

NFL Owners Meet Today

Chicago — (UPI) — National Football League owners meet today for the third time this winter to seek agreement upon 1960 pre-season schedules, perhaps a league schedule, and assignment of territories for television.

It was likely, however, that only the exhibition program would be determined finally, although some agreement might be reached on regional TV, too.

However, when the late Bert Bell was commissioner of the league, the owners rarely could adopt a regular season schedule and he usually took over the task and presented them with a complete program.

Thus new commissioner Pete Rozelle probably will be in the same position at the end of this session.

Tornado Encounters Ashland Wednesday

Medford High's baseball squad, which whetted its appetite with a doubleheader win over Roseburg last week end, really plunges into its schedule this week.

Weather permitting, the Black Tornado will have six games. Ashland is here for a non-league brush at 4 p.m. Wednesday. On Friday Medford launches its Southern Oregon conference defense as host to Crater. First game of the doublebill will count in the standings.

A two-game stand is billed at Roseburg on Saturday.

The Tornado is hopeful for dry weather so that its diamond will be playable on Wednesday. Coach John Kovenz reported that sunshine is not necessary so long as no rain falls. The infield was too sloppy for work yesterday. However, the Tornado still managed a good workout, according to the mentor.

As of last night Kovenz had not given much thought concerning his starting pitcher assignment. He said, however, that Bob Quinney might get the call and that Herb Wheeler may throw some.

There was some question on whether Cal Dean would be able to handle his regular shortstop spot Wednesday. He suffered a bad blister from new shoes and missed practice last night. Dick Ragsdale or Ray Stewart may get the call.

Lowell Dean is expected to be at first base, Ray Konopasek at second and Ken Durkac at third with Ken Jensen catching. Jerry Anderson could be in centerfield with Wayne Thompson taking the spot if Andy pitches. Mike Parsons may play in right and possibly Ragsdale or Ken Adams in left.

Bob Jones Paces Golf Qualifying

Bobby Jones, namesake of one of the great linksmen of all time, topped the Medford High school golf squad in its qualifying play which began Friday and concluded on Monday.

Jones had a 78-80-158 card for the 36-hole test.

Three players were only one stroke behind. They were Mike Monroe 78-81-159, Larry Brown 79-80-159 and Jack Joyce 76-83-159. Joyce had the best single round with his 76.

John Hamlin, whose score was bolstered by a hole-in-one Saturday on the par three No. 15 green, was fifth in qualifying with 83-81-164.

Five To Travel
The top five go to Roseburg on Friday and to Coos Bay (Marshfield) on Saturday for matches.

Other scores included Pat Dunlevy 82-83-165; John Frohnmayer 82-85-167; Steve Cummins 82-85-167; Darrell Miller 83-84-169; Harold Holmes 83-86-169; Craig Miller 86-88-174; Vaughn Eigelow 88-87-175; Jerry Gastineau 89-89-178; Stan Dowson 95-84-179; Jack Richardson 89-94-183; Keith Ward 102-102-204.

Charles Alien and Ken Johnson were not able to play their last nine holes last night but are not expected to unsuit the leaders.

Hawks Face Celts Again In Playoff

Boston — (UPI) — The Boston Celtics, modern super-stars of the National Basketball Association, hope to build an insurmountable lead over the St. Louis Hawks in the second of their best-of-seven series tonight.

The Celtics, champions of the East and heavy favorites to their third playoff title in four years, crushed the hapless Hawks by record-breaking proportion in their Sunday opener and shoot tonight for the second of a possible four-game sweep.

A Boston playoff crown would mark the first time in six seasons that an NBA titlist has defended successfully. And the Celtics were meeting a western enemy from St. Louis that upset the earlier Boston bid for a double crown in 1958.

The strategy of wily Red Auerbach, who has survived more NBA firings than any other coach active in the business, apparently was far too much for the Western Division champs who went down to 140-122 defeat in the opener.

Nine scoring records, most of them pinned to Boston's point spree, fell in the opener as four of the Celtics, Tomny Heinsohn, Frank Ramsey, Bill Sharman and Bob Cousy, netted 20 points or better.

The Celtics, who earlier described the first game as key to the series, unified in the new belief that the second game would be the crucial point. The teams move to St. Louis for games Saturday and Sunday but the remaining matches have not been scheduled on the possibility the series will end in four meetings.

Jones Wins By Decision

New York — (UPI) — Unbeaten, unranked light-heavyweight Doug Jones has licked the No. 13 "jinx" and now his next target is the experienced Willie Pastrano in a televised bout at Miami, Fla., on April 22.

Jones qualified for the bout with his first big-name rival by making Von Clay of Philadelphia his 13th straight victim in a 10-round decision Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena.

Promoter Teddy Brenner, who already had signed contracts for the winner to meet Pastrano, had feared a draw would block his plans. But the 22-year-old Jones settled that by flooring Clay once and gaining the close but unanimous decision.

The loss was only the second in 15 bouts for Clay, who had entered the ring a slight favorite.

Jones, who weighed 171½ pounds to Clay's 175½, dropped the Philadelphia fan of an eight-count in the third round and had him groggy in both the sixth and 10th rounds.

Canada Teams Lead Stanley Cup Playoffs

By United Press International
Looking forward to an All-Canadian final, the Montreal Canadiens and the Toronto Maple Leafs will be out to lengthen their leads when the Stanley Cup playoffs resume tonight.

Montreal, which finished first in the National Hockey League's regular season action, holds a 2-0 advantage over the injury-riddled Chicago Black Hawks. On their home ice tonight, the Black Hawks hope to bounce back in the best-of-seven series.

At Detroit, the Red Wings plan to meet Toronto and its "ghost," Red Kelly. Dealt away by Detroit this season, Kelly has come back to haunt his old mates and boost the Maple Leafs to a 2-1 advantage.

With Chicago expected to be at full strength for the first time in the playoffs, Coach Rudy Pilous believes his team will play its "game of the year." "We've got to win or we're really in trouble. If we win, it'll give us the lift we need," said Pilous.

Minor League Teams Are Heading North

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
Somebody in the minor league ranks of baseball wasn't listening when Horace Greeley issued his immortal words: "Go west young man, go west!"

The minor leaguer thought Horace said "Go north."

Because that's the way the minor leagues in the west are heading these days—and some believe the farther north they go the closer they'll come to striking it rich.

The Pacific Coast league, which in by-gone days had at least six teams in California, now has only two. Five are in the Pacific Northwest. And more may be going in the future.

In Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Vancouver, B.C., and Tacoma, Wash., the fans are getting set for a big season. And their prospects appear to be much better than the future for Sacramento and San Diego in the same league—but What's wrong with the Yankees?

The answer last season seemed to be "everything" and so far this spring it's been pretty much the same. The deposed champions, so confident that they would come roaring back this year, have lost 11 of 17 exhibition games and averaged only 2.7 runs a game.

They're not hitting, they're not getting solid pitching from key men and they're not playing well in the field. In short, their American league rivals are beginning to think Casey Stengel's "tigers" won't come roaring back at all but will be pretty tame little cats again this year.

Shut Out Twice
Nobody ever lost a pennant in the Grapefruit league standings, of course, but what can you say about "bombers" who have been shut out twice, held to one run four times and held to two runs in two other games?

The Los Angeles Dodgers handed them their third straight defeat Monday when they rocked Bob Turley for eight runs and 10 hits in six innings. Turley, who slumped to 8-11 last season after a 21-7 mark in 1958, has been slugged for 18 runs and 20 hits in 17 innings.

Johnny Podres made it look easy as he yielded six hits, walked none and struck out three in seven innings. Gil Hodges homered and Bob Aspromonte had three singles to lead the Dodgers' 12-hit attack. Podres has allowed only three earned runs in 19 innings this spring.

Robertson Gets Two UPI Awards

Cincinnati, Ohio — (UPI) — Oscar Robertson, college basketball's all-time top pointman, was presented the United Press International player of the year award and the UPI All-America award here Monday night.

The presentation was made by Haskell Short, Ohio news manager for UPI, at the annual University of Cincinnati banquet with about 1,000 persons in attendance.

The All-America award was the big senior's third and climaxed a college career in which he set a number of scoring marks. He received a total of 10 awards at the banquet.

Earlier his No. 12 uniform was officially retired at a special convocation where Robertson also spoke.

Oregon Enrolls Five Prospects

Eugene — (UPI) — University of Oregon today enrolled five California junior college prospects for its 1960 football team.

They include Bruce Snyder, a 190-pound fullback from Citrus JC, and four halfbacks — The halfbacks are Chris Machado, 185; Hartnell JC; Zeo Brown, 180; Sierra JC; Joe Sutton, 185, and Pete Hote, 150, Valley JC in Los Angeles.

Coach Les Casanova said they would be on hand when spring practice started April 11.

Beavers Blast Solons 9 to 4

Ontario, Calif. — (UPI) — Portland hopped on three Sacramento pitchers for 14 hits and a 9-4 exhibition baseball victory Monday.

Leading the Beavers were Nippy Jones, rookie Gerry Mason and Gil Gamet. They each had two hits.

Don Johnson got the win for Portland — his second of the training season. He didn't give up a run in the five innings he worked.

SPORTS

IN TROUBLE—Bonus rookie Frank Howard is deep in the Los Angeles Dodger's doghouse after missing two recent practice games. Dodger General Manager E. J. (Buzzy) Bavasi said the size of Howard's fine will depend upon his behavior during the remainder of spring training. Howard missed a plane trip to Orlando, Fla., last week for a game with the Washington Senators and Sunday passed up a game he was supposed to play for Spokane against Montreal at Vero Beach.

Dick Tiger Friday Foe Of Zalazar

New York — (UPI) — Dick Tiger, British middleweight champion from Nigeria, and Victor Zalazar of Argentina, who have sparred with each other many times in the gymnasium, will square off in earnest at Boston Friday night in the week's feature bout.

Their scheduled 10-rounder will be broadcast and televised nationally by NBC starting at 7 p.m. (EST).

Tiger, ranked seventh in the 160-pound class, has won four of seven fights since arriving in this country last summer. His most recent victims include Ace Armstrong, Joey Giardello and Holly Mims.

The 30-year-old Nigerian, a recent father of twins, has had a total of 33 fights, winning 22 and losing nine while scoring 10 knockouts. He is a 2-1 favorite to lick Zalazar, who has won 11 of 15 outings.

Chico Rollins, New York lightweight, will battle Eddie Perkins of Chicago in a scheduled 10-rounder Wednesday night.

Former champion Ray Robinson, prepping for a return bout with Paul Pender—the recognized middleweight champion in Massachusetts and New York who beat Ray last January—takes on Tony Baldoni in a warmup bout at Baltimore Saturday night.

OSU Faces NAIA Stars

Denver — (UPI) — Ohio State's national collegiate champions, and Oscar Robertson, the nation's top college player, were due to arrive here today to complete the star-studded field for the Olympic basketball trials beginning Thursday.

The mighty Ohio State Buckeyes, paced by 19-year-old sophomore Jerry Lucas, and considered one of the best college cage teams ever assembled, play the NAIA all-stars Thursday night.

Robertson, Cincinnati's All-American, joins the NCAA university All-Stars team which tangles with the tough Phillips Oilers in its opening game Thursday.

Besides Robertson, the university All-Stars boast two other All-Americans — 6-foot, 10-inch Darrall Imhoff of California, and West Virginia's Jerry West, along with other top college stars. California's Pete Newell coaches the team.

Porterfield Retains Lead in Links Tour

Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, was still in front of the field after the second round of the three-day pro-amateur Southern Oregon Spring Tour of the Professional Golfers association.

Porterfield and Bill Eggers, Rose City, Portland, each clubbed one - under - par 71 counts over the Rogue Valley Country club course yesterday. The Grants Pass pro had a 69 at Roseburg on Sunday. Yesterday's 18 holes gave him the two-day lead with 140. Eggers was right on the leaders' heels with a 70 Sunday and his 71 Monday for a 141 total.

The tour was to wind up today with another round at Rogue Valley.

Ed Oldfield, Astoria, was third ranking pro after Sunday and Monday action on 70-73-143. Bobby Litton, Vancouver, Wash., had 72-74-146; Bob McKendrick, Oswego Lake, 74-73-147, and Al Cross, Springfield, 76-73-149.

John Hagey, Eastmoreland, Portland, headed amateurs over the two-day route, with a 148. He and Dr. Robert Buck, Medford, led Monday amateur play with 75s. Hagey
