Members of the new Rogue Valley Art Association held a formal opening of the group's new temporary art gallery at 220 West Main street Friday night. Robert Taylor (at left) Carl Wimberly Jr., and Mrs. Taylor were among those who viewed an exhibit of oils, watercolors and sculpture sent to Medford by the Oregon Art alliance. The gallery, to be known as the Rogue gallery, opened yesterday to the public and will be open daily between 12 noon and 4 p.m. Mr. Wimberly is a member of the new association's board of directors.

Medford reached a milestone Friday with the opening of the city's first art gallery. The temporary quarters were made into a suitable background for works of art by members of the sponsoring group, the newly organized Rogue Valley Art association. Dr. J. R. Porto, (at left) is the president of the association and Ben J. Trowbridge Jr. is a member of the board. Miss Marilyn Hixon is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hixon, Central Point; Mrs. Hixon is president of Southern Oregon Society of Artists. The modern sculpture is one of the pieces obtained through the Oregon Art Alliance for the gallery's first exhibit. Watercolors and oils are also on display. The gallery will be open each day from noon until 4 p.m.

PTSA Elects Officers; Panel Discussion Heard

Officers elected at a recent meeting of the Eagle Point High School Parent-Teacher-Student association are Mrs. Donald DeHaven, president; Mrs. J. H. Johnson, vice president; Kenneth Vannice, teacher vice president; Mrs. Clinton Ayres, secretary; Wallace West, treasurer; and Janne Calloway, historian.

Mrs. DeHaven plans to attend the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers convention to be held in Medford April 26 through 28.

Following a devotional period led by Paul Evers, a senior student, and the flag salute by Wallace West, junior, Mrs. DeHaven introduced the persons who were to participate in a panel discussion of questions submitted from the audience.

Parents and students comprising the panel included Mrs. Clinton Ayres, Mrs. Charles Pomeroy, Mrs. Edward Oswald, Will R. Hubbard, and E. A. Mallory, parents; and Mack Lemmon, senior; Miss Eda Larson, junior; Steve Geren, sophomore; Gary Clements, freshman, and Miss Delberta Spain, a 1959 graduate of Eagle Point High School. Clarence Davies, instructor, acted as moderator.

Parents and students appeared to agree that the age to begin dating and the number of dates per week depended on the maturity of the young person in question. They felt a discussion of the subject by the parents and the young person was definitely indicated. It was agreed that "how late to be out" depended somewhat on the occasion, with the parents reserving the right to the final decision.

A question from the audience asked what might be done to instill good study habits into students so that they would be prepared for the transition into college. General agreement seemed to be that if a student really wanted to get good grades and acquire a good background for college, he would develop good study habits himself; if not, outside pressure would do little good.

Number Attend
Attending the meeting as guests were several parents of students in the eighth grade. Also present were Mrs. Max Weston, president-elect of the Medford Council of Parents and Teachers, and Mrs. Glenn Stewart, Medford. The meeting was held in the high school library, and the approximately 100 persons attending sat around the library tables and were served refreshments throughout the program by mothers of sophomore students.

Synthetic Fabric Care To Be Topic for Units

"The Care and Handling of Synthetic Fibers" is the lesson which all Home Extension units in Jackson county will have this month.

The lesson will include ways of washing and ironing, how to remove lint and balls, and how to keep them from becoming dingy. Miss Norma Hague, Jackson County 4-H club agent gave the lesson to the unit project leaders.

Many of the units will start planning this month for their May festivals. The object of the festivals is to acquaint the public with the Home Extension program, to show what has been accomplished during the year, and to have a time of fun and fellowship.

Reese Creek
Among the five units which have scheduled meetings this week is the Reese Creek group which will meet Tuesday, April 5, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ben Gardener.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Lee Damon and Mrs. Ralph Lacy.

Lake Creek
Lake Creek group will meet Wednesday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. Foster Swigert, Meridian road.

The project lesson will be given by Mrs. Willard Welch and Mrs. Murray Bartling. The meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Officers will be elected for the next year.

For luncheon arrangements contact Mrs. Henry Meyer. Those attending are to take their own table service.

Wilson Park
Mrs. Paul Blair, 507 Fairmount street, will be hostess for the Wilson Park unit Tuesday, April 5, at 7 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Verner McCall and Mrs. Darwin Durr.

Mrs. Dwight Albright and Mrs. Edward Albright will be project leaders.

Agate Unit
The Agate Home Extension unit will meet Wednesday, April 6, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Joe Wray, Gibbon road. Mrs. D. A. Bever and Mrs. John Small will give the lesson.

A business meeting and election of officers will be held during the morning. Members are to take their Easter hats made from kitchen utensils for the auction.

Applegate Valley Units
Mrs. Fred West and Mrs. Niel Suttell will give the demonstration at a joint meeting of Applegate Valley extension units to be held at the Grange hall Wednesday, April 6, at 10:30 a.m.

The project leaders have asked members to take empty liquid soap cans and soap boxes.

The election of officers will be held and the spring festival discussed.

A potluck dinner will be served and members are to take their own table service. Child care will be available.

Mrs. George Hartley, will be co-hostess.

National Library Week

National Library week, which opens today, is being observed throughout Jackson county. Otto Ewaldsen and Mrs. Robert Fuller are chairman of the committee in charge of the special week. "Wake Up and Read" is the theme.

Camp White
The week will be observed at the Veterans Administration domiciliary. Camp White, with an open house this afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock. Henry C. Herzog, manager, states that all members of the domiciliary, personnel, and their friends are welcome to attend.

The open house also calls attention to the relocation of the Camp White library.

Jackson School
Jackson school will also hold open house in celebration of the week. The event will be held Wednesday, April 6, 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

Parents and friends of the students are invited according to Mrs. Precia Medley, librarian, and Bruce Metzger, principal. Visitors will be encouraged to ask questions.

Rogue River
Rogue River Civic Improvement club will observe the week with a silver tea to be held at the Rogue River Public library Thursday, April 7, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Meeting Planned By Adarel Chapter
Jacksonville-A meeting of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held at 8 p.m. April 7 in the Masonic temple. Mrs. Furman Everham, worthy matron, and Don Shores, worthy patron, will preside.

On the committee for the evening are Mrs. Pearl Whitney, Mrs. C. A. Young and Mrs. Harold Lawrence.

Wild Shrubs Club Topic

Mrs. Ivan T. Skyrman, Central Point, gave a talk on "Wild Shrubs" at a meeting of the Little Garden club of Medford March 30 at the home of Mrs. G. R. Oleson, 201 North Keene Way. Mrs. Skyrman spoke of where the various species of wild shrubs may be found in this area.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, Siskiyou district director of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, attended the meeting and gave a report and showed slides on "Native Plants." Mrs. Nichol was assisted by Mrs. C. O. Long.

Mrs. W. T. McIntyre was cohostess and Mrs. R. L. Howe was a guest.

An all day field trip is planned for the April 13 meeting. All members bring a sack lunch and meet at the home of Mrs. George Sample, Jacksonville, at 10 o'clock.

Executive Meeting Planned by Group
An executive meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association will be held at the home of Mrs. Irl Groves, 1008 Reddy avenue, at noon Monday.

A meeting of the Past Presidents club will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Hillyer, 538 Mary street, Tuesday at 8 p.m.
