Carl Browers Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brower celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, March 6, with a family dinner and reception for their friends in Eagle Point. Mr. and Mrs. Brower were married in a home wedding at Eufaula, Okla., March 5, 1910. Mr. Brower farmed in Oklahoma before moving to California in 1934 where he continued his trade. He moved his family to the Eagle Point home where he was a dairyman until he retired last year.

Approximately 65 guests signed the guest book at the reception given for the Browers by their two daughters, Mrs. Frank Powell, Eagle Point, and Mrs. Milton George, Santa Maria, Calif. Guests called Sunday afternoon at the family home on Lorraine street.

Mrs. Brower received her guests wearing a two-piece navy and white silk jersey suit and wearing a carnation corsage sprayed with gold which was presented to her by her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Johnson and Miss Arlene George.

The living room was decorated with yellow daffodils, including several dozen given the Browers for the occasion. The refreshment table was centered with an anniversary cake baked and decorated in white and gold by Mrs. Ralph Burkhart. Gold candlesticks held gold colored candles.

Mrs. Frank Powell took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Milton George cut and served the cake. Mrs. Darrell Johnson poured the coffee and Miss Arlene George served the punch.

Gifts were placed on a table decorated with a gold money tree presented to the Browers by the family, and an old fashioned miniature gold pot filled with gold paper covered coins presented to them by the D. V. Rumseys of California.

The family dinner was served at the Brower home. Present were their daughters, Mrs. George, and Mrs. Powell, Mr. George, the couple's grandchildren Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Johnson and Miss Arlene George of Santa Maria, and a niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Rumsey, Crockett, Calif.

The family presented the Browers a set of china and a set of crystal.

Mother and Son To Visit France

Camp White—Mrs. Robert E. Kelley and son Allen at Camp White will leave March 20 for New York City where they will board the French liner Flanders for France. Mrs. Kelley and her son will spend five months visiting friends and relatives in Paris, on the French Riviera and in Mauriac, Catal, and Thimory, Loiret. Mrs. Kelley is a native of France and her marriage to Mr. Kelley took place in Paris.

While in Thimory, Allen will attend a French school and will resume his studies at St. Mary's school, Medford, in the fall.

The travelers will return to the United States on the Liberty the last of August.

Mr. Kelly is the chief social worker at the Domiciliary, Camp White.

Newlyweds Return From Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bottger have returned to Medford from their wedding trip in California. The couple was married March 3 at the First Christian church with the Rev. Glenn McKerron officiating.

Mrs. Milton Snow played the wedding music and accompanied Dr. Snow, soloist.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hastain, 1116 West Ninth street. Mr. Bottger's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bottger, Jacksonville.

The bride wore a ballerina length beige lace dress and carried a sheaf of red roses. She wore a short net head-dress.

Miss Emma Bottger, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. She wore a white and aquamarine print frock, made ballerina length, and carried white flowers. Her head-dress was of net.

Richard Bottger served as best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Martin Heitkamp cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Nancy King presided at the punch bowl. Miss Jean Williams poured coffee.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Hastain wore a blue paisley silk dress. Mrs. Bottger chose a navy blue dress. Their corsages were white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a pledge of Epsilon Sigma Alpha international sorority. She is employed by Commercial Finance corporation. Mr. Bottger completed school in California and served with the armed services in Germany for four years. He is employed by Kershaw orchards.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Dorothy Tockstein, Trail, and Nell R. Price, Eureka, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bride.
