

Black Tornado's Thinclads Cop Crown in Rogue Relays

"It looks just like old times." That was an appropriate comment voiced yesterday as Medford High school was on its way to victory in the annual Rogue Valley relay at the Medford stadium. Black Tornado trackmen ended the two-year reign of Grants Pass in the relays in convincing fashion and lived hopes for further upsurge in Medford cinderpath and field fortunes. They won eight of the 13 events, set one new record and tied another and ran up a tremendous 100 1/2 points.

Grants Pass was a distant second with 75 1/2 and was pressed for the No. 2 spot by Crater which took third with 71 1/2. Klamath Falls scored 60 and Ashland 30 1/2. Mike Hood, Phil Humphreys and Dan Sieg combined for the day's only record-shattering effort. They aggregated 62 feet 9 1/2 inches, bettering by one foot the mark set by a 1956 Medford trio, Jerry Close, Mike Hawkins and Bob Tisdell. Hood leaped 21 feet 7 inches, Humphreys 21 feet and Dan Sieg 20-2 1/2.

A Tornado quartet of Humphreys, Kent Blew, Terry Ryan and Len Griggs tied the 880-yard relay mark of 1:31.5. Other Tornado triumphs were in the high hurdles, the 440-yard relay, the two-mile relay, the shot put relay, the shuttle hurdles and the high jump relay. Klamath Falls won three events, the javelin, discus and distance medley and Grants Pass took two contests, the pole vault and mile relay. While Crater gained no firsts, it scored strongly with six seconds and two thirds.

Hood Wins Hurdles
Hood captured the high hurdle race. His time of :15.3 actually put another record on the books for Medford since it was the first Rogue running of this race. Wall Ayres, also of Medford, was second, Mike McCullough, Humphreys, Jim Schmidt and Griggs teamed for Medford in the 440 win and a slick exchange between Humphreys and Schmidt made the difference in the race. The :44.4 time was .1 second off the record. In the two-mile Bob Rix ran the fastest leg of Medford of 2:04 to gain back distance lost. Ray Smith, anchoring in 2:05.9, took the lead on the west lap and beat off a stretch challenge by Ken Marshall of Grants Pass.

Medford, with Griggs on the final leg, won the 880 relay by five yards after being behind going into the last exchange. The Tornado trio of Robert Hamilton, Wall Ayres and Doyle Andrews, leading on every leg, won easily in the shuttle hurdles with :34.5, which is just .2 off the standard. The combined high jump total of 17-5 1/2 by Hood (5-10 1/2), Bob McIntyre and Jerry Shults (each 5-9 1/2) was 1 1/4 inches short of record. Don Garrison, Crater, had the individual height, 6 feet, as the Comets compiled 16-9. Boris Leads

Tom Boris led the Tornado to its 134-3 1/2 shot put win with 47-5 1/2. Derrell Williamson, Crater, was high man with 48-4 1/4. Allen Phillips took the javelin for Klamath Falls with 176-9 and Gary Hancock claimed the discus for the Pels with 147-10. Klamath's crew of Jack Mitchell, Jim Parks, Erick Peterson and Bill Sprout teamed in the distance medley.

Grants Pass' Al Staley overtook Medford's Kent Blew on the homestretch for the Cavemen's verdict in the mile relay. Harvey Graham, and Ken Marshall ran the other laps for GP. The Cavemen's Larry Holmes was pole vault winner at 11-8. Ayres Bolsters

Wall Ayres bolstered Medford high hurdle hopes when he finished his heat with the second best time of the event :15.4. Glen Wittingham, ex-Grants Pass, national prep record holder tossed the javelin 214-6 in exhibition. The four best javelin marks were closely bunched. Max Burton second at 176-3 for Crater, Ryan third at 175-4 1/2 for Medford and Turner fourth 174-7 for the Comets. In the shot put George Clearwater and Wayne Cowan rounded out the Tornado total with 44-8 1/4 and 42-1 1/2.

Glen Cole, Crater, was not far back of Hancock in the discus with his 146-2. RESULTS:

Edstrom Is Third High In World

Eugene, Ore. — (AP) — Dave Edstrom of the University of Oregon became the third highest decathlon scorer in the world Saturday by scoring 8,176 points in a special four-man decathlon event held here.

Only Vladimir Kutnetsov of Russia and Rafer Johnson of the United States have ever scored more points. Kutnetsov holds the world record of 8,357 points and Johnson the United States mark of 8,302 points.

Edstrom was first in four events Saturday and second in another. He competed with Steve Anderson, ex-Oregon track man; Bob Lawson, ex-Southern California trackster and currently an Oregon State coach, and Oregon State freshman Steve Pauly.

Anderson was second with 6,470 points, Lawson third with 6,061 points and Pauly finished fourth with 5,602.

Edstrom, Anderson and Lawson tentatively qualified for the national decathlon to be held here July 8-9 by scoring over 6,000 points and Edstrom qualified for the Olympic trials by scoring over 6,750 points.

Only event Edstrom didn't win was the javelin where Pauly got off a heave of 223-9 to win. Edstrom won the high hurdles, discus, pole vault and 1,500 meters.

Hanby Beats Own Mark
One other standard fell when Mike Hanby of Illinois Valley won the pole vault with 12-4 1/2. He established the former record of 12-2 3/4 in 1959.

St. Mary's also claimed the distance medley. Terry Cooper was a double winner for the Crusaders, with victories in the javelin and the high jump. His 188 feet 1/4 inch in the spear toss was near the 186-5 1/2 record and was almost 10 feet better than the winning throw in the big school Rogue relays in Med-

Crusaders Capture Little Rogue Honors

Phoenix-St. Mary's of Medford, winner last year by a half-point in its first appearance in the Little Rogue relays, chalked up its second straight verdict in the meet Saturday by a wider margin.

Setting two records and grabbing first place counters in six events, the Crusaders ran up 80 points, 5 1/2 better than totaled by host Phoenix high in second spot. Phoenix's 54 1/2 was followed by the Rogue River figure of 31. Illinois Valley had 25 and Eagle Point 23 1/2.

One record-blasting occasion saw three teams beat the former standard. The St. Mary's quartet of Dave Rouhier, Mike Austin, Tom Rouhier and Dick Evans ran the two-mile relay in 9:13.5. Phoenix and Rogue River also beat the 9:16 time of St. Mary's last year.

Bob Evans of St. Mary's, with 20 feet 4 inches in the broad jump, beat by two inches the mark set by Ted Daw of Eagle Point in 1956.

Crater Nips Ashland By 4-2 Score

Ashland-Crater high pushed over three runs in the extra ninth inning to down Ashland 4 to 2 here yesterday in a practice baseball game.

Jim Allen and John Anhorn singled and Pat Pepper doubled in the big frame. A fielder's option rap by Loyal Higinbotham and two Grizzly miscues also were factors in the scoring.

Pitcher John Anhorn held the Ashlanders to four hits while whiffing nine batters and walking two. The Ashland thrower, Duane Nelson, yielded 11 hits. He walked two and fanned two.

The Crater pitcher helped his cause by batting two for five. Pepper socked four for four with one blow a double. Allen hit two for four.

KF Pelicans Topple GP

Grants Pass — Klamath Union high joined Medford at the front of the Southern Oregon conference baseball race Friday by defeating Grants Pass here 5 to 1.

The Pelicans also took the shorter non-league nightcap 3 to 0.

Klamath, which had four hit pitching by veterans Blake Griggs, won the main tussle on a four-run burst in the seventh inning. The Pels put together a walk, a sacrifice by Sherm Allen, an intentional free pass, a double by Griggs, another base on balls and two errors. The intentional walk was to Dean Dunson because of a heavy blow hit earlier.

Griggs struck out batters seven times and issued two walks. Bill Cole, taking a five-hitter for GP, fanned five batters. Three of the five walks he issued were in the final inning.
