Methodist Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Barbara Tickner, daughter of Mrs. Elinor Watkins, 1223 Withington street, became the bride of C. William Harvey, 345 Apple street, in a ceremony held March 11 at First Methodist church.

Mr. Harvey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Allan S. Harvey, Hayward, Calif.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 7 o'clock evening rites attended by 54 relatives and friends. Forsythia decorated the church and lighted white candles were at the altar.

The bride wore a white lace floor length gown with white jacket. Her accessories were white and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a lavender orchid.

Edwin E. Wall gave his granddaughter in marriage.

Miss Linda Knapp attended her cousin. She wore a light green taffeta frock and carried a bouquet of pink carnations encircling a white orchid.

W. H. Howell served as best man. C. W. Baily and Leon L. Knapp seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church.

The couple is at home at 345 Apple street. The bride is a student at Medford High school. Mr. Harvey is a foreman at Fir Ply Inc., White City.

Griffin Creek PTA to Hear Lee Ragsdale

Lee Ragsdale, supervisor of health and physical education for Medford public schools, will explain the physical education program in Medford schools at a meeting of Griffin Creek Parent-Teacher association Thursday, April 7. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Election of officers for the coming year will be held and members are asked to be ready to make nominations from the floor, according to Mrs. Delmar McKee, president.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of Mrs. Mary Overstreet's fourth grade, with Mrs. Al Cuozzo and Mrs. George Large in charge.

Mrs. Cleo Epps, ways and means chairman, has asked members of the association to save rummage items for the sale to be held in May.

At the last meeting a report on social studies in grades 1 through 6 was given by Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of schools, and Miss Gladys Durand.

Lynn Jenkins, Mrs. L. G. Frink and Mrs. Roy Sanders were named to the nominating committee.

Rehearsals Slated For Gold Hill Choir

Gold Hill-Mrs. C. Norman Gail, director of the choir of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, said practices will be held Monday, April 4 and Monday, April 11 between 7 and 8 p.m. These replace the Thursday afternoons practice sessions.

The evening practices will enable boys of the church to participate in the choir for the Easter Sunday services, April 17, the director said.

Newlyweds Make Home In Gold Hill

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eugene Governor are making their home in Gold Hill following their recent wedding. They were married at First Methodist church in Reno, Nevada, March 12. The Rev. Floyd Marker, pastor of the church, officiated at the three o'clock afternoon double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle fashioned with fitted bodice and full ballerina length skirt over white satin. The long sleeved bolero was of white tulle. A tiara of white flowers held her fingertip length veil, which was trimmed with seed pearls and sequins.

The couple's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. James Byrns, Lampman road, Gold Hill. Mrs. Byrns wore an orange and white knit sheath afternoon dress with white accessories.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frances Jr., 204 Berrydale avenue, Medford is the former Miss Joyce S. Frances. Prior to her marriage she attended school at Crater High school. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dungey, Gold Hill. He attended Crater High school and schools in California, and is employed at the Double D. Lumber company at Tolo.

Previous to her marriage the bride was honored at a shower given at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ramsey, Sams Valley road. Co-hostesses were her daughters, Misses Georgia and Linda Ramsey.

Guests were Miss Hazel Swindler, Miss Sharon King, Miss Linda Morgan, Miss Judy Wilson, Miss Reba Taylor, Mrs. Leroy Dungey, Mrs. Ann Frances, Mrs. Virgie Norris, Mrs. Ivan Governor, and daughter Sharyl, Mrs. James Byrns, Mrs. Theron Bowen, Mrs. Elmer Dungey, Mrs. Bill Price, and Mrs. Floyd Taylor.

Miss Georgia Ramsey assisted the honored guest at the gift table.

Bethel Sets Annual Event

Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, annual mothers tea and style show, will be held Sunday, April 10, at 2 p.m. Proceeds from the event will go to the education and promotion fund of the organization.

The Bethel will meet Wednesday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic temple. Miss Marion Parsons, honored queen, will preside at the formal initiation service.

Wednesday, March 30, five members of Bethel 14 were presented with honorary membership cards, following the ceremony granting the majority degree which was conducted by Miss Parsons. Miss Bernice Skoog, Miss Sue Hubbard, Mrs. Wayne H. Breeze, Mrs. Jerry E. Matheran and Mrs. James W. Young were present for the service. Five members, not present, but who will receive honorary memberships, are Miss Denise Bruning, Miss Carol Dyke, Mrs. Stanley Green, Miss Ann Garner, and Miss Jane Edger-ton, Bellingham, Wash.

During the business session, Miss Diane Evernham, grand representative to Australia, was selected to attend the Grand Bethel tea to be held May 1 in the Masonic home, Forest Grove. A offering was taken to be sent to the "buddy Bethel" in Roseburg to assist them in buying new robes. Plans were made to participate in a double session with Grants Pass Bethel on April 11.

Past honored queens introduced and escorted were Mrs. Breeze, Miss Mickie Noble, Miss Bernice Skoog, Miss Sue Hubbard, and Mrs. Matheran.

Ladies of Elks Slate Luncheon

Medford Ladies of Elks will hold their first April meeting Tuesday, April 5, at the Elks club party lounge. A salad luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. and cards will be played during the remainder of the afternoon.

At the last meeting of the group, Mrs. Jorgen E. Jorgensen and Mrs. H. L. Alford were winners at bridge, and Mrs. L. J. Schade won high score at pinocle. These women will be in charge of refreshments at Tuesday's party.

Wives and widows of all Elk members are welcome to attend the Ladies of Elks affairs.

In Corvallis

New Club Formed Here; Group Being Reorganized

Meetings in Medford this week will mark the re-organization of a women's group and the formation of a new club for women.

Medford Christian Women's club is being formed here by Mrs. Helen A. Nichols and Mrs. Alice Kreiner, national representatives of an organization interested in promoting the Christian religion among women of the United States. The women are also revitalizing the Christian Business and Professional Women's council of Medford, which had ceased to meet in recent months.

The business and professional women's council will hold a dinner meeting Thursday, April 7, at 8:15 p.m. at Rogue Valley Country club. Speaker will be Mrs. Ted Jones, Seattle, and a parade of Easter hats will be presented by Hadley's shop under the direction of Mrs. Maude Coddington. Miss Karen Lytle will sing.

Women's club will hold a luncheon meeting at Rogue Valley Country club Friday, April 8, at 12:30 p.m. Hadley's will again present the hat parade, and soloist will be Mrs. Charles Champlin. Mrs. Jones will also speak at this meeting.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with Mrs. A. C. Pierce, SPring 2-4467.

The two groups are related in purpose, it is said, and differ only in the fact that one is for business and professional women who must hold evening meetings, and the other is for homemakers who wish to attend luncheon sessions.

"Christian Women's clubs is a national interdenominational organization for promoting fellowship among women of all denominations and faiths," a group statement reads. "The monthly meetings are luncheons with both an entertainment feature and an inspirational talk."
