in 1952, and reelected in 1956. He received the nomination of both the Republican and Democratic parties in both elections.

Democrats who have filed include E. D. Potts, Grants Pass mayor, for nomination for state senator; Morrell H. Muller, Wolf Creek, nomination for county judge; Ronald E. Jones, county assessor's post; Odd Charles Lunde, former advertising manager of the Grants Pass Daily Courier, county clerk; and Harold E. Crowl, constable for Illinois Valley, nomination for sheriff.

Board Chairman
Potts has served as chairman of the city water board, member of the city planning commission, the budget board and is now serving on the public relations board of the West Coast Lumbermen's association.

Muller has had experience in the administrative, planning and construction field, and is a retired Navy lieutenant commander.

Jones, a retired Air Force major, has had experience in the administration field and has been a real estate salesman here since his retirement from the Air Force.

Lunde, who was born in Norway and educated in Norway and Germany, has been affiliated with newspapers in Oswego, N.Y., and Pendleton as well as Grants Pass.

Crowl has been Illinois Valley constable since 1950. He also has experience as Cave Junction police chief and served as deputy sheriff in the Illinois Valley. He was born in Elgin and received his education at Albany, Griffin Creek and Medford.

Two Foresters Added to Medford District of BLM

The Medford district of the bureau of land management has been delineated into five forest management operating areas instead of three, according to Ross Youngblood, district manager.

The change was made to better serve those doing business with the district, he noted. The district includes the largest part of Jackson, Josephine and the western portion of Klamath counties, and small portions of Coos, Curry and Douglas counties.

Phoenix District Approved by State Weather

The state board of education yesterday approved plans submitted by the Jackson county school reorganization committee for creation of a Phoenix administrative district.

The new district was created when Talent consolidated with Phoenix.

With the state board of education's approval of the new district, the next step will be the district notifying the county school superintendent when it wishes to hold a school board election.

The regular election day is May 2. Alf Mekvold, county school superintendent explained, although the new district may hold it earlier if it wishes.

The school district meeting is scheduled Monday, March 14.

To be elected will be a seven-member board. Nominations for positions will be by petitions signed by 10 legal voters from the zone to be represented. Petitions must be filed with the county superintendent's office seven days prior to the election and the nominee must file a candidates' acceptance not less than five days prior to the election.

Passengers Enjoy Delay of Train
New York —UPI—When a Long Island Railroad commuter train bogged down about 30 miles east of Manhattan a considerate conductor announced the delay would be a long one.

"You guys will want to phone your wives and there's also a friendly tavern in town," he said, "I'll blow the train whistle loud and long when we're ready to pull out. You won't have to worry about a thing."

An hour later the whistle blasts were heard—loud and long. The happy commuters reboarded the train and continued homeward.

TRAINING CENTER
Chicago—The Great Lakes naval center trained more than one million sailors during the World War II period.

Service Men JOIN NAVY

David Gilbert Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Wood, star route, Shady Cove, and Stephen Hubert Logston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Logston, 552 Eagle Mill rd., Ashland, were recently sworn into the Navy at Portland.
