Hedrick Junior High school students may attend Eastwood Baptist church where the Rev. Robert Jacks, First Presbyterian church, will speak. Mr. Young is host pastor.

Five Churches To Host Missionary

Mrs. Elva Vanderbout, missionary since 1946 in the Philippine Islands, will speak this week end at a number of Assembly of God churches in the county.

Mrs. Vanderbout is known as the "Americana among the headhunters," since she is the only white woman to go among them.

During the 12 years Mrs. Vanderbout has been in the Philippines, she has built a children's home where she has cared for 50 children-at present there are 13 children in the home, most of them coming to her more dead than alive, but each one has lived.

Traveling with Mrs. Vanderbout is her adopted daughter, Rosa, a 17-year-old girl of the Igorot tribe. She wears the native dress and sings in her native language. The two are being sponsored in their tour of this valley by the Assembly of God churches.

Church Speaker

Sunday, April 10, at 9:45 a.m. they will be at the Merlyn church. Later, at 11 a.m. in the Assembly of God church at Applegate.

Holy Week Services Told for Catholics

The most solemn and holy week of the Roman Catholic liturgical year begins the morning of Palm Sunday, also referred to as the second Sunday of the Passion Time.

The blessing and distribution of palms will precede the 7 a.m. mass at Sacred Heart church. Weather permitting, there will be an outside procession around the church grounds in commemoration of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

The palms will be distributed at all the Sunday masses except the 6 a.m.

Also on Palm Sunday is the first solemn reading of the Passion according to Matthew.

Public Demonstrations

These public demonstrations of loyalty to Christ the Savior and King initiate a week of ceremonies and services commemorating the events leading up to Christ's passion, death and resurrection.

Masses on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be at the usual times of 6:45 and 8 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m. In preparation for the Good Friday services, Psalm 34, the Old Testament prophecies and the passion according to Mark and Luke will be read at these masses to tell the story of Christ's suffering.

The solemn high mass of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. on Holy Thursday. This service commemorates the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the first ordination of priests. Hosts needed for distribution at communion time on Good Friday are also consecrated at this mass.

Stripping of Altars

Following this mass there is the procession for the transfer of the Blessed Sacrament to the side altar of repose, after which the rite of the stripping of the altars takes place.

An 8 a.m. low mass will be said on Thursday for the students of St. Mary's school so that there will be more room to accommodate the adult parishioners at the solemn evening services.

The Solemn Liturgical Service of Our Lord's Passion and Death is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Good Friday. This service will consist of four parts: the scripture readings, including the Passion according to John; the solemn prayers of the faithful for all the spiritual and material needs of mankind and the adoration of the cross; and the distribution of Holy Communion.

Afternoon Service

In the afternoon services will be conducted for students attending public schools, and the adoration of the Living Christ at the altar of repose will continue throughout the day. All are invited to spend some time in the church in prayer and meditation on this day.

Following the Friday evening rites, the church will remain bare and unused for ceremonies, signifying the intense sorrow and desolation which followed Christ's death and burial, and no services will take place until 11 p.m. on Holy Saturday when the Easter Vigil rites will begin.

OBDIENCE

Too busy to read the Bible
Too busy to wait and pray
Too busy to speak out kindly
Too busy to go along the way
Too busy with cares and struggles to think of the life to come
Too busy building a mansion here to plan for the heavenly home
Too busy to help a brother who faces the winter's blast
Too busy to share the burdens when self in the balance is cast
Too busy for all that is holy on earth beneath the sky
Too busy to serve the Master, But not too busy to die.

Communications concerning the salvation of the soul (based on New Testament teaching without addition or subtraction) gladly answered.

Christian church, Grants Pass; Dr. George Roseberry, representing the Medford Ministerial association; Councilman Al Bradford, representing the City of Medford; the Rev. Glenn McKerrrow, associate minister of the local church; Wayne Wakefield, chairman of the church board; and J. F. Evans, chairman of the elders.

A reception will follow the installation services. The public is invited to both.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans and their three children John, 12, Patricia, 10, and Holly Marie, 10 months, moved to Medford this past week from Bremerton, Wash.

Native Oregonian

Mr. Evans, a native Oregonian, was born in Portland and spent his early life there and in Hood River. His father, B. Ross Evans, is a Christian church minister and was an evangelist in Oregon for over 25 years.

Mr. Evans studied for the ministry at Northwest Christian college and served with the Marines during World War II. After the war Mr. and Mrs. Evans owned and operated an orchard in the Hood River Valley. In 1950 they both returned to Northwest Christian college where Mrs. Evans received a bachelor's degree in religious education and Mr. Evans received his bachelor's degree in theology. Mr. Evans did graduate work at Drake Divinity school, Des Moines, Iowa, and received his divinity degree. He served as pastor of churches both in Oregon and Iowa while attending school.

In 1957 Mr. Evans became pastor of the Westpark Christian church, Bremerton.

First Sermon Here

He will begin his ministry at the First Christian church Sunday morning. His subject for both the services will be "The Jericho Road."

At the first service the youth choir will sing the anthem "Ivy Palaces." At the 10:55 a.m. service Miss Joyce Hunter and Mrs. Mabel Sims will play an organ and piano duet "The Angel's Serenade" and the chancel choir will present the anthem "Were You There?"

Sunday will be Decision day when many of the people who have been taking the churchmanship classes will join the church.

The Chi Rho fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. for their study on religions of the world.

Monday at 7 p.m. Mrs. Curtis Stockstill will conduct a leadership training class. This is for those who are teaching in the Bible school or who are interested in becoming teachers.

All departments of the church will hold their meetings at 7 p.m. Tuesday. The regular official board meeting will follow at 8 p.m.

Thursday at 7:30 p.m. there will be a pre-Easter baptism and communion service.

Pre-Easter Events Planned At First Baptist Church

The all-Sunday School Easter program will be presented at First Baptist church Sunday beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Each department in the school will have a part in the program, which is under the direction of Mrs. John Sellers. The various parts of the dramatization will be integrated by the imagined dialogue of two angels who view the observance of Easter on earth. Ted Graham is superintendent of the Sunday school.

"In the Presence of the King" will be the subject of the message given by the Rev. James W. Neely, pastor, at the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday. The adult choir under the direction of Kenneth Raymond, will present music in keeping with the Palm Sunday theme.

Other Services
