Medford High school's Bud Lowery yesterday a no-hit, no-run game yesterday when the Tornado junior varsity trimmed the Talent varsity 8 to 0 in a baseball encounter at Talent.

Lowery survived one rough spot in the sixth inning when a walk, error and catcher's interference loaded the bases. The base on balls was the only one he yielded. He struck out batters 15 times in the seven inning ruckus.

The Tornado scored three times in the fourth inning on two bases on balls, singles by Scott Eaton and Lowery, a groundout and a passed ball.

In the sixth stanza two errors, a base on balls, a hit batter and safeties by Craig Laurance and Jim Shaw accounted for five runs.

Mike Jacobs, starting pitcher for Talent, gave up five walks and struck out eight. His reliever, Rick Seymour, walked one and fanned one. Each yielded three hits.

Coach Don Moore said that the game with Butte Falls opening Jackson County B league play for Talent will be at Talent Friday. Printed schedules conflicted concerning site of the game.

Medford tied for fourth in the shoot with McMinnville with 50 points. Cottage Grove and Eugene shared second with 52. The shoot was held over six weeks with 27 teams participating.

Each week each team was matched against several other teams. Canby won over 16 foes, tied 10 and lost to none. Medford had 12 wins, 14 ties and no losses.

The top five clubs in the tourney all were unbeaten.

Medford Ties For Fourth in Journal Shoot

Medford Gun club shooters will take up Friday where they were when the lights went out at a recent trapshoot.

All men signed up on the 50 target event are asked to come out for the continuation of the shooting since some of them may be involved in ties will have to shoot off.

There will be time for practice firing.

Eagle Point Victor Over Prospect

Prospect—Eagle Point high, grabbing a wide lead but nearly falling to a flurry of walks and singles, tripped Prospect 9 to 7 in a non-league baseball game here yesterday.

The win evened the score for an 18 to 3 loss to Prospect earlier.

A barrage of 14 hits, highlighted by Dick Wilson's home run, helped the Eagles. The homer, with the bags loaded, came in the first inning when EP scored five of its runs.

Singles were hit in this frame by Bill Pfeifer, Tony Eastman and Jim Nease.

Eagle Point headed 8 to 0 going into the bottom of the sixth stanza. Three walks and hits by Terry Gardner, Lee Gitchell and Cliff Chapman then contributed to three Prospect markers. The Eagles added one run in the seventh and Prospect rose up for four more before the side could be retired.

Cougar counts were on four walks and hits by John Rogers and Floyd Scaife. Dick Hertzger, Eastman, Nease, Perdue and Pfeifer each had two hits for EP and Schafie and Gitchell each swatted two for Prospect.

EP starting pitcher, Nease, had a no-hitter going for four innings.

Prospect was to play Rogue River here today while Eagle Point entertains Illinois Valley on Friday.

LINE SCORE: Eagle Point 510 020 1-9 14 0 Prospect 000 003 4-7 8 0 Nease, Pfeifer (5), Patrick (9), Geron (7) and Hertzger, Yell, C, Gardner (3) and Chapman.

Red Raider Hitting Led By Munyon

Ashland—Jess Munyon was the Southern Oregon college baseball player of the week as a result of his terrific series against the University of Nevada last Saturday. He shot his batting average to .636.

Munyon garnered five hits in the two games, batted in five runs, and scored five of his own. He also played errorless ball at third base.

The Raider hot corner man is a sophomore from Glendale High school who also competes in football at Southern Oregon. In his seven trips to the plate against Nevada, Munyon got on base every time.

Francis Runnerup Eldon Francis is the runner-up to Munyon with a .600 average. He too, had a fine series at Nevada. Defensively, the Raider center fielder hauled in 11 fly balls with catches in every mid-pasture area of the fenceless ballpark.

Jim Dietz is leading the club in stolen bases with three and has a .300 batting average while Francis has scored the most runs, six.

SOC hopes to extend its two-game win streak with a trio of victories over Oregon College of Education in defense of the Oregon Collegiate conference crown they have held the past two years. SOC meets OCE Friday at 3 p.m. in a single game and Saturday in a twin-bill beginning at 10 a.m.

Rightshander Don Vannice and lefty John Younger are probable starting hurlers for the Raiders.
