Medford High School

Edited by Jim Frake.
Staff: Diane Mohr, Edonna Pace, Sue Reule, Esther Jacobs, Rita McBeth, Jim McCormack, Ann MacManama, and Jim Tunnage. Although incorrectly reported in last week's column, the Future Teachers of America area convention was held Saturday in Roseburg. A MHS delegation left early Saturday morning in private cars and returned that evening.

Chief purpose of the meet was to elect regional officers. Those nominated and elected from this area were Jo Ann Johnson, president; Carolyn Finch, secretary-treasurer; and Julie Faught, historian. Featured at the meet was a talk by three foreign exchange students from the University of Oregon and Oregon State college, and a speaker from Marshfield High school who attended a similar tour to Russia as Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford public schools.

John Mast, club advisor, accompanied the group to the meet. The Class of '60 decided, at an officer's meeting last week, that it would dedicate a baseball scoreboard to the school. Report cards were given out for the third nine-week period this week. All cards should be returned by Friday, April 15. Josephine Kirtley, vice principal, has advised.

Vital to producing a show are members of the business staff and production staff. There are many such students working on "Oklahoma," to be presented April 21-23 by the MHS choir.

Leading the production staff is Lynn Sjolund, vocal musical instructor, as director, with John Lee, student director. Nancy Hinman is chairman of properties with staff members Linda Smith, Ray Konopasek, Bill Rupp, Cassie Thompson, Ken Davis, Mary Kay Harris, John Cantrell, Jeannie James, and Rosiland Randles.

Rita Miller is chairman of the costume committee, with Karen Morlan as assistant chairman and staff members Sandra Allen, Lynn Peterson, De Anne Taylor, Maggie McCollum, Sandra Ferris, Sharon Fraysher, Bev Todd, Cheryl Linn, Nancy McLaughlin, Tanya Edners, Martha Sanborn, Suzi Van Sickle, Jeanette Dahlstrom, Jean Heidemann, Mavis Strom and Cecile Gidney.

Linda Jo Waltermire is Kennedy's Religion Said To Be Factor

Washington - (UPI) - A leading Catholic magazine said today Sen. John F. Kennedy's religion "obviously was a factor" in the Wisconsin primary "but how big a factor is not yet clear."

The Jesuit-edited weekly review America commented editorially that Kennedy's Catholic faith "appears to have helped much more than hurt him" in urban districts of Wisconsin. "But in rural areas the opposite seems to have been true."

It concluded that "the hard-headed politicians who will choose the Democratic nominee in Los Angeles may therefore have to look beyond the Wisconsin primary to learn whether Sen. Kennedy's religion dooms his candidacy or gives it special appeal."

Presidency Moves At Minimum Pace

Augusta, Ga. - (UPI) - The Presidency of the United States moved along in low gear today, the pace of official activity set to the minimums consistent with President Eisenhower's holiday at the Augusta National Golf Club.

Eisenhower is here storing up the vitality that will be taxed heavily in the next 10 weeks as he confers with a series of foreign leaders in Washington, goes to the summit meeting in Paris and then undertakes his most ambitious venture with an extensive trip to Russia and the Far East.

Because the office travels with a modern President in these days of instantaneous communications and fast airplanes, Eisenhower cannot have a complete vacation anywhere in the world. But he comes as close to it in Augusta as possible.

San Jose, Calif. - (UPI) - Vice Arm. Charles A. Lockwood (Ret.) Wednesday predicted an eventual world ban on nuclear weapons and warned that such a ban would place the United States in a position of weakness because other nations have more manpower. Lockwood was commander of the U.S. submarine force in the Pacific in World War II.

Colleen Hope is head choreographer, with Karen Lytle as her assistant. Robert Stedman, auditorium supervisor, and Ken Peek are in charge of the lighting and technicians; and Warren Wolf, art instructor, is in charge of set designing, stage plots, and set decoration.

Barbara Whalin and Sandra Bates are the prompters, with Jerry Gastineau, John Crawford, and Jack Richardson as the stage crew. Heading the business staff is Paul Moore, business manager. Carolyn Mencke is publicity chairman with staff members Art House, Jim Henson, Judy Bash, Joyce Roelfs, Judy Van Gordon, Ellen Montgomery, Lynn Creel, Julie Jahn, Sharon Huffman, and Wally Huffman. De Ann Taylor is chairman of the programs and working with her are Ruth Coovert and Warren Wolf. Charlene Highland is ticket chairman with staff members Linda Slessler, Karen Mayfield, Karen Christensen, Barbara Whalin, Barbara Thomas, and Merrie Marsh.

Thursday evening the present MHS rally squad practiced and offered help to the 1960-61 rally squad candidates. On April 13 preliminary screening reduced the number of applicants to six junior girls, and four boys—either of the English department at Southern Oregon college spoke to seniors taking advanced and college prep English, and those juniors taking advanced English, Thursday morning in the auditorium.

The general aim of the speech was to reveal to future college students just what is expected of them in their English classes at college.

Seniors who are not planning to go to college took a general aptitude test Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings to see what they are best suited to do.

Five seniors took the AFL-CIO Scholarship test Wednesday. This test was essay in style covering much of the history of labor unions. They will be judged in state competition and the results will be revealed next month.

Seniors who took the exam are Ros Randles, Mildred Boyd, Paul Moore, Rosemary Eisman, and Charlene Highland.

Students interested in seeing "Julius Caesar" by William Shakespeare, played on an Elizabeth stage, are able to reserve seats for Aug. 15 by contacting any English teacher, Robert Semon, MHS English department head, announced last week. Student tickets for the show are $1.20. Last summer 35 sophomores attended the Oregon Shakespeare Festival association production of "Twelfth Night." Due to the interest of the students, special arrangements have been made again this year to obtain the special price.

Carl Washburn, sophomore class president, has revealed the nature of three petitions being passed around the school.

One is to allow freshmen to elect their officers in the spring. This would have to be worked out with the student council of both Hedrick and McLoughlin Junior highs.

The second one is to increase the class representation giving one representative to each 100 students instead of just one for each class as the present system now allows.

The third one is to prohibit the senior class from voting for the following year's student body officers because these seniors will not be represented by the officers.

The sophomores plan to bring the petitions before the student council when they get enough signatures. If these are approved, they may then go before the student body for voting.
