

Valley Students Named to Office

Corvallis — Miss Salley J. Eiden, Central Point, and Miss Ailene D. Weber, Medford, have been elected officers in their living groups at Oregon State college.

Miss Eiden, a junior in education, will be president of Alpha Phi, one of 17 sororities on the OSC campus. Miss Weber, a sophomore in home economics, will be treasurer of Sigma Kappa.

Woman Arrives For Visit Here

Mrs. Ross Groshon, Griswold, Iowa, arrived in Medford Wednesday evening from Santa Barbara, Calif., to visit at the home of Mrs. Fred Rankin, 18 Richmond avenue.

Mrs. Groshon, who has been spending the winter visiting friends and relatives in Santa Ana, Glendale and Santa Barbara, was a college roommate of Mrs. Rankin at Rockford College for Women in Illinois, and has often been a guest at her former home in Omaha and Blair, Neb. This is the visitor's first visit to Oregon.

Director Announces Cast For High School Musical

Lynn Sjolund, director of the Medford High school choir, has announced the cast for the production "Oklahoma" which will be presented April 21-23 at the school.

Double cast in the role of Curly, the hero of the play will be John Frohnmayer and Calvin Dean. John Frohnmayer will be playing his third lead in as many years in Medford High school operettas.

The feminine lead role of Laurey is also double cast, with Janet Myhre and Barbara Tyler sharing the honors.

Ado Annie the comedienne, will be played on alternate nights by Sara Hinkle and Linda Samuelson. Jim Lacy will appear opposite Annie, as Will.

Other featured roles will include Rosiland Randles as Aunt Eller; Keith Berg as Jud; and Kenneth Hall as Ali Hakim, the Persian peddler. Ike Skidmore, owner of the ranch where Curly works, will be portrayed by Wally Huffman. The role of Ado Annie's father, Andrew Carnes, will be played by Joel Gregory.

The sheriff, Cord Elam, will feature Dave Lundquist, Kathy Allen and play Gertie, the other woman in Curly's life. Cowboys Fred and Slim will be Bill Rupp and Ralph Lobdell.

Supporting roles will include Ellen, Sharon Smith; Fay, Christine Hillstead; Virginia, Julie Gandt; Vivienne, Diane Hunter; and ranch hands, Jim Henson, Art House and Mike Gardner.

All leading roles except those which have been double cast will have understudies. Students cast for this include Charlene Highland, Ralph Lobdell, Wally Huffman, Bill Rupp, Lynn Knight and Lucille Lowry.

The musical will go into full rehearsal next week. Ticket sales begin on April 4.

Newlyweds Live in Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen Spry left for Piqua, Ohio, to make their home following their wedding Saturday, March 12, in Ascension Lutheran church.

The bride is the former Beverly Mae Bristow, daughter of Mrs. A. C. Phelan, 921 North Central avenue, and D. A. Bristow, Drain. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Spry, Piqua.

The Rev. Elvin S. Tolletson performed their wedding at 1 o'clock in the afternoon before a small number of friends and relatives.

The bride wore a light blue frock. Her flowers were white and red roses. Miss Jeannine Mae, Rogue River, the bridesmaid, wore a pale pink dress with white roses. Ron Kaer was best man.

Mrs. Phelan was hostess for a reception which followed at the Phelan home.

The bride was graduated from Eagle Point High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Piqua Central High school. She has been employed by Van Lee's store.

The afternoon of light popular music, under Director Richard D. Werner, is sponsored by the society to further the goal of $8,500 which the Pioneer Sites Foundation has set for restoration of the old hotel in Jacksonville.

The public is invited to the concert. It will begin at 3 p.m.

Committee Heads Invitations Out Announced For Annual Luncheon

Committees have been announced for the traditional Easter Monday luncheon sponsored by St. Anne's Altar society of Sacred Heart Catholic church.

The event will be held April 18 at Rogue Valley Country club beginning with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. Bridge, pinocle, canasta and other card games will be played.

Mrs. William Cowning and Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti are co-chairmen. Mrs. John Jensen will be in charge of decorations; Mrs. Dan Hull, score pads; Mrs. Joseph Moore, tallies; Mrs. Raymond Wise, individual centerpieces; Mrs. Laurence Espey, prizes; Mrs. R. A. Naumes, supplies; Mrs. Richard Rementeria, tickets; Mrs. Edward Nave, hostesses; and Mrs. J. J. Finegan, publicity.

The luncheon is open to the public and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Walch, SPring 3-3056.

Guest Day Thursday

Medford Sojourners club will have their semi-annual guest day meeting at 12:30 Thursday, March 24, at the Girls Community club. The program will consist of a fashion review and card playing.

Reservations for the dessert party should be made not later than Tuesday, March 22 by calling Mrs. Fred Cate, SPring 3-3485; Mrs. John Westlund, SPring 3-3554 or Mrs. Eugene Ingram, SPring 3-4037.

All women who are newcomers to Medford and vicinity are cordially invited to attend and become members.

Luncheon Given At Davis Home

Mrs. L. C. Davis gave a luncheon at her home, 909 King street, Tuesday afternoon to honor her two sisters. They are Mrs. Ethel Couch and Mrs. Daisy Clapp, both of Bismark, N.D.

The decorations and menu were in the St. Patrick's day theme.

Mrs. Couch and Mrs. Clapp, who have been guests here since the holidays, will leave for Portland and their home the latter part of this week.

Club Convention To Be Thursday

Mrs. Hildred M. Zell, Wasco, Ore., will be guest speaker for a convention of the First District, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, to be held in Medford March 24. Mrs. Zell is a past president of the Oregon Federation and chairman of the disarmament division, International Affairs department, of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Convention sessions will be held in First Methodist church, West Main and Laurel streets.

Mrs. Zell has served on the board of the General Federation since 1950 and is also chairman of the board of trustees of the scholarship loan and fellowship fund of the Oregon Federation.

Mrs. Walter Brown, Klamath Falls, Oregon Federation president, will also attend the convention and speak. Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, Ashland, First District president, states that registration will begin at 9 a.m.

Medford Junior Women's club and Travel Study club members will be chairman and co-chairman for the event. They will have a coffee hour from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. for all the clubs in the First District, which consists of Curry, Klamath, Josephine and Jackson counties.

The morning session is planned from 10 a.m. to noon. There will be a president's panel discussion, international Affairs panel, and election of officers, at the morning session. Luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m.

The afternoon session will start at 1:30 p.m. A Vogue fashion show will be directed by the Junior club. Judges will choose the best piece of clothing and it will be entered in state competition.

Mrs. Zell will speak on "The East and West Meet." Mrs. Zell went on the General Federation of Women's International clubs convention tour last summer, when they visited the Philippines and Japan.

Following this will be installation of District officers. Mrs. Brown will be installing officer.

Mrs. Peterson reminds all members of the District clubs to attend the business session in the morning, and added that women who do not belong to federated clubs are invited to the luncheon and the afternoon session.

Those planning to attend the
