Deadline Parties Given Recently For Piano Pupils

Two "deadline parties" were held recently at the home of Mrs. D. F. Huson, 45 Lindley street. The recitals served as a deadline or checking period for the memorization of the selections which each participant will play for the Oregon Music Teachers association adjudicator in April.

Each pupil was assigned two or three selections to memorize and was graded as he played them.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown acted as adjudicator for the evening. She questioned each student as to scales, primary chords, cadences and dynamics pertinent to the selections played.

Students who participated were Marilyn, Wayne, and Melvin Taylor; Alecia, Madelyn, and Laurie Beth Buonocore; Janis, Ted, and John Barker; Sydney and Shirlee Smith; Susan Benesh, Tom Capsey, Hal Blomquist, Jane and Debbie Sanborn, Tom Marler, Penny Forbes, Tom Schoppert, John Yoakley, Gregory Howes, Jennifer Wilcox, Janet Price, Margaret Doolen, Sharon Laing, Doreen Huson, Ruth Wilcox, Carolyn Baccus, Scott Thurston, and Penny Roach.

A special award was offered to any student who could play his selection from Bach perfectly as to rhythm and notation. Ruth Wilcox and Janis Barker made perfect records and received their prizes.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

Dick Day Winner of Art Award

Dick Day, senior at Medford High school, will represent Oregon in the national judging of the Hallmark scholarship award in Kansas City, Mo., in May. He is the grandson of Mrs. Gracie Day, 1028 North Central avenue.

The student was sponsored in the state competition by the Travel Study Club of Medford, an affiliate of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. One hundred clubs in the state sponsored students for the award.

Young Day submitted an oil in competition with work submitted by high schools throughout Oregon. The subject, a group of buildings along North Central avenue, is done in muted tones of greens and browns in a naturalistic manner. The theme for judging the work was based upon an "expression of the American scene and spirit."

The national selection will be to determine the winner of a $600 scholarship to be awarded to some high school senior for advanced art study.

The Medford student has won a number of art honors in the past. They include national scholastic gold keys in 1959 and 1960; he has had his work in competition in New York for national selection both years. His work also includes sculpturing and print making.

He plans to enter professional art school next fall.
