

The Family Council

Editor's Note: The Family Council consists of a Judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual case history. The Council reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Lillian S.—He doesn't pay attention to me.
Victor S.—I won't be tied to a woman's apron strings.

Lillian S.—My husband and I are in our early 20s and have been married less than a year. I want to make a go of my marriage, but I'm afraid I've gotten off to a poor start.

We quarrel quite a bit. Perhaps I should say I quarrel because Vic just keeps quiet no matter what I say to him. Sometimes I say awful things which I later regret. At times I've called him the worst names, but he just clams up. Yet the thing that provoked me will be done over and over. He just doesn't pay any attention to me.

I realize I have a bad temper. I'm hard to live with, but Vic doesn't realize that he is also hard to get along with.

Victor S.—I've tried to be patient with Lillian, hoping her violent spells will wear off as she becomes more adjusted to married life. I've hoped that she would mature enough to realize that screaming and bawling will only intensify our problems, not make them better. However, patience hasn't helped and I don't know what will.

As Lillian admits she is

Dick Haymes Files Bankruptcy Papers

New York—(UPI)—Singer Dick Haymes has reached the point of no return. Every time he gets a job, his creditors descend on him and gobble up his pay check.

Haymes, 41, filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in federal court Thursday. He said he had $9 in the bank and owed $22,242.

He said he had 200 creditors, including two ex-wives, and only $3,493 in assets. Haymes' debts include a $20,000 loan to former wife Joanne Dru, $11,000 to former wife Nora Eddington, $83,750 to United Artists, $50,000 to Columbia Pictures, $47,000 to the U.S. government and $7,500 to New York and California.

Part of his debts stemmed from his much publicized marriage to actress Rita Hayworth, although she wasn't mentioned in his petition, his attorney said.

Haymes married a fourth time in 1958 to singer Frances Ann Makris, then 21.

HEADS DELEGATION

Warsaw, Poland—(UPI)—Vice Premier Piotr Jarosiewicz will lead a Polish delegation to the United States on a U.S.-sponsored get acquainted visit this week. The group will arrive in New York Thursday and spend two weeks sight-seeing and visiting industrial centers including Detroit automobile factories.
