

SECURITY COUNCIL WARNED - South Africa's Bernardus Gerhardus Fourie, lower left, warns the U. N. Security Council that United Nations action against African racial killings "might in the future recoil against other member states." Non-member South Africa, invited to speak on the issue, then walked out of the Security Council. (UPI Telephoto)

Little Foreign Car Keeps on Rolling
 New York—A woman waiting for a bus late at night saw a small foreign car flip over twice. She went into an all-night drug store and phoned the police.
 What she saw when she got back was the car, right-side up, gathering speed down the avenue.
 The passenger was running alongside. He opened the door and jumped in as the car disappeared into the night.
 The water surface of the Indian Ocean is 28,356,000 square miles.

Seminar to Draw 100 Insurance Men

A regional meeting of the Oregon Association of Insurance Agents will be held at Rogue Valley Country club Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2.
 Agents of southern Oregon counties will take part and about 100 are expected to attend.
 The session will take the form of a seminar on insurance problems and new coverages. Projected legislation on workmen's compensation will be discussed.
 Speakers Friday on the compensation matter will be Keith D. Skelton, Eugene attorney, and Volney E. Howard Jr., Industrial Indemnity company, San Francisco. Edgar O. Zorn, chief deputy of the Oregon Insurance department, will address the noon luncheon.
 Fred Greer, Giesy and Greer, Portland, will speak on "Adjusting the UM Loss" Friday afternoon and a home owners workshop will be headed by Ross L. Oliver, inland marine and multiple line superintendent of Great American Insurance company, San Francisco.
 A no host reception is set for 6 p.m. and a banquet for 7 p.m. Friday.
 Saturday will be largely devoted to examination for points toward certified insurance agents status.

INSTALLMENT STRAIGHT

Palm Springs, Calif. - Thieves last week broke into the home of actor Tony Curtis and stole part of his $3,200 stereo hi-fi set. Wednesday they took the rest, police reported.

Quotes From the News

By United Press International
 Anaheim, Calif.—Nick Neely, 12, smiling bravely as he prepared to leap from a light plane at 3,500 feet to become the world's youngest parachutist!
 "Look at me. I'm scared to death."

New York—Chula (Robert) Na Ranong, 11, who is making a round-the-world trip alone from his home in Bangkok, Thailand, after being asked what impressed him most during his stops in the United States:
 "When are you going to let me watch television?"

Jackson, Miss.—Henry Hartford, on trial for assault and battery with intent to kill, explaining why he refused to answer police questions immediately after his arrest:
 "I learned from Perry Mason not tell police anything until you get a lawyer."

New York—Vernon Johnson, of Santa Barbara, Calif., explaining why he used $20,000 from a real estate deal to buy a bus and set out with his wife and eight children on a tour of Europe:
 "I thought we'd blow it before I spent it on less essential things."

Tot Worries About White House 'Fire'

North Industry, O. — The superintendent of the children's home here tells this one:
 Because a number of disastrous fires had been in the news he cautioned the children against playing with matches or fire.

A few days later a seven-year-old told a teacher in a worried tone that he heard over television that the White House was playing with fire.

BAN TIME BLOCK

Slough, England—UPI—The Aspro-Nicholas Manufacturing Co. announced Wednesday it has discarded the time clock used by its 700 employees. The company said employees were more punctual when they didn't have to punch time cards.

London—UPI—Singer Ann Shelton, who recently ended a long diet during which her weight dropped from 224 to 154 pounds, Wednesday landed first acting job. She will co-star in the televised drama "Three Fat Ladies."
