

Miss Greaser Is Bride of James Riehl

Miss Sallie K. Greaser became the bride of James A. Riehl Sunday, March 20, in an afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Greaser, 663 South Holly street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Oscar Riehl, Coalinga, Calif.

The double-ring service was read by Dr. George Roseberry in Meeker memorial chapel before a small number of friends and relatives. Yellow carnations and stock provided a setting for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace gown of ballerina length and carried yellow carnations. Her veil had been loaned by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Dana Collins.

Mrs. Charles White, Corvallis, who was matron of honor, wore a blue dress. Her flowers were white carnations.

Duane Hug, Corvallis, served as best man.

Forty-five guests attended the reception which the bride's parents gave at their home following the wedding. Daffodils and bridalwreath decorated the rooms.

Mrs. George Lawless, aunt of the bride, baked the wedding cake, which was decorated by Mrs. Jerry Igo, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Wilbur Elcher, the bride's aunt, poured coffee and Mrs. Ray Arthur, another aunt, cut the cake. Mrs. Charles White served punch and Mrs. Igo had charge of the guest book.

The young couple traveled to the Oregon coast for their wedding trip and will make their home in Corvallis, where both are juniors at Oregon State college. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Coalinga High school.

Couple Returns From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Day have returned to their home in Sams Valley after spending the past three weeks with a vacation trip south.

The Days visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Day, in Villa Las Rosas, Guatemala. En route south they traveled down the west coast and across the Isthmus of Panama, and the return trip was by a different route. While away they made stops in Mexico City, Vera Cruz, Guadalajara and other places of interest.

Christopher Day was in Guatemala with a group of University of Chicago scientists. He is a linguistic specialist in anthropology. The two young people have returned to Chicago and have both registered for further study at the University.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold

Newlyweds Make Home In Hillsboro; Rites Here

Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold are making their home at 409 South Eighth street, Hillsboro, following their return from a wedding trip to Oceanlake, Ore.

They were married March 11 at 7 p.m. at First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring rites.

Mrs. Arnold is the former Miss Carol Rector, daughter of Mrs. O. B. Rector, 2369 Beall lane, Medford. Mr. Arnold's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold, Palm Springs, Calif.

Mrs. R. A. Sheldon played the organ wedding music. Baskets of white stock and pink gladioli decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white Alencon lace over satin. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and the Sabrina neckline was accented with sequins and pearls. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white stock with camellia leaves.

Miss Bonnie Cameron attended the bride. She wore a ballerina length frock of Paris pink nylon organza. Her accessories were pastel pink and her headdress was of flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and stock with camellia leaves.

Lowell Edwards, Springfield, Ore., served as best man for his brother-in-law. Seating the guests were James Clark and John Gustafson.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the Rogue room of the Medford hotel, Mrs. Rector wore a navy blue dress with white collar and pink accessories. Mrs. Arnold chose a black and white silk crepe dress with black accessories. Their corsages were pink and white carnations.

White stock, pink and white carnations and pink roses decorated the Rogue room. Fifty relatives and guests attended the reception. Mrs. Harris Meyer, sister of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Lowell Edwards, Springfield, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Joe Morris poured the coffee. Mrs. Adam Richter, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

For her traveling attire the bride wore an olive green velvetreen sheath frock with matching hat and black accessories. The bride is a registered nurse and was on the staff of Sacred Heart hospital.

Mr. Arnold is a fieldman for Hudson House Inc., wholesale grocery firm.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold, Palm Springs, Calif., parents of the bridegroom; and Miss Gerrie Gishurt, Portland.

Mrs. John Rector was hostess for a buffet dinner for family and friends the afternoon prior to the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ian Morgan (Knackstedt photo)

Lutheran Ceremony Weds Couple

Miss Jean Louise Bjorlie became the bride of Michael Ian Morgan in a three o'clock afternoon ceremony held Sunday, March 20, at the Zion Lutheran church in Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Bjorlie, 611 Normal avenue, Ashland, and the bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Morgan, formerly of Ashland.

The double-ring service was conducted by the Rev. Harvey C. Coovert with about 250 friends and relatives attending. Mr. Bjorlie gave his daughter in marriage.

Bouquets of pink stock and white chrysanthemums decorated the church. Mrs. Paul Evensen played the organ wedding music and Mrs. Herbert Cecil was soloist. Preceding the ceremony, "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg was sung and this had also been sung at the bride's parents' wedding.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white floral lace over bridal satin made by her sister, Judith Bjorlie. It was designed in princess style with long tapered sleeves. The bride's fingertip veil was held in place by a crown decorated with tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy, centered with a white orchid, and a lace handkerchief carried by her mother at her wedding.

Miss Judith Bjorlie was her sister's maid of honor, Miss Phyllis De Boer was a bridesmaid, and Mrs. Jack Mansfield, sister of the bridegroom, was a bridesmatron. They wore light rose pink taffeta dresses fashioned in princess lines similar to the bride's gown, with matching pink veils and shoes. Their pink jewelry was a gift of the bride. Each carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Little Susan Morgan and Deborah Morgan, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They carried baskets of pink and white flowers. Their dresses matched the other bridal attendants, all of which had been made by a friend of the bride, Mrs. Walter DeBoer.

Richard S. Triles served as best man for his cousin. Ushers were Robert Wright and William Beber. Mark Mansfield, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bjorlie chose a pink lace sheath with lace jacket and beige accessories. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

The reception was held in the church social room following the ceremony. Mrs. W. Bernard Windt and Mrs. V. E. Mittag cut and served the bride's wedding cake which was iced with white orchids, given by Mrs. Steven Matteson, nested in pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's cake was made by Mrs. V. E. Mittag, friend of the bride. Mrs. Walter DeBoer poured coffee and Mrs. Floyd Taylor presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ruth Coovert and Miss Nancy Linsinger were at the gift tables and Miss Pat Roach was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Bruce Braaten was in charge of the reception.

Following the reception the newlyweds traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip. The bride's traveling attire was an aquamarine suit with white accessories and her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple is now at home at 852 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and is a freshman at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Morgan was graduated from Ashland High school and is a junior at Southern Oregon college.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Steven Matteson, Chico, Calif., Miss Gayle Turner, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Krinock, Portland.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a number of parties. They were given by Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Mrs. W. Bernard Windt, and Mrs. V. E. Mittag; the choir of the Zion Lutheran church; Miss Pat Roach and Miss Phyllis DeBoer; and Mrs. Melvin Morgan and Mrs. Jack Mansfield.

Andersons Take European Tour

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Anderson, 2101 Oakwood drive, left last week for Europe. Mr. Anderson retired in February after working nearly 37 years with Timber Products company here.

The couple will visit Norway, where Mr. Anderson's parents formerly lived, British Isles, Germany, France, Holland, Denmark, and Sweden.

The Andersons flew to New York from where they left by boat for Europe. They plan to drive through parts of Europe.

Women to Show Films for Group

Pictures taken in South American countries will be shown by Mrs. D. Kirkland West and Mrs. George Flanagan at a meeting of Westminster guild of First Presbyterian church Monday, April 4, at 6:30 p.m. at the church.

Mrs. West and Mrs. Flanagan who visited South America last year, will discuss their trip. And also conduct devotions.
