

Printing Contents On Packages of Cigarettes Favored

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor

Louisville, Ky., (UPI)—There shouldn't be a law prohibiting the smoking of cigarettes but there should be one requiring cigarette manufacturers to print the tar and nicotine contents of their products on every pack, in the opinion of a famous statistical scientist.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond is co-author of the Hammond-Horn study upon which is based much of the widespread conviction among scientists that cigarette smoking and lung cancer are directly connected. The Hammond-Horn report is one of the most frequently quoted of statistical documents.

Prohibition would no more work against smoking than it worked against alcohol and anyway, he continued, his "high regard for individual freedom" makes him opposed to prohibition of cigarettes. "Some sort of restrictions on cigarette advertising might be considered but it would be difficult to enforce without restricting freedom of speech," he said. "However, I think the manufacturers should not only be allowed but required to make known the tar and nicotine content of their brands."

Hammond was one of the scientists who spoke on lung cancer at a seminar on cancer research sponsored by the American Cancer Society. He is the society's director of statistical research.

Dr. Michael B. Shimkin, chief of biostatistics and epidemiology of the National

Miss Doolen Among Willamette Soloists

Rosemary Doolen, Medford, will be among soloists Friday night when the Willamette university choir presents a concert at Medford's First Methodist church.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m.

Of 50 musicians, a four choir and a brass quartet, are directed by Don M. Glecker. This will be the only program in this area presented by the choir on the tour. Serious church works, folk songs and light selections will be sung. Several vocal soloists will add variety to the program.

Sections will include "O Magnam Mystereum," da Victoria; "Hosanna," Daniel Moe; Psalm 150; "Jan Bender; "Exultate Deo," Scarlati; "The Bellman," Jean Berger; "How Brightly Shines the Morning Star," Nicolai-Olds; "Nellie Blay," Ralph Hunter; "Creep Along, Moses," Gail Kubik; and "Vipea Mea Electa," Couler.

The choir has toured in Pacific northwestern states annually for the past 18 years. Numerous church, school, radio and television appearances have been made.

MISSOURI TRANSITION

Washington-WPI—The Army will take down the last of its anti-aircraft guns in the North American air defense system by June 30, completing the transition to missiles. Camp Lucas, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., will be closed and the 2nd Gun Battalion, 68th Artillery, will be inactivated.
