Small Worlds Around Us

By Lynn M. Watkins

Hubby Was Just So Much Excess Baggage. What originally was intended to be merely an ornament for a picture window...

It was a square aquarium containing about six gallons of water, some aquatic plants, a small gabled structure...

The lady who owned the aquarium, as well as the house where it sat, had purchased a pair of the tiny tropical fish...

Everything seemed on the up and up. The two tropical fish appeared contented. They swam gracefully in and out of the castle...

But "coming events" failed to cast their shadow; the unexpected happened. A morning came when the daylight, and a close scrutiny...
