

Hatfield Suggests Neuberger Honor

Salem—UPI—Gov. Mark Hatfield recommended today that Green Peter dam be named after the late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.).

The dam is one which Neuberger sought to be renamed after former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay, when McKay died last year.

Hatfield's suggestion was contained in a letter to Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.).

Detroit dam east of here is now expected to be named after McKay.

Gov. Hatfield Files For GOP Convention

Salem—UPI—Gov. Mark Hatfield filed Thursday as a candidate for state at large delegate to the Republican national convention.

He also is in the running for keynote speaker for the convention.

CAUGHT IN WEBB

Memphis, Tenn.—UPI—Mrs. Maude Webb, 63, was granted a divorce Thursday from West A. Webb, 66, on her complaint that he "harassed" her for the past 20 years. The Webbs had 18 children.

Wall Street Chatter

New York—UPI—Investors tend to become too pessimistic during market reactions and thus force prices much lower than business conditions warrant, says Amott, Baker and Co.

And sometimes in periods of rising markets stock prices have outpaced business indicators, the brokerage firm notes in its monthly investment letter.

The firm believes the pessimistic view held sway over the past few weeks.

Four Minor Mishaps Reported in City

Four minor traffic accidents were reported to Medford city police Wednesday, none of them resulting in any injuries.

A quantity of oil and gasoline spilled onto Front st., between Main and Eighth sts. Wednesday at 11:20 a.m. when two trucks collided, rupturing one of the truck's fuel tanks, according to city police.

The driver of the truck sustaining most of the damage was James Rich Hill, 44, Sacramento, who told police that a small sports car swerved in front of his truck, while it was heading south on Front st., forcing it into a parked truck, registered to M. C. Linniger and Sons, 3959 Hamrick rd.

Hill's truck sustained damage to the steering gear box and front bumper in addition to the fuel tank, and had to be towed from the scene, city police said. Damage to the parked truck was negligible.

City firemen flushed the gasoline from the street and spread sand over the oil.

An accident occurred on private property at the Central Motel, 510 South Central ave., about 7 a.m. Wednesday when a car operated by Daniel A. Parker, 38, of the same address, backed into a brick-constructed sign owned by the motel, according to city police. Damage was moderate to both the sign and the vehicle, they said.

A third traffic accident occurred about 11:05 p.m. pointing in its performance in recent weeks, into Siegler or Universal Oil products.

MAIL TRIBUNE, Medford, Or. Friday, March 11, 1960 A 5

intersection of Jackson st. and Crater Lake ave., city police said.

They said both vehicles apparently stopped at the four-way stop intersection then proceeded into the intersection at the same time. The Brown vehicle sustained damage to the right front fender and the Yoder vehicle, slight damage to the front end. No citations were issued.

WANT OIL PROFITS

Cairo—UPI—Lebanon has refused to allow the construction of a new oil pipeline through its territory unless its oil-rich neighbors agree to share part of their profits with it and other Arab countries which have no such natural resource.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A FARMER, visiting a city department store for the first time, was shown a pair of pajamas. "Glory be!" exclaimed the farmer. "What are the things for?" "They're worn at night," explained the clerk. "Like to buy a pair?"

"Me?" said the farmer. "What for? Only place I go at nights is to bed."

The happiest man in the advertising world today is an account executive at 51st and Madison. "I've just come from the Internal Revenue Bureau," he explains, "and I'm all paid up through 1942."

Two beautiful girls dallied at the rail on the top deck of a cruise ship. "It's exactly the way I pictured it," sighed one. "Salt spray, turquoise skies, exotic islands—and no men."

"My girls got the perfect system for keeping in shape," reports Ricky Nelson. "She never eats between meals."

"Hey, Sweetie, how'd you like a new Chevy?"

"The dealer's got just the model we want, Sweetie. Right color, right everything."

"In fact, he's got the biggest selection I ever saw. No problem at all to find what you want."

"It's got that V8 in it I've been talking about too. What an engine that is."

"And deal! Sweetie, wait'll I tell you the deal they've offered me. This is the time to buy all right."

"Well, don't just stand there, Freddie. Go ahead and buy it."
