

Club's Funds On Agenda For Meeting

Parents of students in St. Mary's Grade school will be asked at their next business meeting to approve the executive board's suggestions for disposal of the club's funds.

The April general meeting of the organization will be held Monday, April 4, at 8:15 p.m. in the activities room of the school.

Mrs. V. P. Nicoletti will be in charge of the coffee hour following the business session. She will be assisted by mothers of children in Mrs. Margaret Devers' second grade room.

Mrs. Ernest I. Flakus and Mrs. John L. Welch were named greeters for the meeting.

Nominating Committee

At the recent meeting of the executive board, President Carl Brophy named Richard Randolph, chairman of the playground maintenance committee and a past president of the club, as chairman of this year's nominating committee. His assistants will be announced at the Monday night business session.

Mrs. George Davy, chairman of the library maintenance committee, announced that a full report of the Rogue Chef Cook Book project will be made soon. She suggested that anyone still wanting one of the cookbooks should contact her immediately as there are only ten copies which have not been spoken for. The project has realized a profit which will support the grade school library for several years, according to the chairman.

Oak Grove PTA Elects Officers

Mrs. Roger Westerfield was elected president for 1960-61 of the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association recently. Vice president is Mrs. Woodrow Howell; secretary, Mrs. V. C. McMichael and treasurer, Mrs. Leland Pierson.

Seth Bullis showed slides of early-day Medford. Sandra Rupp, Sandra Ekberg and Charlotte Martin, all sixth grade girls, sang several numbers, and Linda Hess presented several saxophone numbers.

Mrs. Westerfield asked the invocation and the flag ceremony was conducted by Paul Larson and David Roti of Boy Scout Troop 4.

Bruce Nelson of Crater Lake area council, Boy Scouts of America, presented the charter for Troop 4 to president Mrs. Douglas Lamb. She in turn presented it to Paul Larson, committeeman for the troop.

Convention Delegates

Mrs. Truett Martin, Mrs. Dean Eppinger and Mrs. S. B. Sandberg were elected delegates to the state convention, in addition to the four newly elected officers.

Robert Phillips, principal, showed plans for the proposed additional classrooms for the school. Keith Hockersmith, member of the Medford school board, and Mr. Phillips, answered questions regarding the bond issue.

It was voted to present $50 to the school to purchase library books.

The room count was won by Jim Hennebeck's room. Refreshments were served prior to the meeting by mothers of second grade students.

Shakespeare to Be AAUW Topic

A program on Shakespeare will be given for American Association of University Women, Medford branch, Wednesday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Walters, 818 South Peach street, at 8 p.m.

The AAUW Shakespeare study group, newest of five study groups, will give the program. All members of the study group, which is led by Mrs. Robert K. Hood will participate, with a movie also shown.

Plans for a prospective modern dance study group with Mrs. Vernon Gebhard as chairman will be discussed at the meeting. Other study groups, all of which are open to the public, are international relations, applied arts, interior decoration, and Great Decisions.

Mrs. E. H. Loveness and Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard will arrange refreshments for the meeting. Miss Elizabeth Rice, Mrs. Duane Richardson, and Mrs. Leo VanDijk will assist.

Poison Oak?
Try a Bottle of ZEMACOL

You must be satisfied or your money cheerfully refunded. Get a bottle today at WESTERN THRIFT

To focus attention on publication of a booklet on Jackson county and its government, Medford League of Women Voters held a publication party Tuesday, March 29, at the Red Cross building. Pictured at a table where the booklets were being sold are (left to right) Mrs. Thomas Rutter and Mrs. Robert Scofield, two of the many league members who worked on the booklet. Mrs. L. A. Brennescholtz and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, among the many citizens who purchased copies during the tea. Entitled "How Much Do You Know About Jackson County?" the booklet has the endorsement of county and civic leaders and is on sale at the Jackson County courthouse information desk, the Medford Chamber of Commerce, the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County, Mann's and Swen's stores.

Band Plays For School

Gold Hill—Members of the advanced Hanby school band and their director, Charles Cook, went to the Sams Valley Elementary school last Tuesday where they played several numbers for a student assembly.

Students participating were Toni Morrow, Barbara Schatz, Norma Schatz, Sharon Wright, Gail Lewis, Shirley Kell, Spike Thompson, David Johnson, Melvin Johnson, Greg Beman, Gregory Applin, Greg Schmidt, Billy Jones, Grant Mellory, Ruth Griggs, Raelene O'Brien, Dick Ross, Charmaine Doherty, Sharon Bailey, Robert Danielson, Dave Force, Donald Gall.

Featured during the program were special numbers by a clarinet quartet made up of Norma Schatz, Greg Applin, Greg Schmidt, and Mr. Cook. A mixed quartet consisting of Barbara Schatz, trumpet; Donald Gall, trombone; Shirley Kell, clarinet and Mr. Cook, clarinet, also played.

Both quartets played for a meeting of the Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations held March 30 in the Gold Hill Grange hall.

Fisherman's Sandwich

For a different and delicious sandwich to serve for a Lenten lunch, try serving a zippy Maine Fisherman's Sandwich. Broil Maine sardines until they are heated through. Arrange on toasted whole wheat bread. Spread mustard relish over the fish. Sprinkle with a few drops of lemon juice. Top with the additional toast, and serve with cups of steaming hot coffee.

Torch Honor Society Certificates Presented

Mrs. Curtis Nesheim was elected president of Crater Parent Teacher association March 28.

Others elected were Mrs. M. B. Caster, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Schmidt, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Klusenbecker, secretary, and Miss Martha Boshears, treasurer.

Arthur Strauss presented certificates to 25 new members who were installed in the Crater chapter of National Torch Honor society.

They were Rosanna Shel-

Electa Social Club Has Refresh Luncheon

Electa Social club met at Girls Community club recently for a salad luncheon. Spring flowers and St. Patrick's day decorations centered the tables.

Mrs. A. L. Schrack, Mrs. W. O. Hughes, Mrs. Anne Divert and Mrs. Maud King served luncheon. Mrs. Ben Bolin, president, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Inez Chase received a special gift.

Mrs. Carmine Gigliotti, a former member, was a visitor. It was reported that Mrs. F. B. Root is expected home soon from Walter Reed hospital in Maryland.

Committee members for the next meeting April 22 are Mrs. Ina Huson, Mrs. H. C. Capsey, Mrs. H. E. Olson and Mrs. F. L. Ryde.

Tripe and onions go exotic with the addition of sour cream and sliced almonds; the almonds adding that extra something.

ley, Darlene Tomlinson, Connie Black, Brian Hartgraves, Shirley McAllister, and Carol Myers, seniors; Lynn Malot, Nancy Clark, Donna Colpitts, Ruth Ellis, Dennis Fisher, David Foote, Steve Howell, Judy Kimmey, Robert Kuest, John Kuoni, Richard Lichti, Nancy McKay, Leslie Meister, Marlon Moore, Allison Pinkham, Romona Schroeder, Sharon Tompson, Sharon Troutman, and Phyllis Woods, juniors.

Lighted Candles

Earl Cooper, president and master of ceremonies, lighted the candle of scholarship, Rick Burns, leadership; Jeanette Purdy, service, and Alice Croxton, character.

William Russell, advisor, told the group of parents attending that membership in the society is composed of 10 per cent of the junior class and 15 per cent of the senior class. Present members, of whom there are 18 and faculty members vote on the new members who must have maintained a "B" average to qualify and retain it to remain a member.

Miss Martha Boshears, advisor, gave a history of the society. The rapid growth of secondary schools after 1900 gave need for emphasis on scholastic standards, and in 1919 a study began. In Cleveland, Ohio, in 1920 a report was made and in 1921 the constitution was approved. In 1922 the official emblem of the torch was designed, and 12 chapters were formed. Today there are 12,000, Crater being number 5040.

Society Ideals

Ideals of the society creates enthusiasm toward achievement, presents to lower classmen ideals they can achieve, encourages students to render service, creates leadership within self, develops strength of character, and encourages students to higher education.

A panel discussion of elective and required subjects of juniors and seniors was presented by Miss Geraldine White, moderator; Leonard Warren, Mr. Russell and Ronald VanDolah. Each department's aims and achievements were discussed.

Appointed to the auditing committee were Mr. Nesheim, Miss Geraldine White and Mrs. Frances Willette.

Mrs. Nesheim was in charge of refreshments and Mrs. C. W. Anhorn arranged the table decorations.

Camp Easter Seal Director To Speak at Session Here

Members of the Medford chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will be hostesses today for a district council at Kim's restaurant. Women from Grants Pass and Ashland have been invited.

Bruce Whittaker, camp director for Camp Easter Seal, will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Robert Klumph was elected president of the local chapter at a meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Shangle, 710 West 10th street.

Other new officers are Mrs. William Riggert, vice-president; Mrs. Richard Harrison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Davis Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Leland Carpenter, treasurer; Mrs. Wylie Macpherson, educational director; and Mrs. Richard Meister, parliamentarian.

They will be installed at a ceremony May 7 at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. Macpherson, chairman of the coin container campaign, reported that the containers have been placed in local stores and proceeds will go to support of the Easter Seal program.

Another "stop" in the group's "world tour" was presented. Spain, the country chosen, was described by Mrs. Chester Peterson and Mrs. Howard Phillips.

Dressed as a matador, Mrs. Peterson discussed the geography, climate, products and general life of the Spanish people. Mrs. Phillips, costumed as a senorita, told of the history, art and other cultural contributions of the country.

Also discussed was the Hearst State Historical monument, at San Simeon, Calif., which the speakers said was presented to the state of California in 1958 by the Randolph Hearst corporation. Of Spanish architecture, the monument contains many relics brought from all over the world.

Mrs. Willie Fischer, Miss DeMaris Glutsch, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Riggert presented a skit portraying a bullfight.

Mrs. LeRoy Hatcher and Mrs. Riggert received prizes in a verse-writing contest.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Lewis Bittle, Mrs. Robert Castle, Mrs. A. W. Glutsch, Mrs. Cari Jeglum, Mrs. Herbert Herzog, Mrs. Jack Mason, Mrs. James Ristau, Mrs. L. R. Retchless, Mrs. James Peckham and Mrs. Carl Peterson.

Open Monday and Friday Nights 'Til 9

Newberrys

Save up to 50%...
FABRIC SALE

Unbleached Muslin 29¢ yd.
39" wide, 80x80 thread count

Bedford Cord 69¢ yd.
Solid combed, 45 in. wide. All cotton, crease resistant, wash 'n wear

Chino Cloth 69¢ yd.
45" wide. Solid color, finest quality. All colors. Save!

Dotted Swiss 53¢ yd.
45 in. wide. Plain and floral. Special price

Sports Denim 59¢ yd.
Plain and stripes, 36 in. wide. Save at Newberrys

JUST ARRIVED

Plastic Drapes 88¢ pr.
Colorful, lined, 27x88. Brown & gold, Pink & gold, White & gold. 2 panels

WES PEARSON JEWELER
9 South Central Phone SP 2-9392

SPECIAL ON Watch Bands
Values To $12.95 NOW ON $3.95

Registered Watch Technician
9 South Central

Formerly Larry Schode Jeweler

It costs so little at Wards to...

117 S. Central SP 3-7301

Dress boys and girls for Easter

Boys' smart sport coats
Fine wool plus Orlon® Acrylic. 12-20. Sizes 6 to 10.....9.98 12.98

Washable dress slacks
Rayon plus Dacron® Polyester. 12-20. Sizes 6 to 10.....3.98 4.98

Little boys' 2-piece sets
4.98

Boys' spring casual suits
7.98

Little boys' dress oxfords
4.99

Pastel-pretty dresses iced with dainty lace
5.98 3.98
Sizes 7 to 14 Sizes 3 to 6x

Fashion takes a crisp whirl in washable, no-iron nylon or Dacron® polyester dresses. Delicate accents of lace, ribbon, ruffles and posies. Every dress has its own stand-out petticoat too! Wonderful buys... proof WARDS is your fashion center for values!

Little girls' part 1-straps
4.99

Girls' new spring coats
9.98

Girls' smart spring suits
8.98

Adorned with mock imported wool and Rich rayon flannel, pearl ornament, so nylon blend. Part embroidered trim, adorable in gleam—full flare skirt, Pleated circle-in-circle black patent or detachable collar. Sizes 7 to 14. smooth white, 8 1/2-3, Grey, navy. 3-6x. Sizes 3 to 6x. 6.98

Buy children's Easter outfits on Wards credit terms