Women of St. Anne's Altar society are making final preparations for the annual Easter Monday luncheon, to be held April 18 at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. John Welch (at left) is chairman of reservations which may be phoned to her at SPring 3-3056. Also serving on the luncheon committee are Mrs. Edward Nave and Mrs. John Jensen. The luncheon has been a traditional event with the women of Sacred Heart Catholic parish for many years.

Luncheon Held Wednesday For Girl Scout Workers

Registered adults in the South Medford district of the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council were honored at a luncheon Wednesday, at St. Mark's Guild Hall. Attending were 51 women who were recognized for from one to 20 years of service in Girl Scouting.

Gold pins were presented by Mrs. Richard Gray, council president.

Mrs. Scott Davis, who is at present chairman of the Endowment Fund committee, was commended for her 20 years of service.

Ten-year pins were presented to Mrs. George Large, Mrs. Richard Gray, Mrs. Raymond Reter and Mrs. W. W. Stevenson. Five-year pins went to Mrs. B. B. Bartels, Mrs. Jack Boettcher, Mrs. Howard Lehman, Mrs. Warren Parke, Mrs. George Davy, Mrs. J. P. Naumes.

Awards "just for fun" were given to the others present, according to years of service, and special "badges of honor" were presented to Mrs. Raymond Reter, Mrs. Al. Carrara, Mrs. George Baylor and Mrs. Richard Foy.

Two humorous monologues were given by Miss Ruth Kilbourn, executive director, and the showing of an "exclusive" line of spring bonnets, certain to please women in Scouting, ended the program. Models were Mrs. Thomas Vance, Mrs. Carrara, and Mrs. Max Leischner. Hats had been designed and made under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Mills.

"Easter bonnets" held the flowers on each table, and felt hats made for their mothers by Mrs. Mill's fifth grade Troop 193 of Jefferson school, were of particular interest.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Ida Wharton. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Walter Higgins.

An appliance company has introduced the "perfect servant," a detachable refrigerator-freezer-storage unit combined with a cooking section. The ensemble, done in walnut and antique leather, resembles a sideboard, is available whole or in sections, and can be used together or separately in any room in the house. The range section includes an oven and three Pyro-ceramic glass units. A bar serving section over the refrigerator includes a folding sink. The refrigerated section includes drawers to keep food cold. Trays within the drawers fit into the oven for cooking canapes.

Robert Heffernan Speaker For Medford Study Club

Robert D. Heffernan was guest speaker for the March meeting of the Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, held Tuesday at the Girls Community club.

Mr. Heffernan showed colored slides of Greece, Turkey, Italy and Spain.

Greece was the CARE project for the club. In 1958 the club's CARE project provided self-help kits for the Royal Institute, a school for indigent children to learn a trade, and become self-supporting. In 1959 there was enough money raised to support two schools.

Greek Art

Greek art of the Archaic and Classical periods were shown. The Temple of Poseidon at Paestum, Italy was an example of late Archaic Doric architecture, Mr. Heffernan stated. The Parthenon on the Acropolis of Athens was begun in 447 B. C. on the site of two earlier temples, the old temple of Athena, and the older Parthenon. Mr. Heffernan said that the Parthenon is a rectangular structure, built entirely of marble and surrounded by columns.

Avila, capital of the Province Avila, Spain, has a Gothic Cathedral. The granite walls of the city contain nine gates and are surmounted by 86 towers.

Turkey

Istanbul is the largest city in Turkey. It is built on both sides of the Bosporus. Its busy port is one reason why the city is the largest in Turkey. Along the Bosporus, which separates Turkey in Europe from Turkey in Asia, there are many castles hundreds of years old. It is the only city in the world located on two continents.

Mr. Heffernan said that he thought the ancient ruins of architecture of the Romans are still the best of any nation today. The ruins of the Colosseum give an idea of the splendor of the history of Rome.

Business Session

Preceding Mr. Heffernan's lecture and pictures, Mrs. Clay M. Lee, president of the club, presided during a business session. Mrs. H. J. Stephens, Rogue River, first vice-president of First District and conservation chairman, gave a report.

Other guests were Mrs. Lynabel Deck, president of Rogue River Civic Improvement club; Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. H. R. Skevington, Mrs. Edith Osborne, Mrs. Lulu Trotter, all of Rogue River; Mrs. N. J. Renard of Ft. Leonardwood, Mo.; Mrs. Calvin Brown, Ault, Colo.; and Mrs. Knute Lindgren, who became a member.

Mrs. Frank L. Stratton, Mrs. Edward C. Root, and Mrs. Beryl Lyon were on the nominating committee.

Refreshments were served from a buffet table, centered with an arrangement of camellias. Mrs. Stratton and Mrs. Lyon were hostesses for the day.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, April 26, in the Fireplace room at the Girls Community club.
