Crater High School

By LaVonne LaFever
Thursday, March 24, an awards assembly was held. The basketball awards were: most valuable player, Chuck Turner, who also won the award last year; sportsmanship, Denny Edwards; rebound, Chuck Turner; same award last year; free throws percentage, Dave Sharp; field goal percentage, Earl Cooper. Those receiving varsity basketball letters were: Seniors Chuck Turner, Earl Cooper, Dave Sharp, Bill Anhorn, Gary Johnson, Larry Toher and Richard Woods; Juniors Loyal Higinbotham, Denny Edwards, Tom White and Jim Allen; Sophomore John Anhorn, and Managers Robert Alvarez and Bill Lacey. The junior varsity basketball letters were distributed to Juniors Al Minnick, Larry Ryerson, Mike Pepper, Dave Foote; Sophomores, Ron Beaman, Willie Debrick, David Straus, Tom Kimball, Bill Cooper, and Manager Danial Hayes.

The wrestling banquet, given by the Wrestler's mothers, was held Thursday night, March 24. Edward Knapp gave each wrestler his certificate. The most inspirational award was merited to Deag Lamp and the most improved award, Allen Lamp.

At the request of Mrs. Burns, Joan Skov, Julie Ashton, Lea Taberna, and Nancie Hooper served refreshments. Charles Meyer, superintendent, was the main speaker, and H. P. Jewett, former superintendent, acted as master of ceremonies. A total of approximately 80 people attended.

Warren Holbrook, with the aid of four senior girls, held a demonstration for the Southern Oregon Society of Art at the Girls Community club last Wednesday.

Marilyn Hixson performed two toshie silkscreening methods. Patti Straus displayed the film method, Wanda Smith, the lithocrayon method, and Barbara Walters did the glue blockout method. During the demonstration, Mr. Holbrook gave a discourse on the history of silkscreening.

Rosalie Hewitt and Sarah Turner, two Crater High school graduates, attended the Medical Minded Maids meeting Thursday, March 24. Rosalie is majoring in medical technology at Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls, and Sarah was here doing her unit of study on public health nursing. Each of the girls held private conferences with the individual senior members of MMM.

LaVonne LaFever was presented with a Quill and Scroll National award Tuesday, March 22, for entering the National Feature Contest of 1960.

Along with the award, she received a scholarship application to any college or university offering a journalism major.

Crater High students are now in the process of signing up to the Jaycee Safe Driving Teen-Age Road-E-O.

The Road-E-O will be held April 9. Any student is eligible who has not had a pending charge of, or been convicted of, a moving traffic violation in the six months prior to the National Finals, which will be Aug. 8-11, 1960. The participant must have a driver's license or a driver's permit.

The Jaycees are hoping to promote better driving on the highways and better skill in operating a motor vehicle.
