

Congregationalists Tell Sunday Events

The sermon for Palm Sunday by the Rev. Thomas McCamant at the Congregational church will be on "Christ Entering In." Services are at 9:45 and 11 a.m. There will be baptism of infants at the 9:45 a.m. hour and reception of youth members into the church at 11 a.m. The choir, directed by Carroll Graber, will sing "The Palms" at the earlier hour. At the second service there will be a solo by Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, "I Bowed on My Knees and Cried 'Holy'."

The church school meets at 9:45 a.m. Care for younger children is provided at 11 a.m.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet tonight at 7 p.m. Thursday at 8 p.m. there will be the communion of the Lord's Supper and a service of "The Extinguishing of the Lights" carried out by the church deacons.

St. Peter's Tells Sunday Topic

"Have You Made Your Decision For Christ?" is the Palm Sunday topic chosen for his 11 a.m. sermon at St. Peter's Lutheran church, East Main and Vancouver sts., by the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon.

Sunday school for all age groups begins at 9:30 a.m. The quarterly Voters' meeting of the congregation will be held today at 3 p.m. and the Waltham League meets at 7 p.m.

Holy Week services will include a service with Communion on Maundy Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and a service on Good Friday at 7:30 p.m.

St. Peter's church will conduct three Easter services. All three will be conducted by the pastor. They will include a 6 a.m. sunrise service at the Starlite Drive-In theater on Pacific highway south, and the church, at both 8 and 11 a.m. Holy Communion will be celebrated in the 11 a.m. service.

Missionary Radio Work Emphasized

The Rev. Paul Pipkin, missionary from China, the Philippines and Japan will be the featured speaker at a missionary service held Thursday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. in First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., the Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor, has announced.

Mr. Pipkin began his missionary career in 1947 at Peiping, China with China Youth for Christ. When Chinese communists took control of the government, he moved to Manila, Philippines, where he served as staff member of the Far East Broadcasting Corporation as well as Youth for Christ director in Manila.

On his present tour of the United States Mr. Pipkin is placing emphasis on missionary radio work in the Far East, especially Japan, which country has over 15 million home radios.

Portland - Crow's Lumber Market News service reported a slightly stronger market for green fir dimension items in the week ending today.

Apostolic Faith to Hold Bible Quiz

The senior young people of the Apostolic Faith church, Third st. and Central ave., will participate in a Bible quiz today at 3 p.m. in the main auditorium of the church, with the Rev. Clifford Friesen, director of youth activities, as moderator.

The quiz will cover the last 10 chapters of the Book of Acts.

Since this series began a year ago, reviews on the Book of Acts have been given each Sunday, except during summer vacation. Last Sunday two teams of juniors answered questions on these same themes. Today's senior quiz will be the third and last of the series. As a prelude to the service, the young people's chorus will sing a medley of gospel songs, under the direction of Duane Jones. Everyone is invited.

Zion Lutheran Sets Confirmation Event

Twenty-seven young people will be received into the Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., through the order of confirmation this morning.

The young people have been studying for two years. After the 11 a.m. service there will be a reception held in their honor. They will be in white robes for the service.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be children's baptism at the church.

Thursday, April 14, Holy Communion will be held at 7:30 p.m.
