Miss Judith Ann Fader Bride of Roger Chase

Ashland—Miss Judith Ann Fader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Fader, 338 Holly street, became the bride of Roger Frank Chase, Van Nuys, Calif., in a ceremony held at First Methodist church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase, Eugene.

The Rev. Herschel Hall officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites held March 26.

Miss Beverly Fjarli

Beverly Fjarli, Medical Student Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fjarli, 4017 Jacksonville highway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to Harold Follett, son of Mrs. Manoa Follett, Roseburg.

Miss Fjarli, a graduate of Milo academy, is a student at Walla Walla college, College Place, Wash., majoring in secretarial science.

Her fiancé also attended Milo academy and is a pre-medical student at Walla Walla college.

They plan a late summer wedding.

Girls Make Costumes For Musical

The past week has seen costume-making as a major activity in preparation for the musical "Oklahoma" which the Medford High School choir will produce on April 21 through 23 at the high school.

Rita Miller is chairman of the costume committee, and her assistant is Karen Moran. Others working on the committee are Sandra Fariss, Sharon Fraysher, Beverly Todd, Cheryl Linn, Nancy McLaughlin, Tanya Enders, Martha Sanborn, and Suzi VanSickle. The girls, most of whom are members of home economics classes, have been making cowboy shirts to match the dresses of the dancing girls.

Miss Miller and Miss Moran also pass judgment on the style and fit of garments brought in by members of the choir. They report that bright-colored vests for the boys, and high-topped laced shoes for the girls are needed at this time. Any person willing to loan these items to the choir is requested to call Miss Miller at SPring 2-6373.

The properties committee is still looking for an old-fashioned butter churn. Anyone who can lend a churn may call Nancy Hinman, SPring 2-7404.

Ticket sales for "Oklahoma" begin tomorrow, April 4. Charlene Highland is ticket chairman, with Linda Siessler, Karen Mayfield, Karen Christensen, Barbara Whalin, Barbara Thomas, and Wharin Marsh as her assistants. The choir and the advanced girls chorus members will also sell tickets.

Auxiliary Marks 10th Anniversary

Prospect—The Prospect Lions auxiliary celebrated its tenth anniversary Saturday night, March 26, with a smorgasbord in the community hall. Members of the guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd prepared the food.

Mrs. George Hubbard was mistress of ceremony. Members of the auxiliary presented a style show. Special guests were Mrs. Vern Conway, Milwaukie, Ore., past state president, and Mr. Conway, and Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, vice-president of the Oregon Lions auxiliary.

Prospect members who will attend the spring board meeting at Taft, Ore., are Mrs. H. F. Hardy, president, Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Lowell Ash.

Husbands of auxiliary members were guests for the dinner; dancing closed the evening.

More than 90 relatives and friends attended the double ring ceremony. Baskets of white stock and calla lilies decorated the church. Mrs. Keith Kimball was soloist.

The bride wore a white lace and tulle floor length gown fashioned with fitted imported lace bodice and tulle over satin skirt. The skirt was trimmed with embroidered lace appliques. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds. Mr. Fader gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Gene Tenney attended the bride. She wore a blue sheath frock with white lace jacket and white accessories. Mr. Tenney served as best man. Seating the guests were Morton Scripter and Ronald Fader, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Victor Lantis and Mrs. Dorothy Wolf, aunts of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Carol Lininger and Miss Judy Alley presided at the punch bowls. Miss Margaret Hull poured the coffee and Miss Linda Wright was at the gift table.

The couple traveled to Van Nuys where they are making their home. For traveling the bride wore a white wool sheath dress with jacket and red accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school and attended Southern Oregon college. Mr. Chase is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and is employed by the National Insurance Adjustment Bureau in Van Nuys.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris, Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane, all Eugene; Miss Ethel Wilkinson, Mineral, Calif.; Joseph Wilkinson, Grass Valley, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hanscom, Manson, Wash.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Westminster Church Scene Of First Marriage Rites

The wedding of Miss Kathleen Louise Donahue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis Donahue, 1687 Spring street, to Donald Chadwick Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Green, 1410 Euclid avenue, took place Sunday, March 20, at Westminster Presbyterian church. It was the first wedding held in the new church on Oakwood drive.

The Rev. John Reynolds performed the double-ring service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Acacia, forsythia and daffodils decorated the church. Mrs. Helene Gorden was pianist.

Aloha Rightmier Is Married To Douglas Smith

Eagle Point—The New Age church near Eagle Point was scene of the wedding March 28 of Miss Aloha Lee Rightmier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jess Rightmier, Gebhart road, Central Point, to Douglas Jesse Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Polk Smith, route 1, box 260, Eagle Point.

The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony and also sang, accompanied by Mrs. Millard. About 20 friends and relatives attended.

The bride wore a figured white silk party frock with floral trimming and white accessories and a flower-trimmed headdress. In her shoe she wore an English sixpence, a gift from Mrs. Mark Hoeft. Her sister, Mrs. Robert A. Engel, who was matron of honor, wore a lavender silk afternoon dress. Mr. Engle was best man.

The bride attended Crater High school and the bridegroom attended schools in Eagle Point. He is employed by Double Deuce Lumber company.

The newlyweds are making their home in Eagle Point following a wedding trip to northern Oregon.

Large Group to Attend Lion Auxiliary Meeting

All 28 Lion auxiliaries in District E will be represented at the annual spring meeting of the Oregon Lions auxiliary board in Taft April 6 according to Mrs. Dan Dwyer, Medford, District E director.

Mrs. Dwyer and Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, vice-president for the state, will attend. Both have been busy in recent months with auxiliary duties and Mrs. Dwyer has visited each auxiliary in her district.

Mrs. Christian was in Portland Wednesday night to attend a meeting of parents and teachers of blind children living in Multnomah county. The main project of Lions and auxiliary members is work with the blind, and Mrs. Christian discussed with the parents and teachers how the program of aid may be more useful.

Thursday Mrs. Christian attended a fashion show and brunch given by women of the District O auxiliaries at Lipman-Woife store in Portland. The women gave a series of three of the events March 29-31, and sold about 1,200 tickets for the three, Mrs. Christian reports. Funds raised will be used for a sound-proof room at the University of Oregon Medical schools epilepsy research laboratory.

Following the board meeting in Taft Wednesday, auxiliary officers will concentrate on plans for the annual Oregon State School for the Blind institute to be held this year April 27-May 1 at the state school. Auxiliaries of the state finance the institute, for parents of blind children, and members serve as baby sitters while the parents attend the sessions.
