

Reporter Suggest Elopement For Margaret and Mr. Jones

By CHINA ALTMAN
United Press International
London - (UPI) - If I were Princess Margaret, I'd elope. This is the kind of wedding day the poor girl faces: At about 8 a.m. May 6, possibly even earlier, her personal maid "Ruby" will awaken Margaret in her pink-decorated bedroom on the third floor of Clarence House.

Her wedding dress, which will have been delivered from the couturier early in the morning, while Margaret still slept, will be brought into the room, swathed in protective linen.

Soon her hairdresser will arrive. At 10:30 a.m. the Duke of Edinburgh will leave Buckingham Palace for the short drive from the mall to Clarence House.

At 11 Queen Elizabeth will leave the palace and the queen mother depart from Clarence House for the ceremonial drive to Westminster Abbey. To Use Poet's Door

At 11:15 a.m. Princess Margaret's bridegroom, Antony Armstrong-Jones, will enter the abbey by the poets corner door.

One minute later Princess Margaret and the duke will leave Clarence House, cheered and gawked at by an immense waiting crowd.

The bride and her princely escort will arrive at the abbey's west door about 11:28, two minutes before the service is to begin.

At 11:30 o'clock in an abbey jam-packed with highly-placed guests, Princess Margaret and the Duke of Edinburgh will begin the procession down the aisle, followed by her attendants.

The walk to the altar takes about two minutes. The entire ceremony will probably last about an hour and the bride and bridegroom will be standing most of that time.

Four Registers After the service, the royal couple must sign four registers in King Edward the Confessor's chapel behind the altar.

Then the princess, her veil now thrown back, will be escorted from the church by her husband. They will pause on the steps for photographs.

Next they climb into their own open carriage for a 20-minute circuitous drive through gaily-decked humanly-packed streets to the palace.

No rest for the bride even then, for now there will be the splendid reception in the white, gold and crimson state ballroom.

Still no respite, because for the queen's subjects one of the crowning moments of the day will be an appearance on the balcony of the palace by the bride and bridegroom to acknowledge the cheers of the people.

Then, and only then, the new Mrs. Jones may find a moment to relax, if she hasn't already collapsed.

Party Given Monday Night For Charm School Graduates

A graduation party for Girl Scouts who attended the recent charm school sponsored by the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council was held in McLoughlin Junior High school gymnasium March 14. It was sponsored by the program committee of the council.

The party climaxes the charm school, held every two years for the Intermediate Girl Scouts of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Girls from Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford and West Siskiyou districts attend.

It was required that the girls attending the party have attended all four sessions of the charm school, held from October 24 to February 27. During the sessions the girls were taught good grooming, posture, etiquette, care of their feet, good nutrition and given other information which helps teenagers to be more charming and to make friends. During the school the Scouts were able to cover some of the requirements for good grooming, health aid, homemaker, hospitality, personal health, nutrition and clothing badges.

About 150 girls attended the party and enjoyed an evening of games and singing. During the evening prizes were awarded to troops having the best and most original table settings in the contest held at the last session of the school. First prize went to Troop 125, Grants Pass, led by Mrs. Albert Smith; second to St. Mary's Troop 40, led by Mrs. George Davy; third prize to Troop 221, Hills, led by Mrs. Melvin Barron. Refreshments were served.

The gymnasium was decorated in the St. Patrick's day theme and the leaders wore white aprons with green shamrocks and headpieces made from paper dollies and green satin bows. Helping were Mrs. B. E. Culy, Mrs. Earl Igo, Mrs. C. F. Emery, Mrs. John Darby, Mrs. T. J. Morris, Mrs. Lorene Babcock, Mrs. Judson Compton, Mrs. Michael Morris, Mrs. Leon Evans and Mrs. Max Leischner. Mrs. A. Carrara was party chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Reter was co-chairman.

Mrs. Carrara arranged for some of the parents present to do the "hokey-pokey," delighting the Girl Scouts and drawing much applause. Flower arrangements of daffodils and green carnations for the tables were furnished by Mrs. G. W. Phetteplace.

Girl Scouts is a participating agency of the United Methodist Crusade of the Ashland-Talent United Fund and the Josephine County United Fund.

Roxy Ann Grange Plans Crab Feed

Roxy Ann Grange has announced the annual crab feed for Sunday, March 20, from 12:30 until 4:30 p.m. at the Grange hall. The public is invited to attend.

The crab is brought from Crescent City by R. J. Richey, Cecil Hall, Kenneth Nolte, Paul Dalton and Dalvin Dalton, and is cooked at the Grange. It is stated that crab not used for the dinner will be sold.

Proceeds from the event will be used to improve the recreation on the Grange lot, which will be for public use.

Hornbrook Grange Plans Card Party

Next in the series of card parties sponsored by the Hornbrook Grange will be held Saturday, March 19, at 8 p.m. at the Grange hall. Pinochle and whist are played, and prizes awarded. Lunch will be served.

Frank Ward is master of the Grange, and Mrs. Frank Bear is general chairman of the card parties.

Chairmen Announced For Show

Central Point - Mrs. R. D. Kay, general chairman, announced committee heads for the June flower show, at a meeting of Central Point Garden club March 2 at the home of Mrs. L. C. Gorden, Freeman road.

The chairmen are Mrs. Charles Jantzer, staging; Mrs. L. C. Gorden, schedule; Mrs. Arnold Bohmert, judges; Mrs. Homer Jeffries, luncheon; Mrs. Donald Faber, entries; Mrs. Robert Schmidt, publicity; Mrs. John Holmer, special horticulture; Mrs. Joe Huffine, tea; Mrs. Bert Elliott and Mrs. Wallace West, classification; Mrs. Steve Benston and Mrs. Everett Young, placement; Mrs. Francis Russel, hospitality; Mrs. Clem Ault, conservation; and Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, Junior entries.

The meeting began with a dessert luncheon. Hostesses were Mrs. Steve Benston, Mrs. Luther Day and Mrs. Francis Russel.

During the program, a corsage demonstration was given by Mrs. Benston. Mrs. Charles Jantzer gave a demonstration on the vertical line as it is used in flower arrangements.

Mrs. Byron Griffith became a new member. Guests were Mrs. Eugene Ferrell and Mrs. Kurt Hopkins. Mrs. Ferrell attended the meeting with Mrs. John Holmer and Mrs. Hopkins attended with Mrs. Eugene Orr.

Plans were discussed concerning the seed flat planting program which was given March 7 at the Central Point library. It was mentioned that many new books on gardening and flowers are available at the library. Each Monday afternoon, a member of the Central Point Garden club is present at the library to help or advise anyone with garden problems. Seed catalogues are in the garden center of the library.

Mrs. Robert Schmidt announced that the Central Point Garden club will hold a plant sale the last week in March. The month of April will be a busy one for the club. Plans include an all-day meeting on April 6 at the home of Mrs. John Holmer. This will be an arrangement workshop under the direction of Mrs. Gaston Floux.

During the first week in April, the Garden club will assist with a tea for open house at the new Central Point library. There will also be an April excursion in wild flower study, with the date being announced later.

Members also decorated a table for the Girl Scouts calendar tea held in Medford at the Red Cross Auditorium March 11. The Central Point Garden club will decorate the July table. The winner of the blue hyacinth plant was Mrs. Gorden. The plant was contributed by the Berrydale Flower Farm.

Michigan Visitor Guest of Sister; Teacher at Meeting

Hornbrook - A guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills is Mrs. Mill's brother, Albert D. Ayotte of Filion, Mich. He plans to remain about two weeks. Mrs. Mills and her brother had not seen each other for 39 years.

Mrs. Irene Swanson, Hamilton, Mont., and her son Ronald were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Hamner. Mrs. Swanson is an aunt of Mrs. Hamner, and was enroute home with her son from Chicago where he had recently received his discharge from the United States Air Force.

Mrs. Ruth Cummins attended a luncheon and business meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, national teaching sorority, at the Travelers Hotel in Dunsmuir on March 12. Tom Seed of Dunsmuir, a foreign exchange student to England, last year showed colored slides of the country and gave a running commentary.

Also returning to his home here was the Miller's son, Mark E. Miller, who was honorably discharged from the Navy recently due to a physical disability. He plans to go to Sunnyvale soon to be with his sister.

Officers Elected By Auxiliary

Shady Cove - Mrs. Reed McKay, Trail, was elected president of the auxiliary to Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the March 4 meeting.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Norman Bandy, senior vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Merit, junior vice-president; Mrs. Agnes Hubbell, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Cassel, chaplain; Mrs. Harry Birch, conductor; Mrs. Edward Leaming, guard; Mrs. Kenneth Oliver, three-year trustee; and Mrs. Philip Holt, Mrs. Vernon House, Mrs. Dan Krotz and Mrs. Dale Sawyer, color bearers; Mrs. Bela Molnar, secretary; and Mrs. Eve Prentice, musician.

Mrs. House, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Molnar were elected delegate to the district meeting at Rogue River May 15.

The auxiliary received a card from Mrs. Prentice, who is traveling in Central America.

Mrs. House announced that the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Shady Cove April 19 and the cancer fund drive also will be in April.

The auxiliary received a certificate of recognition from the Veterans Administration for members' work at the Camp White domiciliary.

Mrs. Merit reported the Valentine day distribution of 87 packages of candy and handkerchiefs to senior citizens at various rest homes.

It was reported that Mr. and Mrs. John Walker arrived here recently due to the illness of Mr. Walker's mother.

Men of the post will serve dinner to the auxiliary March 19 at 7:30 p.m. as the result of the post's losing a membership contest.

Auxiliary officers have called a special meeting for March 22 at 2 p.m. to clean the hall.

Foreign Student Speaks for Group

Miss Theresa Inglin, exchange student from Switzerland, was a guest for the last meeting of the Medford Lions auxiliary, held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Endersby.

Mrs. Tony Capello, program chairman presented Miss Inglin. She spoke of some of the differences between her school and Medford High school. Miss Inglin mentioned some of the new foods she has been enjoying during her stay here.

Plans were made for a twenty-fifth anniversary dinner to be held in May.

Mrs. Harvey Endersby, ways and means chairman, announced that the spring rummage sale would be held April 9 at the Fehl building.

Another guest for the evening was Mrs. Sharon Hawk. Refreshments were served by the assisting hostesses Mrs. James Dziarmaga and Mrs. Michael Beck.

Club Announces New Members

Four new members, Mrs. Blanche Motschenbacher, Clarence Pankey, Boyd C. Kline and his son, Curtis, were accepted by Southern Oregon Stamp club at the last meeting. It was held at Girls Community club.

A post office department film on the St. Lawrence seaway stamp, showing the designing, printing and preparation for issuing the stamp, as well as the final distribution, proved of interest to the club.

The film was shown by Jim Scheffel and Russell Herbert. "Stamp swapping" and refreshments concluded the evening.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Powell and daughter, and Mrs. Barbara Lowe and Mrs. L. F. Trafren, Ashland.

Mr. Herbert, program chairman, announced that another post office department film, "Mail Call", has been promised for showing at a meeting April 7. The film depicts the process of sending mail to those in the armed services.

Synthetic detergents are defined by the United States Bureau of Standards as "cleansing agents produced by organic synthesis."

Resuscitation Film Shown for Group

A film on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation was shown at the last meeting of Wilson Park Home Extension unit, held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Turner. Mrs. David Shaffer was co-hostess.

The film was provided by the safety department of The California Oregon Power company.

During the unit's business meeting, Mrs. Shaffer, chairman, appointed the nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Bruce Bateman, Mrs. John Niles and Mrs. Edward Albright.

Mrs. Ronald White was appointed May festival chairman.

The program planning leader, Mrs. Lloyd Turner, and Mrs. Verner McCall, observer, had the group vote on projects for next year. From the many suggestions, the five final choices were cake decorating, personalized hair styles, sea food cookery, flower arranging and the study of styles and fabrics suitable for the various figure types.

Upholstering and hat making are the workshops the unit would prefer.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Blair, 507 Fairmont street.
