

Annual Easter Observance Set

Seven southern Oregon Bethels of Job's Daughters and three chapters of the Order of De Molay will observe Easter with the Knights Templar of the valley Sunday afternoon, April 3, at 2 p.m. in the Medford Masonic temple.

Members of Bethels of Medford, Ashland, Central Point, Grants Pass, Kerby and Shady Cove and De Molay members from Ashland, Central Point and Medford will take part.

The annual observance also is open to all others who wish to attend. One hundred and eight young people and Knights in robes will form a cross and a 40-girl choir will sing.

Two local ministers will speak and a number of musical numbers will be presented.

Miss Twila Kendal Guest of Parents

Gold Hill—Miss Twila Kendal, teacher in the Salem school system was a recent guest of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Kendal.

Gilchrist Club Honors Former Medford Woman

A former Medford woman, Mrs. David Fredrickson, was recently named "Woman of the Year" by the Gilchrist Quota club. Announcement of her selection was made at a dinner held recently by the women's club.

Mrs. Fredrickson, who has resided in the isolated community for seven years, was credited with volunteer services to health and welfare committees of the Parent-Teacher association, to immunization clinics and other related projects. She is a registered nurse and has been called on for help in local emergencies.

The former Medford resident also publishes and distributes a small community newspaper, which is mimeographed with the help of her family.

Mr. Fredrickson is a state policeman.

Guest speaker at the dinner honoring the "Woman of the Year" was Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford Public Schools. His topic was "A Visit Behind the Iron Curtain."

Student Given Sorority Office

Miss Judy Lobdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lobdell, 1007 Murray avenue, Medford, a junior at the University of Oregon was recently re-elected treasurer of Delta Zeta sorority. Miss Lobdell is majoring in science education.

Breeze-Blickenstaff Rites Held

An event of Sunday, March 20, was the wedding of Miss Sharon L. Blickenstaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale M. Blickenstaff, 21 South Orange street, and Wayne H. Breeze, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Breeze, 921 Murray street.

The ceremony was held at First Methodist church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. George G. Roseberry officiating. More than 325 relatives and guests attended the double ring rites. Mr. Blickenstaff gave his daughter in marriage.

Spring flowers with yellow and green accents decorated the church. Mrs. C. R. Adamson played the organ wedding music and Miss Coleen Barr was soloist.

The bride wore a floor-length white slipper satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. A floating panel in front was accented at the hemline by a large bow. Her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl and lace headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias. She was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Virgil Blickenstaff, Blue Lake, Calif.

Miss Caron Leffler was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Breeze, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Barbara Marshall, Miss Dewanda Winchell and Miss Coleen Barr. Little Karen Wonderly served as flower girl.

Miss Leffler and the flower girl wore jade green frocks with white lace jackets. The bridesmaids' dresses were yellow with white lace jackets. They carried nosegay bouquets.

Reginald Breeze served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Paine, Ft. Jones, Calif., Robert Glover, Richard Glover, Richard Clark, and Charles Robertson. Paul McMahan was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed Mrs. Blickenstaff chose a blue faille dress with white accessories. Mrs. Breeze wore a black sheath dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were white roses.

Mrs. Joe H. Gregory and Mrs. Melyn Harvey cut and served the wedding cake at the reception held at the church. Mrs. Virgil Blickenstaff, Blue Lake, Calif., and Mrs. Wayne Davison, Klamath Falls, aunts of the bride, poured coffee, and Mrs. Alexander Diepenbrock and Mrs. Harold Koehler, presided at the punch bowls. Miss Karen Paschke and Mrs. Errol Tresham were at the gift tables and Mrs. Richard McLaughlin was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the newlyweds traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip. The bride wore a brown print suit dress with beige jacket and brown and beige accessories for traveling. They are making their home at 1222 West Main street, apartment 1, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a student at Medford Beauty school. Mr. Breeze attended Medford High school and is a junior at Southern Oregon college.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were relatives of the bride. They included Mrs. Clara Kerr and Mrs. Maud Ball, Eugene, great aunts; Wayne Davison, Klamath Falls, uncle; and Gary Blickenstaff, Blue Lake, Calif., cousin.

Others included Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hoppas and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Plotts, Calvin Burns, all Eugene, and Mrs. Kathrine Hoegel, Portland.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a number of events. They included those given by Mrs. Kenneth Wonderly, 734 Palm street and Mrs. Harold Koehler, 3543 Table Rock road, Central Point; and Miss Caron Leffler, 101 Chestnut street.

Guild to Hold Guest Night

A guest night meeting is planned by St. Catherine's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church Monday, March 28, at 8 p.m. in the parish house.

Mrs. Ralph Mathews and Mrs. Robert Wilcox are in charge of arrangements for the evening. Friends, interested persons and inactive members are invited to attend.

A social evening is planned and the Rev. George R. V. Bolster will give a brief talk on the implications of the Lenten season.

Mrs. Robert Dames will speak on the activities of the church which might be of special interest to the women attending, such as the Junior Church school and St. Mark's Altar guild.

Co-hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Mark Taylor, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. William Herman and Mrs. Tom Bolton.

State Director To Visit Group

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, Heppner, national committee-woman and state director for the Degree of Honor Protective association will be an honored guest of the local lodge Monday at 8 p.m. at Girls Community club.

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Ted Taylor and family, Elkton, Ore., were guests of his nephews, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Taylor, last week end.

Couple Returns From Tour of South America

Ending a six weeks' tour of South and Central American countries and Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil House returned to their home at 2 White Oak drive last week. Mr. and Mrs. House were in Rio de Janeiro at the time of President Eisenhower's visit there, and saw the President as he was escorted through the city's streets and welcomed.

The Houses enjoyed being in Rio de Janeiro at the time of the annual fall carnival which was in progress during their stay. They also visited in Port Legra in Brazil before continuing to Buenos Aires in Argentina.

The travelers also spent some time at the famous vacation spot of Bariloche in Argentina and were registered at the Chow Chow hotel where the President had stayed. A series of lakes mark the countryside in this part of Argentina and Mr. and Mrs. House traveled across three lakes by boat and launch to reach Puerto Varas, Chile.

The trip from Puerto Varas to Santiago was by train, the travelers spent some time in Lima, and also made stops in Colombia and Ecuador. They traveled to Mexico City by way of Costa Rica, and also visited the popular Mexican resort of Acapulco.

Mr. House, who is associated with a group of Medford and Eugene men in a timber-buying venture, purchased a tract of Parana pine white in South America. The Parana pine is similar to the ponderosa pine of Oregon, but produces a higher grade lumber, it is said. Herbert Robbins of Eugene accompanied Mr. and Mrs. House to Brazil and Argentina.
