Mathern-Ross Ceremony Held at Medford Church

Miss Judith Karen Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris G. Ross, 2432 Edgemont drive, became the bride of Jerry E. Mathern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mathern, 1070 Shafer lane, in a ceremony held March 5 at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring ceremony held at two o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Robert Sheldon played the organ wedding music. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus, palms and candelabras with lighted white tapers decorated the altar and church for the ceremony.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of Alencon lace styled on princess lines. The sweetheart neckline was re-bordered with iridescent sequins and her illusion veil, trimmed with seed pearls, fell from a lace and pearl bonnet. She wore pearl earrings belonging to her maternal grandmother, and a penny in her shoe. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations, hyacinths and a white orchid.

Mr. Ross gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Barbara Marshall, wearing a white lace ballerina dress over blue taffeta, was maid of honor. Mrs. Charles Rowan and Miss Karen Mathern, sister of the bridegroom, were also attendants. They wore blue ballerina-length taffeta frocks with pearl bandeaus and white veils. All carried cascade bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Richard Guches served as best man. Ushers were Edward Albright and Michael Travis. Candlelighter was Ralph Large. Mrs. Ross chose for her daughter's wedding an ivory brocade sheath dress with portrait collar and lavender accessories. Her corsage was a lavender orchid. Mrs. Mathern wore a blue sheath jacket dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church for 130 guests. Mrs. J. W. Phillips, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Larry Wright cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Agnes Ackerman and Mrs. Earl Tuttle presided at the punch bowls. Miss Leah Heath was in charge of the guest book. Miss Sharon Anderson passed packets of rice and Mrs. Richard Rankin was at the gift table.

The couple traveled to southern California on their wedding trip and will be at home at 603 North Bartlett avenue after March 14. For traveling the bride wore a moss green wool sheath dress with white and black accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a telephone operator for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Mr. Mathern is a graduate of Medford High school and is attending Southern Oregon college. He is employed by Piggly Wiggly Store.

Among the guests were Victor D. Howard, Portland, grandfather of the bride, and Mrs. Minnie Mathern, Medford, grandmother of the bridegroom. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Everett, Wash., aunt and uncle of the bride; Mrs. Larry Wright, Milwaukie, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tuttle, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hansen, Grants Pass, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruegger, Eagle Point.

Jean McGuire Married To Bernard L. Johnson

Miss Jean Annette McGuire became the bride of Bernard L. Johnson in a ceremony held March 5 at Zion Lutheran church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. W. G. McGuire, 909 West Fourth street. Mr. Johnson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Johnson, St. Paul, Minn.

The Rev. H. C. Covert officiated at the double ring ceremony held at three o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Ruth Covert played the organ wedding music. White stock and light blue iris decorated the altar for the event attended by 50 relatives and friends.

The bride wore an afternoon length sheath frock of powder blue brocade. The sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves were trimmed with seed pearls. An overskirt of white nylon printed with white velvet roses was tied with a velvet band which held a silver cross borrowed from Miss Hazel Jo Creel, one of the bridesmaids.

The bride's short veil was held by a crown of white daisies and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, blue corn flowers and lily of the valley. Her jewelry included an heirloom gold and pearl cross.

Earl W. Lock, White City, gave his niece in marriage. Mrs. Jack Miller, Talent, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Creel and Miss Marlene Miller. They wore white taffeta dresses with teal blue or pink polka dots with nylon chiffon overskirts of matching pattern. They carried bouquets of white carnations.

Jack Miller, Talent, served as best man and seating the guests were Ronald McGuire, brother of the bride, and Charles R. Driskell, Jacksonville.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McGuire chose a blue knitted suit with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ronfort represented the bridegroom's parents, and Mrs. Ronfort wore a navy blue suit with white and blue accessories. Both Mrs. McGuire and Mrs. Ronfort wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fireplace room of the church. Mrs. Roy Holbrook cut and served the cake assisted by Miss Geraldine Kay Fellows. Mrs. Earl W. Lock, aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Miss Lynn Creel presided at the punch bowl. Miss Alene Doran was in charge of the guest book.

The couple is at home at Culver Apartments, Wagner Creek road, Talent, and plan to move to St. Paul, Minn., next month. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed by Safeway Stores Inc. Mr. Johnson attended Ramsey High school in St. Paul and is a partner in the Johnson Brothers Decorating company.
