

LOCAL CONTENDER—Velvet, a Labrador, shown with owner, Dr. Charles Versteeg, Cave Junction, is the top local contender for open stake honors in the Rogue Valley Retriever club's annual licensed trial on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 25, 26 and 27. The event will be held in the Camp White area, with most series likely on game commission management area land. Amateur, derby and qualifying stakes are slated in addition to the open. Velvet has taken the open stake in each of the picnic trials conducted by Rogue Valley Retriever club this year.

Hirsch Named Ram Manager

Los Angeles — (UPI) — When the Los Angeles Rams football team steps into the Coliseum later this year for its first home game it's going to seem like old home week to the fans.

For there on the bench will be ex-Ram Coach Hamp Pool and beside him two of the greatest Ram players, Bob Waterfield and Elroy (Crazy-Legs) Hirsch.

Hirsch Tuesday returned to the fold as a non-playing general manager under terms of a three-year contract, details of which were not disclosed.

Pool recently agreed to serve as his onetime star quarterback's offensive assistant after Waterfield replaced Sid Gillman — who replaced Pool — as head coach of the Rams.

MH Tennis Team Eyes Starters

Tennis players of Medford high begin their 1960 season this week end.

The Tornado netmen travel to Yreka, Calif., on Friday and meet Roseburg high here on Saturday.

Lettermen on Coach Bob Huff's squad are Gary Cummings, John Shaw, Dave Ryn, Henry Olson and Jim Randles, Olson, a basketball player, has just turned out.

Cummings, Shaw and Dave Ryn appear ticketed for the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 singles jobs in that order with Randles and John McKinley battling for fourth and fifth spots for the opening tussles. Another who may see service during the campaign is Art House.

Medford tied Klamath Falls last year for the Southern Oregon conference team title.

Hound Trial On Sunday

Rogue Valley Field Trialers will conduct their second trial hound trial of the season Sunday.

The event again will be off Old Stage rd. about a half-mile north of Jacksonville with entries in green, junior and senior dog divisions.

Opening contention is set for 9 a.m. Finals will be in the afternoon.

Some of Oregon's best hounds will be entered. On the basis of competition last week end at Coos Bay these top entrants in the senior division will include Oscar, a plot, owned by William Lasey, Hillsboro; Black Panther, a whippet, owned by Cecil Shaw, North Bend; Shasta, a red bone, owned by Tim Horn, Jacksonville; Gold Tone, a red bone, owned by Fred Mitchell, Coos Bay; and Snooper, a black and tan, owned by Duane Bowling, Winston.

Leading junior dogs and their breeds and owners are Buddy, a walker, Bob Morgan, Jacksonville; Fireball, a black and tan, Bob Arnold, North Bend; Queen, a walker, Bud Ryan, McKinley; Toughie, a black and tan, Carl Bergman, Rogue River.

In the green division top dogs in the state which will be run include Buckaroo, black and tan, Dan Wallace; Slim Jim, red bone, Curt Tessman, Medford; and Red Drag, red bone, Gene Garrett, Independence.

McIntire Wins Links Mantle

Pinehurst, N.C.—(UPI)—National woman's amateur tileholder Barbara McIntire has added the 58th annual North and South amateur golf championship to her growing list of victories.

Miss McIntire, from Lake Park, Fla., carved out an easy 5 and 4 triumph over Joanne Goodwin Tuesday in the final at the Pinehurst Country club.

Bomb Call Leads To Search of Train

Wenatchee, Wash.—(UPI)—A Great Northern freight train was tied up for two hours Tuesday while a search was made for explosives reported somewhere aboard.

An unidentified person called the railway at Wenatchee and warned of an explosive having been placed in a Great Northern train in the Cascades.

GN's only train in the area was the freight bound for Seattle. It was stopped at Scenic at the west end of the eight-mile Cascade Tunnel and a thorough search was carried out. No trace of any explosive was found.

Area Residents Attend Meeting

Twenty-four members of the Una B. Inch chapter and the Medford chapter of the Oregon School Food Service association traveled to Portland last week for a two-day association state convention.

The program included a bread baking demonstration by L. H. Bates, Salt Lake City, Utah and "Lessons in Living" by Mrs. Elena Zelayeta, San Francisco, author and lecturer.

Mrs. Virginia Wait, supervisor of the Medford school lunch program, took part in the program. Mrs. Faye Ross, Shady Cove, served as state secretary the past year, and Mrs. Arlee Ragsdale, Trail, was installed as the new treasurer.

The 1961 conference is to be held in Medford.

Ragan Shines In Pro-Amateur

Sarasota, Fla.—(UPI)—Golf's touring professionals move here for the DeSoto open today, hoping that Dave Ragan has cooled off from a birdie binge that fired him to a double win in the Seminole program at Palm Beach Tuesday.

The former University of Florida star, now playing out of Orlando, scooped up $1,700 in prize money in the pro-am.

He was low professional with a four-under-par 68, two strokes better than Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., and he teamed with amateur Harry Hurt, Houston, Texas, oilman, for a best-ball 63 that tied them with two other teams for low score in the program team competition.

The Ragan-Hurt score was matched by the teams of pro Gardner Dickinson Jr. and amateur Bing Crosby, and pro Tommy Jacobs and amateur Woolworth Donahue, New York financier.

Dallas, Tex.—(UPI)—Maybe they mean sign language. A notice in a small restaurant near Lake Lavon warns its customers, "No cursing aloud."

Kennedy To Speak At Mock Conclave

Salem—(UPI)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) will address the mock Democratic national convention here April 22-23 at Willamette University.

The Democratic presidential candidate will make other appearances in the April Oregon visit but spokesmen said the schedule has not been completed.

Oregon Democratic Party Chairman Robert W. Straub will keynote the mock convention, which will draw students from a dozen Oregon colleges.

Ex-Jacksonville Resident Dies

Astoria —(UPI)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for Mrs. Sue Applegate Sutherland, a granddaughter of Oregon pioneer Jesse Applegate. Mrs. Sutherland, born in Drain in 1879, died Monday. She lived in Jacksonville and other southwest Oregon communities until 15 years ago when she came to live with a daughter in Knappa following her husband's death.

Berserk Gunman Kills Two Airmen

Hamilton, Bermuda — (UPI) — Two U.S. airmen were killed and a third wounded when an air policeman went berserk Tuesday night and sprayed the U.S. Kindley Air Force Base police headquarters with submachine gun fire before being overpowered.

The berserk airman was identified as Air Policeman William M. Cook of the Bronx, New York. He was being held at base hospital for observation.

The dead airmen were identified as M. Sgt. Irvy N. McNeill, Jemison, Ala., and S. Sgt. Dino P. Martelli, Ardmore, Okla.

S. Sgt. George N. Baxter was wounded in the leg.
