God Uses Earthly Fathers for Picture of Heavenly Father

By The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Irving A. DeBlanc
Director, Family Life Bureau
National Catholic Welfare Conference
Written for UPI

Lent is a time when Christians are urged to enter a 40-day retreat, a period of closeness to God, of recommitment. God uses earthly instruments to draw us to himself. He especially uses our earthly fathers to give us a picture of the heavenly Father: "Be ye perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Today we plead with fathers not to misrepresnt the face of God from the minds of their children but to give an authentic picture of him. Every creature reveals a message from the Almighty. The thunder over Mount Sinai taught the early Hebrews of the power of God. Stars in the heaven taught the shepherds of all ages how wonderful was the Creator. Our earthly fathers give us the most complete picture of the Father in heaven.

The main concern of the father is not to struggle day after day to fill empty stomachs. He has an even more important function. As the Father in heaven is wise, so must he be wise. As the Father in heaven is a provider, so must he provide. As the Father in heaven is the creator, so must he be a pro-creator. As the Father is merciful, understanding and loving, so must he be.

If a father shows no deceit, his children will learn to have faith in their heavenly Father. If a father responds generously to the reasonable wishes of his children, they will learn to have hope in God. If a father is warm and approachable, the children will learn charity toward God.

Should Lead Grace

The father then should lead in grace before meals and in family prayers. He should help the children prepare for church services. He should hear the children's lessons. He should read good books to his children. He should lead in visiting the sick and needy. He should lead in supporting the church.

He is the leader in religion, education, economics, procreation, affection, recreation. He can only delegate authority in these matters, he cannot delegate responsibility.

Jaycee Official Visits Medford

Jack Spindle, Roseburg, national director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the state of Oregon, paid an official visit to the Medford Jaycees at a meeting last week. He was accompanied by Clarence Paol, first vice president of the Roseburg Jaycees.

Del Landing was nominated for the office of president of the Medford Jaycees; John Gustafson, first vice president; Hank Haydal, second vice president; Ken D. Griess, secretary; and Gene R. Schwein, treasurer.

Don Lue reported on the coming Pear Blossom festival queen and king contest. The Jaycees received an invitation to a meeting of district 9 at Grants Pass April 10.

The name of Larry Allen, Medford Jaycee, was recommended by Spindle to be entered in the state contest to name the outstanding local president.

After-Hours Listed For Clerk's Office

The elections department in the county courthouse will remain open until 8 p.m. on both April 18 and 19, County Clerk E. M. Madden has announced.

Deadline for Jackson county residents to register to vote in the May 20 primary is 8 p.m. April 19. The front door of the courthouse will remain open after hours for those who wish to register, Madden said.

The elections department is on the second floor of the building.
