

Hatfield Said to Have Bill Ready

Portland—UPI—Dean Ellis, chairman of Oregon's Tax commission, says Gov. Mark Hatfield will propose a "net receipts" income tax bill to the next Legislature as a key to his program.

Ellis said the measure would be similar to but not exactly the same bill which failed to pass last year.

He told the Portland Presidents council the plan looks to a broadening of the base but no overall increase in monetary return from the net receipts plan. However, rates could be adjusted, he said, if additional revenue became necessary.

The measure, Ellis said, would provide a flat one per cent levy against the first $2,000 of net income, two per cent from $2,000 to $4,000, three per cent from $4,000 to $6,000, four per cent from $6,000 to $8,000, five per cent from $8,000 to $15,000 and 6 per cent above $15,000.

He said that for salaried persons the gross income in most cases would be the net income. On this basis, a salary of $10,000 would result in an income tax of about $300.

Ellis said the plan would do everything a sales tax would do.

Company Files for New Rate Schedule

Portland—UPI—Pacific Power & Light company said Saturday it has filed with the public utility commissioner its new electric rate schedule.

The PUC recently allowed PP&L and Portland General Electric part of a requested rate hike. PGE filed its new schedule earlier. The filing means the increase can go into effect at once.

WILDFLOWERS — Mrs. Dick Daniels (above) of Central Point, holds a bouquet of lamb tongues, red bells and cow slips that she and her family picked in the Applegate area Friday. Wildflowers in southern Oregon, like the fruit blossoms, seemed to burst into bloom with the recent period of warm weather. According to some wildflower "experts," the red bells are weeks ahead of normal.

Three Vehicles Involved in Crash

Central Point — No injuries resulted from an auto accident about 8:35 a. m. today involving a school bus, a logging truck and a passenger car, all southbound at Highway 99 and Hazel st., Central Point police reported.

Police said that the bus operated by Henry Paulson, Gold Hill, had slowed to make a turn from the left turn lane. An unidentified driver stopped in the lane next to the bus. Then, Ernest E. Peyton, Gold Hill, in another car, braked to avoid hitting the stopped vehicle, it was reported. However, the left rear fender of the Peyton car struck the rear bumper of the school bus.

Elmer Baker, Rogue River, operating the logging truck, belonging to Elmer Milton, Rogue River, in the right lane, tried to stop to prevent the collision, but the Peyton car bounced off the school bus and under the rear wheels of the loaded truck.

There was minor damage to the bus but none to the logging truck. The Peyton car was considerably damaged, police said.

Portland — UPI — Helen Graham Douglas, former congresswoman from California will be keynote speaker at a statewide Democratic Women for World Peace Conclave May 12-13.
